WELLS TANNERY.

We are glad to be able to report that influenza has not reached us yet. Not many of us, however, that cannot sympathize with the "other fellow" as we all have relatives and friends in other places that are suffering from the great plague, and many loved ones have been called to the great beyond.

Mrs. William Horton died of tubercular trouble, and was laid to rest in No. 1 cemetery on Wednesday of last week. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Miller, of Hopewell, and by the ladies of Wells Temple No. 168. Mrs. Horton was a member of the Temple, and of the Presbyterian Church. She is survived by her husband and six small children.

Mrs. George Swope is in a critical condition. Her daughter Mrs. John Klotz, of Fishertown, Bedford County, was called to her bedside last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hulse had been very sick, but are improving.

Mrs. Rebecca Wishart, who had been with her daughter Mary at Lewistown for some time is now visiting her son Harlan, at the old homestead.

If it should turn out that Wells township fell down on her allotment to the Fourth Liberty Loan, it will be a matter of regret to her citizens, and will be entirely due to the fact that sickness prevented part of the committee from visiting all the homes. On account of the prevalence of influenza at the mines, many of our people who work at the mines, have been off work for two weeks.

the right thing under the circumstances, but one of the clearest that have been advanced recently has been expressed in a speech made in New York by the other night by William H. Taft, patriot and one-time President of these United States. Unless Germany is stripped of every vestige of power when this war is over," he says, "the lives of millions of men will have been wasted and the lives of millions of others jeopardized. The wastage of wealth will be beyond comprehension. It is a conclusion that is unshakable."

There speaks the statesman and the student of history. He says very truly that there were people in this country who did not want to get in the war at the start. There were some who did not even comprehend why the Allies were fighting. But they know now. They understand that Germany is the mad dog of the world, and they shrink from the idea of giving it restoration that would permit it to do harm in the future.

"If I understand the American people," says Mr. Taft, "they not only want, but they demand a conditional surrender. They know they must pay for it, but they are willing to pay. To gain a conditional surrender will cost more than would a negotiated peace—now. But it will cost far less in the end."

That is the thought in the mind of every intelligent American at the present time. Anything less than unconditional surrender would be a shame and a crime.

"If permitted to come out of this war with the power to do harm," continues the former President, "Germany would be as dangerous in the world as a mad dog in the home. Because we want to render Germany impotent for harm, however, does not mean that we want to depopulate her villages. We must stop upon placing her in a position where she may be taught in time what justice means. There will be a league of nations. That is inevitable. But there will be no room in that league for Germany for some time to come. Eventually, when she has learned her lesson, it may be possible to admit her."

The time to talk terms will be when Germany has been beaten to a standstill. Once branches are all right in their way, but their way is not in the direction of Germany at this time. The German ruler—aye, and the German people—invited this contest in the belief that they were invincible, and when that fact has been brought home to them in the most positive way, it will be time to talk peace terms. By their insane ambition they have turned the world topsy-turvy. Now let them pay the penalty for their crimes—Philadelphia, I quarrel.

It is SEPARATE from the PARTY column, contains the names of all candidates for Judge of the SUPREME COURT and requires a SEPARATE mark.

Make YOUR vote count for the good of the state by casting it for Judge Fox is a PRESENT member of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania by appointment and is a candidate to SUCCEED himself.

He had been a successful practicing lawyer for thirty-eight years when called to the supreme bench on June 18, 1910, to fill the vacancy created by the death of the late Hon. S. Leslie Mestman.

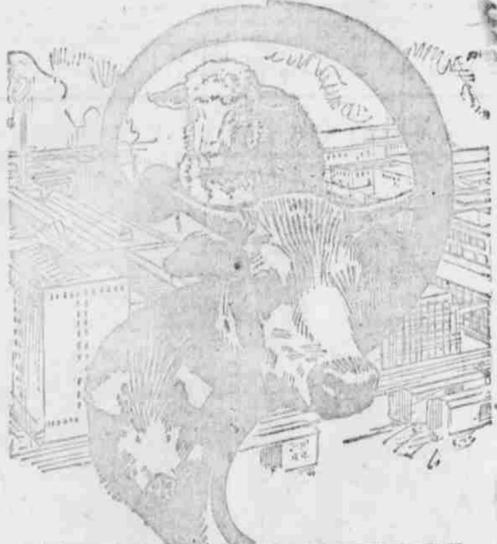

His appointment has been generally COMMENDED by the bench, bar and newspapers of the state.

We believe that CAPABLE judges should be kept on the bench, therefore we urge the RETENTION of Judge Fox.

TWO vacancies are to be filled at the November election, but under the law each voter may vote for only ONE.

We hope YOUR one will be for the present incumbent, Judge Fox.

EDWARD J. FOX CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE, W. S. KIMPATRICK, Chairman.

Do You Think There is No Competition?

If anyone thinks there is no competition amongst the big packers he ought to go through a day's work with Swift & Company.

Let him begin at the pens when the live stock comes by let him try to buy a nice bunch of fat steers quickly and at his own price without somebody's bidding against him.

Let him realize the scrupulous care taken at the plant that not one thing is lost or wasted in order that every may be held to a minimum.

Let him go up into the office where market reports are coming in—and reports of what other concerns are doing.

Let him watch the director of the Swift Refrigerator fleet, maneuvering it over the face of the country like a fleet of battleships at sea.

Let him take a trip with a Swift & Company salesman and try to sell a few orders of meat.

Let him stay at a branch house for an hour or two and see the retail meat dealers there bargaining to the last penny as they shop around among the packers' branch houses, the wholesale dealers, and the local packing plants.

And then, when the day is over, let him have half an hour in the accounting department, where he can see for himself on what small profits the business is done. (Less than 4 cents on each dollar of sales.)

If he still thinks there is no competition in the meat business it will be because he wants to think so.
