Jesus Only

By REV.EDMUND F.COOK, D.D. Director Missionary Course, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

TEXT-Be it known unto you all... that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth... even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.. Neither is there salvation in any other, for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved.

-Acts 4:10-12.

Peter boldly avouches the lame man to be healed by the name of Jesus and that by the same

Jesus only we must be eternally saved. Jesus Christ is indeed the only great tencher who, exemplifying the perfect qualities of sinless manhood, claimed authority to forgive sin and power to save men from sin, and saving them to keep them whole. Men of all ages and nations have stood in need of him. It has ever been the duty and responsibility of the church to make Christ known as the one and only Savior of men. Never has there been, however, a call so urgent as that which now comes to the church to present to the young men of America Jesus of Nazareth, the Christ of God, in all the matchless splendor of his manhood and in all the fulness of his saving grace. Never has there been a time when this salvation in Christ meant so much to our young men, never a time when it meant so much to the nation, and to the world. We have come upon the supreme test of character and manhood in the great battlelines of Europe. The crucial hour surely is at hand. Only the clear, strong, enduring, overmastering manhood of the allied armies can win in this mighty struggle. Who is able to impart this strength, but Christ only.

Never has there been a day when the moral power and physical strength of American manhood was so in demand and never a time when it was so imperiled. Our young men are gathered by the thousands and hundred thousands into the training camps, and are sent week after week into the battle-lines in France, removed from the home restraints to which they have been accustomed, and subjected in a new and trying way to manifold temptations. In spite of government efforts to protect them, and in spite of the devoted and heroic endeavors of the Christian forces of the army and the Y. M. C. A. to reach and to save them, the dram shop and the brothel, the boot-legger and the harlot, are seeking to reap a harvest which, from the standpoint of our country's need, is priceless. Legislation cannot change the hearts of men. Christ only can furnish the saving grace, the moral fortitude and the heroic courage that can take our young men safely through the mazes of temptation which must surround them from the beginning to the end of their experience in modern warfare in a world of sin.

The following story by a nurse in France is illustrative of the ruin wrought when the viperous grip of vice falls upon our sturdy lads:

"One morning a nurse whose name you have seen in the papers went with me to a special clinic, and on our way back we passed a great building used for a hospital.

"I can stand anything in this war but that,' she said.

"'Why, what is there here worse than in other hospitals? Could anything be worse than we had at Verdun and Ypres?

"'Yes! yes! these are the boys who can fight for their country, but can't fight for themselves,' she answered. 'No wound received at the front is so frightful as the wounds of these men. Out there the wounds are awful and ghastly, but when they are washed and dressed, the boys look sweet and clean and wholesome. If they die, they die with honor; if they live, they live with honor; but these boys here suffer from diseases worse than leprosy. If they die, they die in loathsome horror. If they live, they are a curse to those who love them. These are the spolls of the brotherhood of the harlot.'

"'Come, my dear, let us get away from here. It haunts me, I have a boy in the army. Every day I ask God to give him courage to fight this battle to victory or let him die.' Then she took my arm and led me away.

"A few weeks later I was sent to that very hospital. It was all different. In other hospitals the soldiers like to have the nurses near them. We remind them of their mothers, sisters and sweethearts, and they are a little proud of their wounds. But in that one they are ashamed of their lives and disease and do not want a good woman near. They are morose and despondent. The blackest despair is In their eyes and hearts,"

Oh how sorely these boys needed Christ in the fresh, sweet days of early manhood. If every manly power had been brought under captivity to Him, how different might have been the outcome of this testing time. Our thousands of fresh, clean lads gathering weekly in the great cantonments and pouring daily into the battle line in France must have a chance to know the Man of Galilee, that manifest of men, "who hath been touched with a feeling of their infirmity," and who is able to save them from sin and able also to keep them whole. How great the responsibility and opportunity of the army chaplains and Y. M. C. A. secretaries in presenting Christ the only sufficient Savior to these young Americans who hold in their hands the issues of the war and the destiny of the democratic nations of the earth. Pray for them that Christ only may be their strength.

KIDNEY TROUBLE NOT EASILY RECOGNIZED

Applicants for Insurance Often Rejected

An examining physician for one of the prominent life insurance companies, in an interview of the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease.

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

We find that Swamp-Root is strictly an herbal compound and we would ad-vise our readers who feel in need of such a remedy to give it a trial. It is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle When writing be sure and mention this paper .- Adv.

If Soldier Had Kept Promises He Might Have Had Some Trouble With His Captain.

He was a strikingly handsome figure in his uniform as he started out upon his round of farewell calls. "And you'll think of me every single minute when you're in those stupid old trenches?" questioned the sweet young thing upon whom he first called. He nodded emphatically. "Every minute." "And you'll kiss my picture every night?" "Twice a night," he vowed, rashly, patting the pretty head on his shoul-

"And write me long, long letters?" she insisted.

"Every spare minute I have," he reassured her, and hurried away to the next name on his list. There were ten in all who received his promises. When it was over he sighed, "I hope," he murmured, wearily, "there won't be much fighting to do 'over there.' I'm going to be so tremendously busy,"-London Opinion.

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

DEVOTIONAL READING-Paulms 119 I. Characteristics of God's Word (Ps. 19:7-11).

The Psalmist here sets forth six de scriptive titles of God's Word, six outstanding qualities, and six resultant

FIRST GROUP-1. Title: "The Law of the Lord"

(v. 7). By this is meant the fundamental principles which God as a moral being reveals to the consciences of men as binding upon the soul. These are everywhere discernible in the Bible. 2. Quality: "Perfect" (v. 7).

It is free from omissions and redundancies. Being perfect, there should be no adding to or taking away from. To do so is most perilous (Rev. 22:18, 19). It is perfect as a moral code, and it perfectly accomplishes man's salvation. 3. Effect: "Converting the Soul"

(v. 7). Convert means to restore. Man 19 continually wandering away from God. The practical effect of the law of God is to turn men to God himself, righteousness and holiness. The mighty and only instrument used in the salvation of souls is the Word of God. It is quick and powerful (Heb. 4:12). It restores our backslidings also. The daily study of it is necessary.

SECOND GROUP-1. Title: "The Testimony of the Lord" (v. 7).

It is the witness which God bears as to his attributes, and against man's

2. Quality: "Stre" (v. 7) It is plain and infallible. We can repose in it our interests for time and eternity. In a world of doubt and uncertainty, it is a blessed thing to have that which is sure to rest upon.

3. Effect: "Making Wise the Sim ple" (v. 7). The simple are those who have humble, open and teachable minds. Things which are hidden from the wise and prudent are revealed unto babes. How true it is that those who with open minds feed upon the Word of God are from their feet. THIRD GROUP-1. Title: "The Statutes of the Lord" fortified against the devices of the devil which sweep the worldly-wise

These are the principles or charges which the Lord gives to us all, to fit us to rightly perform the duties which the different relations of life make obligatory upon us.

2. Quality: "Right" (v. 8). They are from the righteous God who knows our nature and circumstances. They are absolutely just and equitable. 3. Effect: "Rejoicing the Heart" (v.

The Word of God not only saves but makes happy. The high moral principles of God's Word cause the heart to exult. The true heart rejoices in justice and equity. It rejoices when the weak is defended and the oppressor is rebuked. FOURTH GROUP-

1. Title: "The Commandment of the Lord" (v. 8).

This brings into view the personal God who stands back of his law to enforce Its demands-to require obedience to its precepts. 2. Quality: "Pure" (v. 8).

It is free from deceit and error. On every page is the evidence of straightforward sincerity. No sinister motives are to be found or suspected. Every demand made upon man is for his own, not God's good.

3. Effect: "Enlightening the Eyes" (v. 8).

The effect of God's law is to give man ability, not only to understand his love and salvation, but to be wise as to the things about him. FIFTH GROUP-

1. Title: "The Fear of the Lord" (v.

Reading the Word of God produces reverential fear in the heart of the render. 2. Quality: "Clean" (v. 9).

It is not only clean in itself, but sanctifies the heart of those who receive it. 3. Effect: "Enduring Forever" (v. 9).

The life and relationship founded upon his law abide forever. SIXTH GROUP-

1. Title: "The Judgments of the Lord" (v. 9). By this is meant the sentences pronounced by God's Word.

2. Quality: "True and Righteous" (v. 9). The penalties prescribed by God are true, conformable to the intuitive moral sense of man. 3. Effect: "Serve as Warnings and Bring Reward" (v. 11). If the warnings be heeded, shipwrecks upon life's sea will be prevented. Besides God pays a wage for obedience to his laws. Godliness is profitable unto all, having the promise of the life that now is, and that which is to come

II. A Notable Example of Bible Study (Acts 8:26-39). 1. Who It Was (v. 27).

The Ethiopian cunuch, a man of great authority. He was the secretary of the treasury of the Ethiopian queen. The wisest and best men and women of the earth have been reverent students of the Bible and have testified to its beauty and power. 2. The Circumstances of (v. 28). It was while traveling that this great man was studying the Bible.

A Great Responsibility.

THE responsibility attached to the preparing of a remedy for infants and children is undoubtedly greater than that imposed upon the manufacturer of remedies for adults whose system is sufficiently strong to counteract, for a time at least, any injurious drug. It is well to observe that Castoria is prepared today, as it has been for the past 40 years, under the personal supervision of Mr. Chas. H. Fletcher.

What have makers of imitations and substitutes at stake? What are their responsibilities? To whom are they answerable? They spring up today, scatter their nefarious wares broadcast, and disappear tomorrow.

Could each mother see the painstaking care with which the prescription for Fletcher's Castoria is prepared: could they read the innumerable testimonials from grateful mothers, they would never listen to the subtle pleadings and false arguments of those who would offer an imitation of, or substitute for the tried and true Fletcher's Castoria.

Children Cry For

Extracts from Letters by Grateful Parents to Chas. H. Fletcher.

G. J. English, of Springfield, Mass., says: "It was your Castoria that saved my child."

Mrs. Mary McGinnis, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "We have given our baby your Castoria ever since she was born, and we reccommend it to all mothers."

N. E. Calmes, of Marion, Ky., says: "You have the best medicine in the world, as I have given your Castoria to my babies from first to last." Mrs. Albert Ugusky, of Lawrenceburg, Ind., says: "As I have had your Castoria in use for nearly three years, I am pleased to say it is just as represented. My children are both well and happy—thanks to Castoria."

R. P. Stockton, of New Orleans, La., says: "We began giving your Castoria to our baby when he was eight days old and have kept it up ever since, never having had to give any other medicine."

Mrs. Dolph Hornbuckle, of Colorado Springs, Colo., says: "We com menced giving your Castoria to our baby when she was four weeks old. She is now seven months and weighs 194 pounds. Everyone remarks "What a healthy looking baby." We give Castoria credit for it."

Good Story Told of Retribution That Was the Lot of English Food Hoarder.

Baron Reading told in Washington a story about a food hoarder. "We punish our food hoarders severely," he said. "It's nothing unusual to arrest and fine an English were announced. "'One minute,' the food hoarder gasped. Tell the policemen to wait

Luminous Golf Balls.

With the price of a golf ball soaring higher than the arc of its flight even in a drive over trees, losing one has become more than ever a saddening experience to the golfer of moderate means who plays for health rather than fashion. While the daylight saving plan has given the golfer an extra hour at the end of his day, some enthusiasts will continue to play into twilight hours. So a bright genius has devised a golf ball which is luminous. No more poking around in the grass after dusk-just look for the latest 'shine ball" as you'd hunt a firefly. Another inventor has devised a means of avoiding arguments. He has produced a marker for stamping your inltial on every ball you use.
