Mrs. Rose Conkling is a sister to Horatio S. Conkling.

Commissioner Dudley wants $12,000,000 to pay pensions in May.

Timothy Kelly, the fifth and last man convicted for the Phoenix Park murder, Dublin, was executed on Saturday of last week.

The remains of John Howard Payne, the author of "Home, Sweet Home," were interred in the Oak Hill Cemetery, Washington, D. C. on June 9.

Last week the Ohio Republicans nominated Joseph Foraker of Cincinnati for Governor, and William G. Rose of Cleveland for Lieutenant Governor.

Grant still pursues his old hobby—that of the annexation of Mexico, and present prospects really look as though he was going to be successful.

Gov. Pattison stood so straight that he leaned backward when he called the extra session of the Legislature to act upon the apportionment bills.

In the course of twenty-four hours the New York and Brooklyn bridge collected as toll one thousand pounds (half a ton) weight in money, of which ninety per cent. was in pennies.

The life of a Duke's juror in Fayette county, is not filled with roses. Recently one of the jurors was treated with a club because he had an opinion of his own.

CHANGING MEMORIAL DAY—A telegram from Pittsburgh says a movement is on foot among Grand Army men there to have Memorial Day changed to June 30th.

A Harrisburg correspondent says: "Of the 700 bills that have been introduced this session only 49 have been acted upon by the Governor."

Grant is said to be warming toward Blain and John Sherman toward Arthur. Many are surmising as to what it means but all are at sea.

The Democrats have decided to hold their convention on Wednesday June 13th, the day following the Republican convention.

A gentleman who was a victim of Dakota fever and had been snared by western land speculators, writes back to a friend: "I am in the metropolis of the world; the Garden of Eden, the gateway to health, wealth, happiness, Dakota land, and blizzards, a fine depository for cash in large amounts—no small change taken here—board, $14 per week; shave 25c; cigars 15c at 25c; stable beer, 25c, etc.—the land of speculators, the home of the insane."

From the reports of three thousand correspondents, the Milwaukee Millers' Association figures up the probable shortage in the wheat crop this year, as compared with last, at 93,000,000 bushels.

Frederick Douglass retains his aptitude for bright sayings in his public addresses. At a meeting of free religious thinkers in Boston the other day he was among the speakers.

The Pennsylvania Legislature adjourned on the 6th of June and the members were just getting ready to go home and have a good time when Gov. Pattison turned up with a message calling an extra session June 7th, to consider the several apportionment bills.

The extra session of the Legislature made a bad beginning to reconcile the people to the large cost of reconvening the bodies. Instead of proceeding to the business the Governor commanded them, in the name of the Constitution, to perform an adjournment for twelve days was carried, and the proposition to refuse pay rejected.

The Republican Primary Election of Snyder county will take place next Saturday. As the nominations for Associate Judge and county surveyor are the only ones to be made, and four candidates in the field, there is plenty of room for them to test their political metal.

Nothing could exceed the delight with which the congregation, at the dedication of Second Advent, corner Broad and Mt. Vernon streets on Sunday last, lauded the unique effect of the Imitation Stained Glass decoration made by Mr. J. Lam Smith of this city.
