The crops are the source of sudden conjunctures and rumors, and will be some time to come. All that is clear so far is that the wheat crop is, in all probability, the greatest on record, and will, almost certainly, be sold at the lowest price ever reached. Corn will be the largest yet harvested.

Soon the falling twilight will appear and meander up and down our streets, preceded by the clash and roar of drums, and pursued by the small boy. This is supposed to be the most effective way of convincing a man he is altogether wrong and should make haste to "top oyer" and join the great opposition.

On last Sunday afternoon at twelve minutes past two an earthquake shock up the eastern part of the continent from Maryland to Maine and from the seacoast to Illinois. The shock was severest in Philadelphia. The shock was only slight through here and was noticed by only a few.

The next morning they will start by rail, accompanied by several other Posts, for Bellefonte.

Persons who hand a newspaper back to the postmaster and refuse to take it out, should remember this: If you own anything on the paper the publisher can, under law, keep on sending it and collect the full amount. The lawful and honorable way is to go to the publisher and stop the paper in a gentlemanly and business-like way.

The following from the Millersburg Sentinel has about gone its rounds: "There is a point at Paxton, near Martin's farm, where you can take a few steps and rest on the soil of five counties, Perry, Snyder, Northumberland, Juniata and Dauphin. They all run to a point at that spot. Can this be said of any other place in Pennsylvania?" Is it correct?

We want to impress upon our Republican friends the importance of attending to the registry of voters. It must be done sixty days before the election, and if deferred until after the fourth of September the mistake will be fatal to the voter. It will be safest to attend to it immediately, and not defer attention to this important matter until the last moment.

The authorities in some of the towns of Illinois have been making war on the "Mother Hubbard" dress. In Mattoon the police issued an order that no woman should appear on the streets wearing a Mother Hubbard dress unbelted, the persons violating the order being liable to arrest and fine. The authorities allege that the Mother Hubbard costume tends to an indecent exposure of the person and is therefore immoral.

To prevent injurious effects from smoking a pipe a medical journal recommends the following: "Fill the bowl of the pipe one third full of table salt and press the tobacco hard upon it." The result will be satisfactory. During the process of smoking the salt solidifies while remaining porous, and when the hard lump is removed at the end of a day's smoking it is found to have absorbed so much of the oil of tobacco as to be deeply colored. The salt should be renewed daily.

Did you ever watch a hand getting ready to play a piece? They will put their instruments to their mouths, take them away, turn them around several times and let out the water, look around carefully, make a few remarks, turn over the music sheets, settle back, scan their horns, then lower them, scan the vicinity and just as you are out of patience, and think that they have only been fooling all the time, they begin to play.—Liverpool Sun.

We can satisfy all wants in the music line.

SALEM & APP, Prop'r. The question as to what has become of the new railroad is agitating some minds, a few believing that the road has been abandoned. This is a mistake, for up to the last week the surveyors have been busy engaged on the route between Mann's and the Susquehanna, at least a month having been spent on the lower end. About two weeks ago the engineers returned with a view to going over it again, but last week the chief engineer ferreted his assistants because having an engagement elsewhere for a time, but expects to return about the first of September.—Lewistown Gas.

The enforcement of the ordinance to muzzle dogs has been the subject of comment during the week, and has been the means of bringing out the good qualities of some of these animals. Among the most valuable ones is a bird dog belonging to J. B. Reed, which is not only valuable for protecting property, but, as Mr. Reed contends, is also valuable as a protector of little chicks when forsaken by the mother hen. He alleges that one of his hens hatched seven chickens and forsok them. The dog took charge of the brood, and at evenings would drive them into the kennel, and then lay at the opening all night, and the chicks hug close to him to keep warm. The dog thus protected them until they were old enough to take care of themselves. Frequently the young chickens would refuse to go into the kennel, when he would catch them between his lips, and carry them in without injuring them in the least.—Sunnyside American.

An exchange says: Katydid, who ought not repeat its plaintive accusations until late in August, has been pronouncing them for several evenings in this locality with energetic ejaculation. Katydid is accepted as a weather prophet of much more veracity than Wiggins, and much more settled in her reputation than Vennor was before he died. Indeed Katydid is far more reputable in its prophecies than Bair's almanac. When Katydid begins her song in one word it is regarded as a herald of coming winter and that in thirty days thereafter frost will begin to blight the earth. The oats harvest has been earlier this year than for a number of years previous, and when the wind blows over the oats stubbles thus: "The melancholy days have come, The saddest of the year."

The State Normal School of this district, at Bloomsburg, will enter upon its fall term, Tuesday, September 21, 1884. During the vacation a large sum of money and great care have been expended in putting the property into the best possible condition; the interior of the buildings is probably surpassed by that of no other school in the State. A new finish on the walls, paint and other improvements, render the students' rooms more attractive than ever before. The school gives FULL PROFESSIONAL STANDING BY ITS DIPLOMA and almost free tuition to those graduating in two years. Thorough training is secured by a large corps of skilled teachers and long recitation periods. Recent changes increase the efficiency. Many students are prepared for college. The last was the most prosperous year in the history of the school; the graduating class numbered forty-seven. Students having a card from the Principal get half fare on the D. L. & W. R. R. For catalogue address Rev. D. J. Walter, Jr., Principal.

Why pay such high prices for meat when you can buy meerkers so cheap at Simonton, Barber & Co? They have a large stock on hand which they are selling out at 25 cents per keg less than the regular price.

BEAVER TOWN JOTTINGS. As Mrs. Jacob Grimm and her aunt, Miss Mary Walter, were alighting from the buggy after returning from Beavertown one day last week, the horse was frightened by a dog, and making a quick turn, upset the buggy and threw the women to the ground, the buggy passing over one of them. The horse then ran over some logs at the saw mill and broke the buggy to fragments. He freed himself from the logs and ran to the lower end of the farm, where he was caught. Both women were badly bruised but were not seriously hurt.

George Dreese was obliged to shoot the best horse he had, last week. He had been sick for some time and was beyond recovery. Hog cholera is again ravaging the eastern end of Beaver township. Edward Freed lost three hogs and also a young cow, last week. The Canada thistle is gradually becoming a pernicious pest to our farmers.

Miss Sallie Beaver and Messrs. J. A. Aigler, C. L. Wetzel and J. S. Kern are attending the Normal Class and J. P. Carpenter and L. E. Specht the Academy at Freeburg. While W. N. Heimbach was at Paxtonville on Friday, his horse was frightened by the cars and ran away. He broke loose from the wagon after running a short distance and thus on slightly damaged the vehicle.

Gransum Camp has opened a new confectionery on Center street. About fifty men and boys of this place crossed the mountain to the campmeeting near Richfield, Sunday before last. George Spaid is having his new house painted. There is no more nicely arranged house in town.

The apple crop in this section is a little below the average—considerably larger than last year. Grapes will be abundant. Peaches will be scarce. Several of our citizens felt the earthquake shock, on Sunday. The addition to the tannery has been raised. A tin roof will be put on the entire building.

New corn is in order. S. C. Weike is using, on trial, a Keystone Driller manufactured at Fallstown, Pa. The drilling part of the machine works to a charm, but the inspirator of the engine refuses to do its work. They drilled about thirty feet deep on J. P. Kearns' lot on Monday, but were kept from working half of the time by the inspirator. When the inspirator worked they drilled from eight to ten feet in an hour. The machine drills wells seven hundred feet deep. LATER—They adjusted a new valve to the engine on Tuesday, and the machine now works as well as can be expected.

Messrs. A. M. Carpenter, J. P. Freed and J. P. Wetzel with their wives were the recipients of welcome guests recently—all young Misses. While Alice Mowery was washing off a window on Friday she received an ugly gash in her hand from a broken pane, which will prevent her from working for quite a while.

Calvin Bowersox and Miss Sallie Mowery were united in the holy bonds of matrimony on Tuesday evening, may their lives flow on as calmly as a river. "Squire R. F. Brown and J. E. Zellers of Lewisburg accompanied by a party from this place are surveying land on Shade mountain.

CITIZENS. WEST BEAVER ITEMS. The St. John Sunday school will picnic on Saturday, August 16th at Black Oak Ridge. All are cordially invited to come. Dr. R. Rothrock of McClure intends erecting a new house on Brown and Walker Sts. in the near future. David Rothrock and H. H. Laub made a business trip to Freeburg last week.
