SALUVIA.

The laborers and teamsters and truck men on the Lincoln Highway in Fulton County were given Monday of this week as a holiday. Quite a number of them employed Postmaster M. H. Hollinshead to convey them in his truck to Chambersburg as to be in readiness to celebrate the signing of the Peace Armistice by the Huns and Allies.

Neighbor Joseph Sipes has so far recovered as to be able to move about the house. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Edgar C. Hann and family, northwest of Saluvia, are on the sick list. In the absence of a physician's diagnosis, we cannot say whether they have influenza or not.

Some of David Strait's family, Mrs. Paul Houck, Ira Sipes, some of Brady Mellott's family, and others in the community, are on the sick list—supposed to be influenza. We are glad to note that there have not been any fatalities in this section from the disease.

On account of the prevalence of influenza in the neighborhood, the communion services to have been held at the Greenhill Presbyterian church on the 10th was postponed until further notice. Just as soon as the ban on public meetings is removed, the usual services at Greenhill will be resumed, and an effort will be made to have another series of evangelistic services, same as those held last month in the Presbyterian church.

Edward Furr Mellott and family have moved from the Kegarice place near the top of Sideling Hill to Herbert Jackson's in Brush Creek Valley, and William Davis and family, from the Scott Kegarice place to the place vacated by the Mellott family.

Veteran Harvey Fohner raised nearly 800 bushels of fine potatoes this season. Come, all ye who like "Pat Murphys" and buy.

Buckwheat cakes in abundance will be found steaming on the breakfast table of most farmers this winter.

The fighting is over, but the Red Cross Work goes on. Don't forget—November 20th.

We Are Progressing

There is an old proverb that a wise man changes his mind, but a fool never does. The wise man has to change his mind to keep up with the times.

Your grandfather thought he was putting on style when he took his best girl out horseback riding. The young man today would like to have a six-cylinder car for his lady love. The smart man of today will be considered "old fogies" by the next generation. We are progressing, changing, keeping step with the times, that's all. Especially in this true of financial matters, modern banking. Few people keep their money hid about the house or run the risk of carrying it on their person. They follow the modern plan, keep their funds in a reliable bank like ours and pay by check. It's the safe, modern, convenient way.

Expression of Appreciation.

TO THE VOTERS OF FULTON COUNTY:

I wish to express in a public way my deep appreciation of the loyal support my friends in all parties gave me on November 5th. I am aware of the fact that my supporters are to be found in the ranks of both parties, and in all the churches and fraternal organizations of the county. Therefore I shall feel it my duty to represent all the people of Fulton County to the best of my ability. I want the voters of the county to feel free to express to me their views on any questions coming before the legislature that will affect the interests of Fulton County. I shall need your advice and help, and if I can be of service to any citizen of the county at any time do not hesitate to call on me.

Thanking each and every one of you for the support you have given me, and trusting that I may prove worthy of the confidence you have placed in me, I am,

Very respectfully yours,
GEORGE A. COMERER.

No County Institute.

TO THE TEACHERS OF FULTON COUNTY:
The Ministerial Association of McConnellsburg having filed complaint, with the Department of Labor and Industry, against the safety of the "Public School Auditorium" in which to hold public meetings, an inspector of the above named department closed the Auditorium to all public meetings, after October 30, 1918.

The department of Public Instruction advised the discontinuation of our Annual Teachers' Institute for the present year; therefore, there will be no "Teachers' Annual Institute" in Fulton County this year.

Respectfully,
J. EMERY THOMAS,
County Supt.

Mr. and Mrs. Stillwell Truax, Needmore, R. R. 2, were pleasant callers at the NEWS office while in town Monday morning.

Slim Chance for Deserters.

Deserters from the military and naval service and men absent without leave have been comparatively few, considering the magnitude of the new American Army and Navy. The government is determined that there will be no "easing up" of punishment accorded to the few men who have voluntarily placed themselves on the "missing" list.

To the Government's other means of apprehending such men in this State have been added the resources of the Pennsylvania Council of National Defense. The Defense Council is authorized to locate and bring to justice such runaways. To aid in its work, it is furnished with regular reports by the United States Adjutant General, giving full name, rank, organization and home addresses of the men who have deserted or are absent without leave.

In half the counties of the State, the Council has well organized Volunteer Home Defense Police units, capable of dealing with desertions. Elsewhere its Military Service Departments and executive officials will assist the government in the work. The fact that the Council's organization extends to every district of the State leaves small chance of deserters returning to their old haunts undetected.

Cherchez La Femme!

CAMP GORDON, GA., Nov. 10
A fight between two soldiers New York boys, in Company E, Third Replacement Regiment, to decide which should have the privilege of writing to a girl that neither of them ever saw, was one of the novelties on camp last week.

During the quarantine, the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. had arranged to have young women in Atlanta send little presents to some of the soldiers confined to barracks. A spirited argument sprang up between the two men concerned as to which should write and thank the donor for a beautiful package they received. As words could not settle the question, the boys agreed to don the boxing gloves and fight it out for the honor. The bout took place as a feature during one of the regular outdoor boxing entertainments and resulted in a draw, and both wrote, enclosing their letters in the same envelope.

A Remedy for Pneumonia.

Take six or ten onions and chop fine; put into a large spider over a hot fire; add about the same quantity of rye meal and vinegar enough to make a thick paste. Stir it thoroughly, letting it simmer for, five to ten minutes. Put into a cotton bag large enough to cover the lungs and apply to the chest as hot as the patient can bear it. Before it gets cold heat another and apply, keeping a hot one on the patient. In a few hours the patient will be out of danger.

License Notice.

IN THE COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS OF THE PEACE OF FULTON COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA.

It is ordered that all applications for license for the sale of vinous, spirituous, malt, or brewed liquors, wholesale or retail, for the year 1919, will be heard on Tuesday, the 14th day of January, 1919, at 10 o'clock a. m., of said day, at which time all persons applying or making objections to applications, will be heard by evidence, petition, remonstrance or counsel. There must be no communication at any time on the subject with the judges, personally either by letter or any private way.

The petition, verified by affidavit of applicant, shall be in conformity with the requirements of the act of Assembly. Judgment bond shall be executed in the penal sum of two thousand ($2000) dollars, with not less than two reputable freeholders of the county of Fulton as sureties, each of them to be a bona fide owner of real estate in said county worth, over and above all incumbrances, the sum of two thousand ($2000) dollars or one-half of the value of the property, and to be approved by the Court granting such license and existing under the laws of this Commonwealth or under the laws of any other state of the United States of America, duly authorized to do business within the State of Pennsylvania by the Insurance Commissioner thereof; to be approved by the Court granting such license and to be conditioned for the faithful observance of all the laws of this Commonwealth relating to the selling or furnishing of vinous, spirituous, malt or brewed liquors, or any admixture thereof, and to pay all damages which may be recovered in any action which may be instituted against the licensee, under the provisions of any Act of the Assembly, and all costs, fines and penalties imposed, upon said licensee under any indictment for violating any Act of Assembly relating to selling or furnishing liquors as aforesaid.

If any person is surety on more than one bond, he shall certify that he is worth four thousand ($4,000) dollars over and above all incumbrances, and over and above any previous bond he may be on as security. The sureties may be required to appear in Court and justify under oath.

The Court shall in all cases refuse the application whenever, in the opinion of the Court, having due regard for the number and character of the petitioners for and against the applications, such license is not necessary for the accommodation of the public and entertainment of strangers and travelers, or that the applicant is not a fit person to whom such license should be granted.

Petitions must be filed with the Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions not later than Saturday, the 31st day of December, 1918. Objections and remonstrances must be filed with the Clerk of said Court not later than Wednesday, the 1st day of January, 1919.

Upon sufficient cause being shown or proof being made to the Court that the party holding said license has violated any law of the Commonwealth relating to the sale of liquors, the Court shall, upon notice being given to the person licensed, revoke said license.

By the Court,
DONALD P. McPHERSON, P. J.
Attest: B. FRANK HENRY, Clerk of C. S. Nov. 15, 1918.
