Roy O. Palmer, Needmore, R. R. 1, was in town Tuesday. He has an almost new Overland car that he can leave some good fellow have at a bargain. Of course, if you want it, don't be slow.

Our old friend D. Riley Garland and his brother Daniel of Bethel township, and Amos Plessinger of Belfast, motored to town last Saturday and spent a few hours attending to business.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Miller, of Waterfall, accompanied by the former's father, Albert Miller, of Three Springs, made a motoring trip to McConnellsburg, Tuesday and were pleasant callers at the NEWS office.

Donald Shimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Christmas Shimer, has gone into Trout's Drug Store to make himself generally useful in helping to serve customers. Donald is a good boy, and is taking his first step in preparation for a life of usefulness.

Mrs. J. W. Mower, of Clear Ridge and her son Rev. J. Meriv Stewart spent a few hours in town Tuesday. Yesterday they took leave of their friends at Clear Ridge and Mrs. Mower will accompany her son to Texas, where he has a charge as minister in the M. E. Church.

George Elliott Tritle, the courteous and efficient clerk in Trout's Drug Store, left Monday morning for Bethlehem, Pa., to accept a position with the Bethlehem Steel Company. George has been with the Trouts, almost as one of the family, for five years, and he will be missed, not only in the drug store, but by the community as well.

One of our country subscribers in town a few days ago, told us he had a neighbor that was a thief—would steal corn, or anything he could get his hands on, and wanted us to publish the long-fingered friend's name in the NEWS. We told him we were afraid to publish the name for fear he might come in and break our head.

We had a pleasant call Monday from our old friend Wm. J. Giffin, of Bethel township, who shot his subscription ahead another year. Mr. Giffin is a veteran of the Civil War, having been a member of the 112th Pennsylvania cavalry, and he served to the close of the war. While he is now almost eighty years of age he is well preserved and active as one much younger in years.

L. L. Cunningham, of Akron, O., was in town last Friday afternoon making arrangements for the advertising of the sale of the household goods of his late mother, Mrs. Charlotte Cunningham, at New Grenada, which will take place Saturday at 10 o'clock. He was accompanied to McConnellsburg by Mr. Arthur A. Cunningham, representing the Prudential Life Insurance Company at Mt. Union, Pa.

David has some dandy good cherries which the visitors enjoyed greatly.

Writing from Curwensville, June 4th, Veteran John Hann says, "As I am not very busy at this time, I will write to let you know that I am alive and well. I worked twelve days and had $36 and board. This was for farm work. Wages is good here running from three to six dollars a day. This is a fine county; some very nice wheat fields. The soil is all underlaid with coal. I do not know how long I shall stay here. Tell my friend Wesley Hoop that I am well."

Good For Dublin Mills.
 Mrs. Walter Roher, of Dublin Mills has been much interested in the success of the Red Cross movement. Feeling that the community around the Mills was falling a little behind, a meeting was arranged for last Saturday evening. The way the community turned out to that meeting was a proof that they were alive to the necessities of the great war, and when Clem Chesnut had finished his address and called for a show-down, the result was a contribution of Three Hundred Fifteen Dollars.
