pointed chairman of committee Mrs. Chas. Cline on flowers for Union cemetery, and Miss Mayme Goldsmith appointed chairman of committee on flowers for McConnellsburg. D. M. Kendall and S. B. Woollet were appointed a committee to secure the speaker for the day.

Murray Ray, Abram Runyan Miss Esther Welsh and J. W. Hoop were appointed Mrs. Jno. Martz a committee to arrange for music.

Put in Early.

The tender crops which are grown from seed-Beans, Corn, Cucumbers, Melons, Squash, Okra, Pumpkins and Watermelons should be put in as early watch and follows the lead of. the most experienced neighbor gardener he will come pretty close to it. A row or two of Beets and Corn may be put in "on a chance a little early" if one has the seed to spare as the expense is not great if the first planting does get nipped.
