Among the callers at the NEWS office last Saturday was F. E. Palmer, of near Sipes Mills. Mr. Palmer has ordered a first class hydraulic cider mill and press, and it was shipped the first of this month. He expects to have it up for work in time for the first cider making of the season. You will see his advertisement later.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sipes, accompanied by the latter's mother, sister, and brother-in-law—Mrs. R. S. Davison and Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Hamilton—motored from Pittsburgh on Tuesday of last week to Washington, D. C. Returning, they spent Thursday night in the home of Clarence's brother-in-law and sister William and Caddie Kennedy, East Lincoln Way.

Joe A. Cunningham, a prosperous merchant and general business man, of Englevalle, Kans., and his brother L. L. Cunningham, cashier of the large Neal millinery establishment in Akron, O., spent a few days last week resting at Hotel Harris and mingling with McConnellsburg friends. While Addison was born and reared to young manhood at New Grenada, this was his first visit to the capital of the county of his nativity. He has been in Kansas since 1885.

Hollis M. Wible, second son of L. H. Wible, Camp Hill, Pa., chief statistician Agriculture Department of Pennsylvania, spent a few days among his Fulton County friends during the past week. Hollis has been notified by the Aircraft Production Bureau of War Department, Washington, D. C., to report for service as an inspector of castor beans. He leaves August 18th and will likely be stationed in Florida. Mr. Wible's eldest son, Oram, is already in the service.

Important Notice.
The Local Board of Fulton County, has just received the following telegram from the Adjutant General's Department:—Local Boards are notified that on Saturday, August 24, 1918, a registration must be held requiring all persons to register who have attained their 21 birthday since the fifth day of June and on or before the 24th day of August.

Registrants who are entitled to register will register with the Local Board at their office at McConnellsburg, Pa.
J. D. GARLAND,
August 14, 1918 Sheriff

Veteran Frank R. Shives of Pleasant Ridge, called at the NEWS office while in town last Saturday and pushed his subscription into '19. Mr. Shives saw real service in the Civil War, he having gone out in the spring of '64 and staid until he saw the thing through. He was home on a furlough in July 1864, and returning, he passed through Chambersburg two days after the fire.

Charles T. Johnston, wife, son Walker and daughter Mary, motored to Lewisport last Thursday morning, where they visited their sisters Mrs. E. E. Dimm and John Owens and families. Mrs. Ralph M. Johnston, who had been here since the death of her mother-in-law, Mrs. E. J. Johnston, accompanied Charles and after a short visit at Lewisport returned to her home in Pittsburgh.

Last Friday as Mrs. Roland Sipes, near Harrisonville was walking through the hall at her home, in the dusk of the evening, she felt the sting of a snake bite, and upon getting a light and making a search, she found that a copperhead snake had taken up lodgings there for the night. She soon put the reptile on the casualty list, and then sent for Dr. Robinson who gave her wound necessary treatment.

Isaiah J. Layton.

Isaiah J. Layton, aged about 60 years, died at his home in Whips Cove on Monday, and was buried at the Jerusalem church, yesterday. On Tuesday of last week, Mr. Layton had his third stroke of paralysis, and was in a very critical condition from that time on.

He was a quiet, unassuming, inoffensive citizen, and had the good will and respect of every one that knew him. He is survived by one brother, Aaron and by one sister, Isabel, wife of Oliver Morris.

Change of Date.

On account of the Crystal Springs Campmeeting, the date of the District Sunday School Convention at Jerusalem church in Whips Cove has been changed from August 18th to Sunday, September 1st.

Cider.
From August 21, 1918 until the season closes cider will be made each Wednesday.

LATEST IN WAR NEWS. The Kaiser's Army Has Been on the Run for Three Weeks, with the Loss of Thousands of Prisoners and Large Number of Guns.

NOW EXPECTED TO RESIST MORE STUBBORNLY.

The German offensive which had been crowding back the armies of the Allies since early spring was turned on the 18th of July, and since that time the Huns have been showing their heels in great shape. Generals Foch and Pershing waited until they felt reasonably sure that there were enough American troops in France for the attempt, and they turned the tables. Steadily the Germans have been driven back, although resisting most stubbornly, until now about all the territory won by them since the beginning of 1917 has been regained.

During the campaign of the last three weeks, it is estimated that the Allies have taken more than 75,000 prisoners, and more than 10,000 machine guns have been captured from the enemy.

While the loss in killed, wounded and missing to the American army has run five or six-hundred a day since the beginning of the present offensive, the casualties of the Germans have been appalling.

That our own Fulton County boys are right in the thickest of the fray is evidenced by the death of, at least, one—John Bishop—and our neighboring counties are almost daily receiving official notice of the loss of their boys.

Somerset County has been an especially heavy loser—one company, it is reported, was almost entirely wiped out.

American troops are being sent to France at the rate of a hundred thousand a week, and it is only a question of time when the final crushing blow will be given. It is scarcely reasonable to expect that 1918 will see the close of the struggle, and we must prepare ourselves for greater sacrifices.

Our being in the war is not through any choice of our own; but now that we are in, it is up to us to show America's greatness.

Tuesday's loss to United States soldiers was 403, of which 57 were killed in action, 29 died of wounds, 2 died of disease, 4 died of accident, 304 were wounded, and 7 are missing. Of this number 41 were Pennsylvanians.

Surprise Party.
Eight weeks ago, Mrs. Elmer Gress at Thomastown, fell and injured one of her knee-caps, since which time she has not been able to get around very well.

At the time she was hurt, she had paper ready to put on her kitchen. August 9th was her birthday. To give her a surprise, and at the same time help her to get the kitchen papered, her mother and sisters assembled at her home, taking with them baskets well filled with good eats, and had a jolly time papering the kitchen and otherwise helping Mrs. Gress to catch up with her work. Those present were Mrs. Scott Hann and daughters Bessie, Annie and Jennie; Elmer Hann and wife, and Mrs. Thomas

Birthday Party.
In honor of Miss Esther Miller's birthday, many of her friends assembled at her home on the evening of August 8th to have a good time, and they had it. The evening was spent in playing games and listening to music on the organ and graphophone.

After refreshments were served—consisting of ice cream and cake—they all left wishing Miss Esther many more happy birthdays. Those present were—Lucy Witter, Charles Landers, Ethel and Walter Hershey, Dutch Chymes, Edgar Minnick, Clarence and Ethel Kesslering, Laura Bolinger, Quilla Madden, Alice and Louis Laidig, Leonard

The Thrice-A-Week Edition of the New York World in 1918
Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly. No other Newspaper in the world gives so much at so low a price.
The value and need of a newspaper in the household was never greater than at the present time. We have been forced to enter the great world war and a large army of ours is already in France. You will want to have all the news from our troops on European battlefields and 1918 promises to be the most momentous year in the history of our universe.
No other newspaper at so small a price will furnish such prompt and accurate news of these war-torn events. It is not necessary to say more.
THE THIRCE-A-WEEK EDITION'S regular subscription fee is only $3.00 per year, and this pays for 16 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE FULTON COUNTY NEWS together for one year for $2.15.
The regular subscription price of the two papers is $5.50.
