Judge William L. Chambers, who uses EATONIC as a remedy for loss of appetite and indigestion, is a Commissioner of the U. S. Board of Mediation and Conciliation. It is natural for him to express himself in guarded language, yet there is no hesitation in his pronouncement regarding the value of EATONIC. Writing from Washington, D. C., to the Eatonic Kennedy Co., he says:

"EATONIC promotes appetite and aids digestion. I have used it with beneficial results."

Killing Burdocks.

An experienced gardener says that a good way of exterminating burdocks is to cut them off close to the ground just before they go to seed, then apply a little kerosene to the root. He uses a common machine oil can for applying the oil.

Get New Kidneys!

The kidneys are the most overworked organs of the human body, and when they fail in their work of filtering out and throwing off the poisons developed in the system, things begin to happen.

One of the first warnings is pain or stiffness in the lower part of the back; highly colored urine; loss of appetite; indigestion; retention, or even stone in the bladder. These symptoms indicate a condition that may lead to that dreaded and fatal malady, Bright's disease, for which there is said to be no cure.

Do not delay a minute. At the first indication of trouble in the kidney, liver, bladder or urinary organs start taking Gold Medal Haarlem Oil Capsules, and save yourself before it is too late. Instant relief is necessary in kidney and bladder troubles. A delay is often fatal.

You can almost certainly find immediate relief in Gold Medal Haarlem Oil Capsules. For more than 200 years this famous preparation has been an unending remedy for all kidney, bladder and urinary troubles.

It is the pure, original Haarlem Oil your great-grandmother used. About two capsules each day will keep you toned up and feeling fine. Get it at any drug store, and if it does not give you almost immediate relief, your money will be refunded. Be sure you get the GOLD MEDAL brand. None other genuine. In boxes, three sizes.—Adv.

Modified Request.

A tramp went into a farmhouse recently, and, seeing no one about but a very old woman, he said in fierce tone: "Give me a good drink of milk, or else—"

But Pat Mulcahey, the owner of the house, came behind him suddenly, and, catching him by the neck, said: "Else what?"

"Else water," said the tramp humbly.

With a Different Meaning.

Two neighbors were talking about the young man who had lived off his mother all of his married life. He had a nice home, etc., but the neighbors knew he had never made enough money to pay for it. They also knew of his mother's "helping him out."

"That fellow sort of" reminds me of what Abraham Lincoln said one time, "I have a first neighbor."

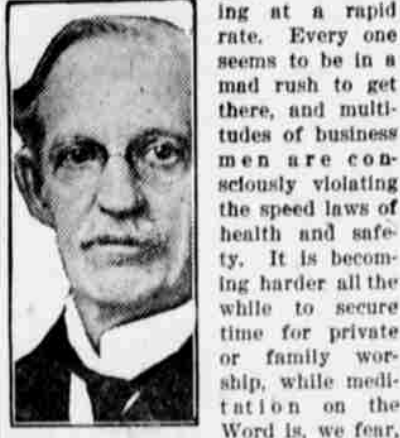

"How's that?" queried the second.

"Lincoln said: 'All I have and all I hope to be I owe to my mother.'"

An Hour a Day With Jesus

By REV. HOWARD W. POPE
Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

TEXT—What! Could ye not watch with me one hour?—Matt. 26:40.

Never was the Master's rebuke to the disciples more pertinent than today. We are living at a rapid rate. Every one seems to be in a mad rush to get there, and multitudes of business men are consciously violating the speed laws of health and safety. It is becoming harder all the while to secure time for private or family worship, while meditation on the Word is, we fear, almost a lost art. Men and women too, are using up seven days' strength in six days' time, so that Sunday usually finds them completely exhausted.

Let me suggest as a remedy an hour a day with Jesus, emphasizing not so much the amount of time as the fact of a generous period set apart each day for fellowship with the living and written Word.

Our souls need it. How much they need it we shall never know until we adopt the habit. We need it both for our information and inspiration. We need to know God better that we may love him more. We need to know ourselves better that we may take and keep our proper attitude toward him. And when we know his will we need the constant and constraining influence of the Holy Spirit to incite us to do it.

A slumbering church needs it, for if it is ever awakened and set on fire for God it must be through the instrumentality of those who are already on fire, and whose earnest intercession gives God no rest until he establishes and makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth. A perishing world needs it—for never will it realize that it is dead until it comes in contact with those who are alive in Christ Jesus. Formal preaching and feeble testimony will never disturb the sleep of the dead, but "the people that do know their God shall be strong, and shall do exploits." When people hear about the victorious life and see it in their midst they will realize their own need.

And Jesus craves it. We are not simply the servants of Jesus who go to him for orders, but he says, "I have called you friends," and "all things that I have heard of my Father, I have made known unto you." A business man may employ hundreds of women, and daily assign them their work and pay them their wages, but there is one woman whose relation to him is entirely different. He is not her employer but her husband. He did not select her for the work that she could do, but to be his wife and companion.

Even so the church is the bride of Christ, and far more than the service that we can render, he prizes our fellowship and love.

An hour a day with Jesus gives deep, abounding joy. "Did not our hearts burn within us as he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the Scriptures?"

It makes our testimony more effective. Some years ago I came in close touch with a group of young people. I soon saw that one of the number was far superior to all the rest in the weight of her testimony and in her knowledge of the Bible. Then I found the secret. She was giving an hour a day to the study of the Bible and her influence unique, though her natural gifts were only ordinary. That hour a day with Jesus seemed to cast a halo over all that she said and did.

It gives greater power in prayer. In Acts 4:31 we read that when the apostles had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together, and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost. "And with great power gave they witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus; and great grace was upon them all."

And so we come back to our starting point, and leave with you the question, "Could we not manage our households, and carry on our business and accomplish more study, and make more money if we would spend an hour a day with Jesus and the Bible?"

A little talk with Jesus, how it smooths the rugged road. How it seems to help me onward, when I faint beneath my load; When my heart is crushed with sorrow, and my eyes with tears are dim, There is naught can give me comfort like a little talk with him.

I cannot live without him, nor would I if I could; He is my daily portion, my medicine and food. He's altogether lovely, none with him can compare. The chief among ten thousand, the fairest of the fair.

Giving.

One of the persistent efforts of people is to give to some good cause without feeling it. When this is successful, the virtue has departed from the gift. If a person does not feel that he has participated with something, it is a dead gift. He might as well put a pewter coin in the contribution box. The fact is, if the dime a man gives is not a sacrifice, he should raise it to a dollar. Sometimes one will meet a person who enjoys a belief that has helped a good cause by eating a chicken leg at a church supper. He simply thought he could gather a fig from a thistle. Charity is simply another name for love and if this is not the spirit in which every gift is made, it will do more an inconvenience, but it will do no real good. When a gift partakes in the least of a sordid motive it will very likely do more harm than good. This may seem like a fine-haired sentiment, but it is real gospel.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(Copyright, 1918, by Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 15

MAKING CHRIST KNOWN TO THE WORLD.

(May be used with missionary application.)
LESSON TEXTS—Matthew 5:13-16; 28:18-20; Acts 16:1-12.
GOLDEN TEXT—Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.—Mark 16:15.
DEVOTIONAL READING—Philippians 2:3-15.
ADDITIONAL MATERIAL FOR TEACHERS—Numbers 10:29; Psalms 96:3; Isaiah 43; Daniel 12:3; Luke 22:32; Romans 1:14; Philippians 2:4-16; James 5:19-20.

I. The Disciple's Relation to the World (Matt. 5:13-16).
Christ saves with a definite purpose. The character of the subjects of the Kingdom is set forth in the Beatitudes. He gives a character which will wield an influence. The whole mass of mankind is shown in the Scriptures to be corrupt, and the whole world in darkness. The disciples are to live such lives as will purify and enlighten. Their responsibilities are set forth under the figures of salt, light, and a city.

1. "Ye are the salt of the earth" (v. 13).
Salt is that which is opposed to corruption. It prevents the progress of corruption. The properties of salt are (1) Penetrating; (2) Purifying; (3) Preserving.
Being salt, the disciples of Christ should penetrate, purify, and preserve society. Seeing on every hand the festering corruption of humanity, oft responsibility is clearly set before us. The Christian should not go into seclusion. He should remain in the world, but not be a part of it. Let us be sure that as salt we do not lose our saltiness. Christians cannot do good after they cease being good.

2. "Ye are the light of the world" (v. 14).
Light illuminates and warns. Its gift is guidance. This world is cold and dark. Many are the pitfalls and snares set by the devil. Christians should so live, let their light so shine, as to prevent the unwary ones from falling into them. They should guide the lost ones of earth so that they may find the path that leads back home to the Heavenly Father's house.

3. The city set on a hill (v. 14).
By a city is suggested a governmental and social order. Christian character and service should be so as to give the influence of the hill-topped city. Christianity was not intended to be hidden, but to be made so conspicuous as not to be hidden, the grand objective being to glorify God the Heavenly Father (v. 16).

II. The Disciples' Commission (Matt. 28:18-20).
1. What it is (v. 18). It is to teach, to make disciples. Christ's death on the cross and triumphant resurrection provided salvation for the world. "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16). This great fact must be proclaimed to the world. The great commission is backed by the urgency of human need and divine love and compassion for this need. The disciples are to administer baptism in the name of the Trinity to those who believe, and teach them to observe all things which Christ commanded.

2. Its scope—all nations (v. 19). It is as wide as the world, and this obligation lasts until all the world is evangelized.
3. Its sustaining power—"all power is given" (v. 18). The divine energy is back of all those who go. Since he is with those who go the enterprise cannot fail. Opposition of the devil, sickness and death cannot thwart, because it is backed by divine energy.
4. The superintending providence—"I am with you" (v. 20).
Though the disciples may be scattered far and wide, the divine Christ is always present to comfort, guide and sustain. This presence is guaranteed to the end of the age.

III. Paul called to Macedonia to Preach (Acts 16:6-15).
1. Circumstances of (vv. 6-8). While pushing on the work of evangelization on his second missionary journey, the Spirit forbade Paul to preach further in Asia. Doors being thus closed, there was nothing to do but to go down to Troas. The guidance of the Spirit is as much by closing doors as opening them.
2. How called (vv. 9-13).
It was by vision of a man from Macedonia saying: "Come over and help us."
3. What called to do (v. 10).
4. First-fruits of Paul's ministry in Europe (vv. 14, 15).

Compensation.
On a lower plane of action, it is the reluctant, not the eager, whom we urge by promises of reward. Who would think of paying a man to do what he was yearning to do already? For instance, no one would hire a hungry man to eat, or a thirsty man to drink or a mother to nurse her own child. Who would think of bribing a farmer to dress his own vineyard, or to dig about his orchard, or to rebuild his house? So, all the more, one who loves God truly asks no other compensation than God himself; for if he should demand something else, it would be the prize that he loved, and not God.—Bernard of Clairvaux.

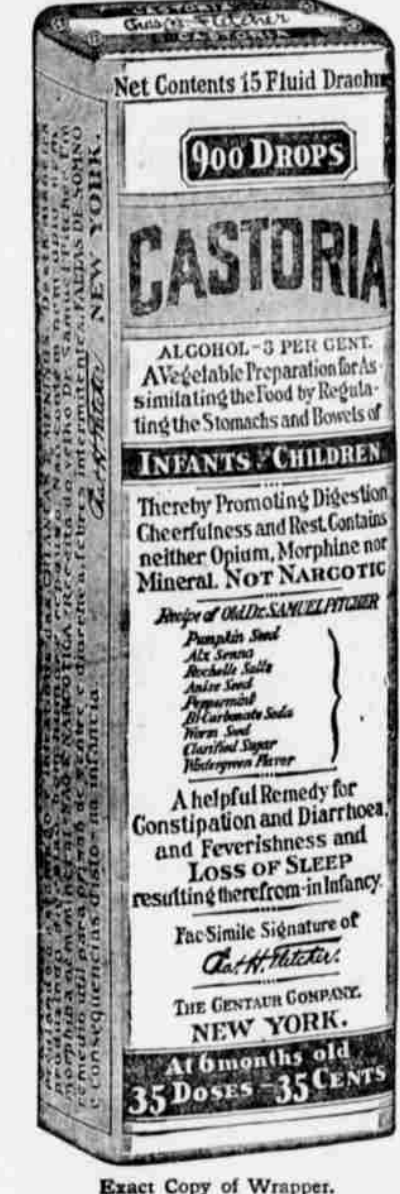

Bible Makes All Plain.
Turn from the oracles of men—still dim even in their clearest repose—to the oracles of God which are never dark. Bury all your books when you feel the night of skepticism gathering around you, bury them all, powerful though you may have deemed their spells to illuminate the unfathomable; open your Bible and all the spiritual world will be as bright as day.—J. Wilson.

Honest Advertising.

THIS is a topic we all hear now-a-days because so many people are inclined to exaggerate. Yet has any physician told you that we claimed unreasonable remedial properties for Fletcher's Castoria? Just ask them. We won't answer it ourselves, we know what the answer will be.

That it has all the virtues to-day that was claimed for it in its early days is to be found in its increased use, the recommendation by prominent physicians, and our assurance that its standard will be maintained.

Imitations are to be found in some stores and only because of the Castoria that Mr. Fletcher created. But it is not the genuine Castoria that Mr. Fletcher Honestly advertised, Honestly placed before the public and from which he Honestly expects to receive his reward.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Extracts from Letters by Grateful Parents to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Mrs. John W. Derrick, of Lexington, S. C., says: "My children cry for Castoria, I could not do without it."
Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gainen, of Ripley, Tenn., say: "We enclose our baby's picture hoping it will induce some poor tired mothers to give your Castoria a trial. We have used it since baby was two weeks old."
Mrs. J. G. Parman, of Nashville, Tenn., says: "The perfect health of my baby is due to your Castoria—the first and only medicine he has taken. He is never satisfied with one dose, he always cries for more."
Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Johnson, of Stevens Point, Wis., say: "When our baby was two weeks old he cried so much we did everything for him, then got some Castoria and he is now strong and fat. We would not be without it, and are very thankful to you."

Jack took great pride in dressing up in his little soldier's uniform and drilling with his air rifle. Much Over-Rated.
Attila the Hun was a piker—a poor, doddering, inefficient, tender-hearted old fuddhead. We have learned that during the last four years. No pep. No science. No poison gas.
How did Weyler earn the terrific reputation that he had in 1898? He was a quiet, law-abiding, carpet-slipped old Spanish gentleman, and as harmless as a bowl of bread and milk. What did he know of brutality? He was a dead or alive, used to pose as some pumpkins in the realm of polite barehype. Where did he get that stuff? He was only a movie crook.
Nero got away with a lot of notoriety in his time as a first-class, all-around blackleg, but he was only an amateur.

"What kind do you prefer?" asked the other.

"Near Havanna? Say, when you're dead for two days you'll think Havanna used to be as cold as the winds that blow over Greenland's icy mountains."
