The kidneys are the most overworked organs of the human body, and when they fail in their work of filtering out and throwing off the poisons developed in the system, things begin to happen.

One of the first warnings is pain or stiffness in the lower part of the back; highly colored urine; loss of appetite; indigestion; irritation, or even stone in the bladder. These symptoms indicate a condition that may lead to that dreaded and fatal malady, Bright's disease, for which there is said to be no cure.

Do not delay a minute. At the first indication of trouble in the kidney, liver, bladder or urinary organs start taking Gold Medal Haarlem Oil Capsules, and save yourself before it is too late. Instant treatment is necessary in kidney and bladder troubles. A delay is often fatal.

Rest Given and Rest Found

By REV. L. W. GOSNELL Assistant Dean, Moody Bible Institute, Chicago

TEXT—Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am mesk and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls, for my yoke is easy and my burden in light,-Matthew 11:28-30.

One minister remarked to another: "I get tired of hearing people talk of heaven as a place of rest. I expect to be very active there." The first replied: "So do I, but it is a pleasant thing to rest when you are Multitudes will agree with him. Indeed, one-third of the people in the world follow religion-Buddhism-which promises rest, or rather extinction, as its chief been. Two Types of Weariness.

The words of Jesus suggest wearlness of two types, which may be described as active and passive, Some are weary because they "labor," The foil of life exhausts them or the en-Ceavor to live righteously throws them into despair. They cry, "For that which I do I allow not; for what I would, that do I not, but what I hate, that do I." Pastor Hst, a notable Chinese Christian, tells us that as a heathen he struggled to fulfill Confucius' ideal of "the princely man," but finally gave up his efforts and solaced himself with the opium pipe. Others are weary because "heavy laden" with sorrow or guilt. Many sing with Tennyson:

And the stately ships go on
To their haven under the hill;
But, O, for the touch of a vanished hand And the sound of a voice that is still.

George Whitefield was so oppressed by a sense of guilt that he lay for bours at a time on the floor of the public house where he worked; and John Bunyan has pictured himself in the "Pilgrim" with the great bundle on his back.

But, no matter what form of weariflatulence and dyspepsia vanish. Pape's to "all" who labor and are heavy

First he says, "Come unto meend I will give you rest." This we take to refer to that rest of conscience which he bestows as a gift dained minister for years. He was on en and children were not afraid to d.e. Wesley discovered they had learned up his deceit. the secret of peace by trusting in Christ alone for salvation, and he beall who thus come he gives rest of conscience.

But many who have this gift are cares of life. To them Jesus speaks again, saying, "Take my yoke upon worth our attention.

what is a yoke for? The answer is "hurden." The yoke is to enable over, the burden will be "light" only when the yoke is "easy." It is just as when, amongst us, the horse's collar is rightly adjusted and well padded: the animal then finds it easy to draw its burden, but otherwise its shoulder is galled and it refuses to pull the load.

Here now we are coming to the practical point. Jesus tells us the very things we need in our yokes to make them easy so that the burden of life will be light. "Take my yoke upon you," he says, "and learn of me, for I am meek and lowly in heart." because we lack meekness and lowliness that the yoke galls and the burden is heavy.

As we understand it, "meekness" is our attitude to men, especially, while "lowliness" describes our attitude to God. Jesus had both graces in perfection. In the very chapter where our text is found, men call him a glutton and winebibber, but he is unruffled, saying, "Wisdom is justified of ber children." Again, God hides his secrets from the wise and prudent but Jesus in his lowliness says: "Even so Father, for so it seemed good in thy sight." When we are thus meek and lowly, it is evident the yoke will be easy and the burden light.

Yokes are made for two and those who wear Christ's yoke may assure themselves that he himself will jour-ney beside them, contributing his great strength to drawing the burdens that oppress them.

"In the world ye shall have tribulalon, but in me ye shall have peace."

JACOB DECEIVES HIS FATHER. LESSON TEXT-Genesis 27:18-29.

GOLDEN TEXT-Speak every man ruth with his neighbor.-Ephesians 4:25. DEVOTIONAL READING-Ephesians ADDITIONAL MATERIAL-Genesis 27:

I. Isaac's Purpose Regarding the Birthright (27:1-4).

The infirmity of old age reminded Isnae that he should set his house in prepared for war, and now that war is order. The particular matter needing on we cannot afford to sit down and attention was the determination as to who should be the head of the house while doing nothing to remove the when he was gone. As to whether thorns and briers from the pathway. Isaac knew what God had told Rebekah concerning Jacob's priority we are not told (Gen. 25:23), but it is has wrecked the boundary lines and evident that he lacked spiritual dis- she is free. The exodus of woman cernment, being under the sway of his from the home is one of the by-proappetite. Even though he was ignorant ducts of Prussian militarism that was of God's plan as revealed to Rebekah, women (Gen. 26; 34, 35), ought to have convinced Isane that Esau was unfit to be the head of the house which was in line of the covenant blessing.

II. Rebekah's Scheme to Frustrate

Isaac's Plan (vv. 5-17). Having heard Isaac's instructions to Esau, she took steps to divert the father's blessing from Esau to Jacob. She knew it was God's will that Jacob should have the birthright, but had no scruples as to what method should be used in its accomplishment.

1. Rebekah's instructions to Jacob (vv. 5-10).

She sent Jacob to bring two kids from the goats, promising that she would make savory meat, such as Isaac loved. She knew that Isaac's weak spot was his stomach.

2. Jacob's hesitancy (vv. 11-17). He foresaw the difficulty and danger which confronted him. His hesitancy was not because he had conscientious scruples against doing the deed, but was afraid of being found out. Some have a desire to do evil, but refrain from it because they are afraid of being caught. Rebekah undertakes to benr the curse that may come, so ness may trouble us, Jesus offers rest Jacob's scruples are set aside. She clothes him with Esau's raiment, and places into his hands the food.

III. Jacob Deceives Esau (vv. 18-29).

2. The paternal blessing (vv. 26-29). It embodied the following particucame a seeker for the same rest of lars: (1) A fertile soil and abundant soul. He found it at last, and as the products (v. 28). Man is dependent result the Evangelical Revival was upon God for the fruitage of the soil. born. To come to Christ is to believe Few stop to consider their obligation on him, to trust him (John 6:35). To to him for temporal blessings. (2) National pre-eminence (v. 29). God was to give him a numerous and powerful offspring. This has in a large still oppressed from day to day by the measure been fulfilled, but in a still larger measure it remains to be fulfilled. (3) Pre-eminence among his you and ye shall find rest unto your kindred (v. 29). "The elder shall serve souls." This deeper rest, which is the younger." (4) The object of found by taking his yoke, is well God's especial care (v. 29). Being God's choice, God obligates himself It may be well to ask the question, to care for him. Those who would misuse Jacob would suffer; those who found in the reference of the text to would favor Jacob would be favored. Those who are chosen of God enjoy an animal to draw its burden. More- his special care, and woe be to him who would dare to molest them. This included temporal and spiritual blessings. Happy is he who enjoys the friendship of God.

IV. Esau's Remorse (vv. 30-38). Scarcely had Isaac ceased blessing Jacob till Esau came for the blessing. The secret was now out. Lying and deceit cannot long be hid. In the face of what had been done, Isaac shakes with fear. No doubt this is due to the manifest presence of Jehovah. Esau gives forth a terrible wall. While shedding bitter tears of disappointment, he rages with passion and plans to murder Jacob after Isaac's death. This is a most bitter experience for Esnu, but he is merely reaping what he sowed. For a brief indulgence of his flesh he sold his birthright. May Esau's folly warn us of choosing fleshly indulgence rather than spiritual blessings. Whenever one turns from the love of God to the gratification of worldly lusts, he is guilty of Esau's profanity.

Kill the Spider. A story is told of a Christian saint

who prayed frequently in the prayer service of his church. His prayer invariably contained the queer phrase, "Lord, brush away the cobwebs!" This petition in due course of time became very irksome to a second brother, who tired of bearing it repeated so often. At length, "Lord!" cried he, "our brother linth often besought thee to brush away the cobwebs, for many years he hath asked this of thee. We beseech thee that Thou wilt, by Thy grace, enable him to change the form of his prayer. Let his voice no longer ask that the cobwebs be cleared away, but let his cry henceforth be, 'Lord, kill the spider!" Brotherhood men can learn a great truth from this incident. In dealing with the problems that more and more press for a solution, and in which the movement must do its part, brushing away the cobwebs will not avail-the spider or the cause must be destroyed. if the remedy is to be a permanent

U. has advocated for forty years, and people who did not know the organization opposed anything but drunkenness, or helped anybody but drunkards' families, are having new revelations. I believe the best war work we can do is 1-45; Proverbs 12:17-20; Zechariah 8:16-17; to make the world safe for our soldiers. We ought to knit and sew, but as I do I hear the Master say "These things ought ye to do and not to leave

And the man had to acknowledge it would be a stag-nation. I don't know what you think about it but I think to secure "Votes for Women" is a real war work. I invested 25 years of my life in the rearing of three children, and while I was doing it I said with St. Paul, "This one thing I do," Now that they have gone out from the home and are serving Uncle Sam I want a voice in the affairs of Uncle Sam's government. A member of the French army medical corps has recently made public the results of investigations concerning the effect of alcohol on marksmanship. He chose the best shots from among the non-commissioned officers and soldiers of his regiment, says the organ of the American Medical association, and had them fire a series at 200 meters. They were then given a dose of brandy, approximately 50 gm., after which they fired a second series similar to the first. These experiments were repeated at different times and under different conditions, always with identical results. It was found that the efficiency of the marksmen after the absorption of the alcohol had depreciated 30 per cent in rapid firing and 50 per cent in slow firing.

The Chief Danger Lies in Complications Arising, Attacking Principally Patients in a Run-Down Condition-Those Who Don't Go to Bed Soon Enough, or Those Who Get Up Too Enrly.

Spanish Influenza, which appeared in Spain in May, has all the appearance of grip or la grippe, which has swept over the world in numerous epidemics as far back as history runs. Hippocrates refers to an epidemic in 412 B. C. which is regarded by many to have been influenza. Every century has had its attacks. Beginning with 1831, this country has had five epidemics, the last in 1889-1890.

THE SYMPTOMS. Grippe, or influenza, as it is now called, usually begins with a chill, followed by aching feverishness and sometimes nausea and dizziness, and a general feeling of weakness and depression. The temperature is from 190 to 104, and the fever usually lasts from three to five days. The germs attack the mucous membrane, or lining of the air passages—none, throat and bronchial tubes; there is usually a hard cough, especially bad at night, and frequently all the appearances of a severe head cold.

THE TREATMENT.

Go to bed at the first symptoms, not only for your own sake, but to avoid spreading the disease to others—take a purgative, eat plenty of nourishing food, remain perfectly quiet and don't worry. The state which Alexander Hamilton had planned and inaugurated Abraham Lincoln completed and confirmed. It is natural to contrast these two men, who in all superficial things were most unlike-in circumstances, manners, age, temper and appearance. But in the great matter that concerned each of them most nearly they were at one. In many of their qualities they were alike. In both there was the same instinct for reality and contempt for phrases, the same clear WAR-TIME PROHIBITION Judgment and swift decision. Their eyes saw "far and wide," and things and true proportion, rhythmical and harmonious, governed by great laws. In richness of nature they were equals, and equals also in Integrity and courage. And in both there was the same rare and consummate mastery of the English tongue, begotten of grent thoughts and a flery sincerity, which not only increases a hundredfold the power of a man in his own day but continues it as an intimate and living force among generations to whom otherwise he would have been but a remote actor or a great historical shadow.-F.
