After seeing the sights in that historic town, they were going on to Lancaster to visit Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Shade. Mrs. Shade and Mrs. Walters are sisters.

Mrs. Adam Shaffer, formerly of this county, now residing at Summerfield, Ill., says, "I do not want to miss a single copy of the News; it is just like a letter every week. It has now been forty years since we left dear old Fulton, and, of course, during that time many of my friends have passed over. My husband died about six years ago; but I have two children living near. We use airplanes—from one a day, up to ten at a time. Best wishes to all."

There will be a Bible Class study of Palestine at the Greenhill Presbyterian church next Sunday afternoon at 10:30 a. m. commemorative of the splendid victory of the Allies under the command of General Allenby over the Turks in Palestine, when their entire army was captured on the 21st inst., and the Holy Land wrested from the hands of heathens and restored to Christians after so many years of brutality and suffering—not only by those of Palestine, but of Armenia and Persia. Let everybody in the community turn out and take with them a bible.

The Chautauqua. While our attention is directed to the Liberty Loan and other War activities, we must not lose sight of the fact that the Citizens of McConnellsburg and vicinity have assumed the financial responsibility of assuring a Chautauqua festival at McConnellsburg on the 9th, 10th and 11th of October. These festivals have proved to be very popular in past years, and we are assured that this year's series of lectures and entertainments shall not be less entertaining and instructive, than those in the past. Let everybody plan to attend. It is by far the cheapest set of entertainments possible to secure. You get the whole course for $1.25, little more than a movie would cost in a larger town. Do not forget the date, and plan to get the benefit of the whole show.

Another Soldier Gone. Riley E. Hiles, aged 26 years, 11 months, and 18 days, died in a hospital in France on the 1st day of September, 1918, of pneumonia. Riley was a son of William Hiles of Bethel township, and went to Camp Lee with the other boys from McConnellsburg on the 25th of last May. After spending ten weeks at Camp Lee, he was sent to France. On the 20th of August he wrote a letter to his mother, saying he was well and feeling fine. He was a member of Warfordsburg Lodge, I. O. O. F. He is survived by his parents and by two sisters and one brother, Goldie, wife of Russell O'Rourke, and Edie and Harry at home.

Miss Gertrude Sipes spent a part of last week in the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Shimer on North second street.

Lodge Resolutions. At a regular meeting of Warfordsburg Lodge No 601 I. O. O. F., held September 21, 1918, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Great Architect of the universe to remove from our midst our Bro. Riley C. Hiles; and, WHEREAS, It is but just that a fitting recognition of his many virtues should be had; therefore, be it,

RESOLVED, That while we bow with humble submission to the will of the Most High, we do not the less mourn for our brother who has been taken away from us.

RESOLVED, That in the death of Riley E. Hiles this Lodge laments the loss of a brother who was ever ready to proffer the hand, aid, and the voice of sympathy, to the needy and distressed of the fraternity; an active member of this society whose utmost endeavors were exerted for its welfare and prosperity; a friend and companion who was dear to us all—a citizen, whose upright and noble life was a standard of emulation to his fellows.

RESOLVED, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Lodge; a copy be sent to the family of our deceased brother, and a copy to the FULTON COUNTY NEWS.

Gen. Pershing's Service Star. From in front of St. Mark's Episcopal church in Cheyenne, Wyo., floats a service flag that has more interest than any other in this section, the middle west, for it carries one bright blue star standing all alone above the rest in honor of Gen. John J. Pershing, commander-in-chief of the American expeditionary forces in France. Permission to add this star to this flag was given by Gen. Pershing. Gen Pershing's connection with Cheyenne is one of romance which resulted in his marriage to Miss Frances E. Warren, daughter of United States Senator Francis E. Warren. Mrs. Pershing, with her little daughters, was burned to death in a fire at Presidio, San Francisco, while the general was on the Mexican border. It was in the picturesque church over which the Pershing star floats that their funeral services were held.

Notice. Notice is hereby given that it is illegal to kill a RUFFED GROUSE, commonly called Pheasant or a RINGNECK PHEASANT, or a VIRGINIA or HUNGARIAN QUAIL, in a wild state, in the County of Fulton before the open season of 1919, said County having been closed until that time by the Board of Game Commissioners to the hunting of these birds under the provisions and regulations provided for by the act of April 6th, 1915, Chapter Laws 73.

The penalty for killing a Ruffed Grouse or a Ringneck Pheasant or a Virginia or Hungarian Quail contrary to the above act and said regulations is $25.00. This action has been taken in an endeavor to increase the above-mentioned game in your County, and so ask that you not only obey this law yourself, but that you help in every way possible to have said law obeyed by others.

Volume XX. With this issue, the FULTON COUNTY NEWS enters upon the twentieth year of its existence. Twenty years does not look long, when you are looking backward; but, ahead, it seems a long time. No other newspaper in Fulton County ever existed so long under the same management.

Whether the NEWS shall exist throughout this year under the present management is known only to Him in whose hands are the destinies of us all. Of the 370 persons whose names composed the subscription list on the 21st day of September 1899, many are on yet; quite a number have passed over. On this occasion the Editor desires to thank the many, many good friends who have made it possible for the NEWS to occupy the place it does in Pennsylvania journalism.
