

The Middleburgh Post. Published every Thursday.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS. Look at the figures on the label of your paper. These figures tell you the days to which your subscription is paid.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD. PENNA. R. R. DIVISION. This Table, in effect April 6, 1885.

Table with columns for Sunbury & Lewistown, showing train times and distances between stations like Sunbury, Lewistown, and Middletown.

Philadelphia & Erie R. R. Division. NORTH-ERN CENTRAL RAILWAY. Train schedules for various routes including Philadelphia, Erie, and Sunbury.

There's a child named 'Babe' who's a little bit of a 'daddy'.

Did you read Weis' new advertisement? Keep the air in your rooms moist by keeping water on your stoves.

Benjamin Eisenhower of Three Rivers, Mich., is visiting relatives in this county at present, and favored us with a pleasant call last week.

Bad drainage causes much sickness. Bad blood and improper action of the liver and kidneys is bad drainage of the human system, which Burdock Blood Bitters will remedy.

S. Weis, Selingsgrove, desires to close out his stock of ladies and children's wraps as soon as possible, and now offers extra bargains on these goods.

Elon Snook, residing in Adams township, reports killing a chicken a few weeks ago that had a pin firmly imbedded in its liver.

John Renninger and John Reitz, two of Franklin township's reliable farmers returned from their western trip on Friday of last week.

We meet persons and take a fancy to them. They are bright and agreeable. We meet them again, and get to like them.

The County Commissioners have appointed B. F. Sheary, of Centreville, Mercantile Appraiser for 1886.

Wilmer Moyer, of Bellevue, Ohio, arrived here on Monday morning to attend the funeral of his grand-uncle, Mrs. Renninger, who was buried on Sunday.

Brother Lambert of the Tribune celebrated his 42d birthday on Tuesday of last week. "Whom the gods love die young."

Now is your time to buy a buggy at your own price. J. P. Kearns of the Beavertown Carriage works has 50 buggies ready and 25 started, and no room to store them.

I have been troubled with catarrh from boyhood and had considered my case chronic until about three years ago I procured one bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, and I count myself sound to-day.

Science is approaching the cure of consumption—a disease caused by a deposit from the blood of impure matter in the lungs.

"It snows and blows and stings your nose—makes all creation shiver; it bites your toes, increases woes and freezes up the river."

IMPORTANT TO LANDLORDS.—The prohibitionists throughout the State are turning their attention to the prevalent violation of the license laws in this, that Landlords neglect to lift their licenses within fifteen days after the granting of the same.

The following are the officers of G. E. Hackenberg Camp, Sons of Veterans, No. 78, for the ensuing year: Captain—J. F. Stetler.

We failed to make mention in our last week's issue of the very enjoyable Christmas treat the children of the U. B. Church had on Christmas eve.

News reached us on Wednesday of last week that Charley Kissinger, train dispatcher, on the S. & L. division, came near losing his life in the morning by being crushed in the Selingsgrove turn-table, and was only rescued by a main line engineer who saw him fall.

Last week we informed M. S. Schroyer, our good democratic friend of Selingsgrove, that he had made a mistake of ten cents in our favor on account and that we took the liberty to correct it.

G. A. R. INSTALLATION.—On Friday evening of last week, Capt. Ryan Post of Middleburgh held a public installation of the following officers: P. C.—D. T. Rhoads.

After the installation which was witnessed by a number of the Post's friends, the old Yets indulged in "Camp fire" stories which were amusing in the extreme, and furnished a most pleasing terminus to the exercises.

M. L. Blair, Alderman 5th Ward, Scranton, Pa., stated Nov. 9, '85: He had used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for sprains, burns, cuts, bruises and rheumatism.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL.—I noticed in last week's paper that your regular correspondent from this place failed to make mention of the very successful Christmas festival we had in the Union church, at this place on Christmas eve.

The Commissioners of Snyder county last week appointed T. J. Smith, Esq., as their counselor, and C. Stetler, Clerk; retaining H. R. Reigle as Janitor.

This section of the country has been treated to a spell of weather during the last week that savors strongly of a genuine western blizzard.

McCLURE.—The weather has been very cold for the past few days. The roads leading north and south are drifted shut with snow, making travel almost impossible.

EDITOR POST: Please permit us, through the columns of your worthy paper, to tender our sincere thanks to all our members, and citizens of Middleburgh, who contributed to the timely, valuable, and no less appreciated Donation, which was rendered us on Christmas evening.

Horrible Death.—The following letter, dated Selingsgrove, Jan. 8, 1886, giving an account of the horrible death of B. F. Faust, was written by Ed. Duck to his brother Henry, Register and Recorder, who permitted us to make the following extracts:

"I suppose you have heard of the shocking accident which befell Frank yesterday evening, and have been wondering ever since how it happened. Well I will give you a full account of it."

Rev. C. W. Walter, who is now canvassing the county for Chas. W. Stewart & Co's Nursery, Newark, New York, is meeting with unusual success.

Can you tell who is in the greatest danger of catching any infectious or epidemic disease? "Why," you say, "the person whose blood is in an impure or impoverished condition."

ROLL OF HONOR.—The following persons have paid their subscription to the Post to the date opposite their names. Should any mistakes occur in these credits or on your paper please notify us: Dec. 1, '85 H. B. Yerger.

ADAMSBURG.—The mercury registered 18 degrees below zero. Those who predicted a mild winter, will now change their minds.

Reuben Dreese has two cows from which they churned 25 pounds of butter last week, besides what they used. Who can beat it?

Lewis Reynolds and sister May, of Port Deposit, Md., are visiting the Grosses.

A protracted meeting commenced in the Lutheran church on Monday evening.

McCLURE.—The weather has been very cold for the past few days. The roads leading north and south are drifted shut with snow, making travel almost impossible.

The two young men living in the eastern part of the county, had better keep away from McClure, break window panes, and forcing themselves into the school room, and conducting themselves in a disgraceful manner as those boys did on the night of the 7th of January.

Our young people had a dance the other night. Mrs. Stroub of Ohio and a lady and gentleman from Freeburg, are visiting relatives at this end of the county.

The Welsh man and woman, the Post warned the people of, made their appearance here on Saturday last. They received a cool reception.

James Dreese a citizen of Kansas is still among us. James is a jolly fellow and we hope he may remain with us for some time.

Albert Snook and wife are the guests of Mrs. John Dreese. H. Ush, our Veterinary Surgeon is busy attending to his many sick horses.

Rev. C. W. Walter, who is now canvassing the county for Chas. W. Stewart & Co's Nursery, Newark, New York, is meeting with unusual success.

Can you tell who is in the greatest danger of catching any infectious or epidemic disease? "Why," you say, "the person whose blood is in an impure or impoverished condition."

The New Hampshire horse blankets for 65 cents, at Sol. Oppenheimer's, Selingsgrove.

SHINGLES! SHINGLES!—Fifty Thousand No. 2, 18-inch Shingles at $2.50 per thousand. Inquire at this office.

For the latest in Knit Jackets, in quality, style and price, call on Sol. Oppenheimer, Selingsgrove.

The undersigned will pay the highest cash price for Calves, four weeks old from cow. Notice through mail will receive prompt attention.

The 13th Annual Musical Convention will commence in the Musical College, Freeburg, Pa., Monday evening, January 18, 1886.

GRAIN MARKET. No. 1 Red wheat... $ 88 " 2 Fultz and mixed... 85 " 3 white... 80

MIDDLEBURGH MARKET. Butter... 18 Eggs... 12 " 12 " 12 " 12

MARRIED. Dec. 24, by Rev. J. A. Earnest, Miss Maggie Wehr, of Middleburgh and Charles Trutt, of Snyder county.

Dec. 29, by Rev. S. E. Oehenford, J. C. Thompson and Clara E. Fisher, both of Selingsgrove.

Dec. 23, at Beavertown, by Rev. D. M. Stetler, Miss Mary C. Arnold and John D. Weirick, both of Union county.

DIED. In Franklin twp., Jan. 8, Rebecca Renninger, aged 81 years and 13 days.

In Washington twp., Dec. 4, Miss Mary Elizabeth Inch, aged 17 years.

DOUBLE SAFETY ODORLESS HOLLOW WARE. Carrying all steam and disengaging odor from cooking down into the fire.

HUNTERSIFTER Manufacturing Co., CINCINNATI, - - OHIO. Manufacture of the world famed "HUNTERSIFTER" Cyclone Egg Heater.

S. F. SHEARY General Fire Insurance Agent. Only first-class Stock Companies represented.

Clearing Out Sale! From this day we will offer greater bargains than ever offered in Ladies and Children's wraps, Newmarkets, Circulars, Blankets, Haps, Shawls, Underwear, and all kinds of Woolen Goods.

THE BEAVERTOWN CARRIAGE and HARNESS WORKS! Manufactures of Baronches, Jump-seat Carriages, Wagons, Sleighs, Also Single and Double Harness.

TINWARE, STOVES, HOUSE-KEEPING GOODS, &c. Call and see our $75.00 Top Buggy, which we are making a special Building Material taken in exchange for work.

COOK STOVES AND HEATERS. ROOFING AND SPOUTING. D. T. RHOADS, MIDDLEBURGH, PA.

B. H. Custer & Co., Successors to Simonton, Barber & Co. NEW GOODS! NEW PRICES! Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots and Shoes.

S. F. SHEARY General Fire Insurance Agent. A GIFT! Send 10 cents postage, and we will mail you a royal, valuable, sample box of goods.