

SEVEN COUNTY COURTS.—The Courts of Snyder County are held on the fourth Monday of February, May, and September, and second day of December.

Our friends throughout the county will be glad to see the news in their respective villages and neighborhoods. Send us the facts, and we will dress them up as they like. Our columns will always be open to those who wish to speak through them on local questions of public interest; but we will not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions they may express.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Look at the figures on the label of your paper. Those figures tell you how many you have. Within 3 weeks after the date of the label, if it is changed, no other receipt is necessary.

SALE REGISTER.

Saturday, May 1, Wm. Shambach, administrator of Joseph Eby, will sell personal property near Zion's Church.

Saturday, May 1, Ann Meyer, admx. of the estate of Wm. M. Meyer, dec'd, will sell personal property near Front.

Committee Meeting.

The members of the Republican Standing Committee are requested to assemble at Middleburgh, on Saturday, May 1st, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of fixing a time for holding the Primary election.

Committee Meeting.

J. H. Willis, Chairman.

See H. Harvey Schoch's Insurance card in this issue.

A drought about June 1st and a dry hot harvest is predicted.

Just received—A car-load of plaster at $10 per ton. W. B. WINNEY.

All men are created equal, but the majority will not take the trouble to live up to it.

Artist S. F. Delbert has again returned to Middleburgh and is now ready for business.

Dr. J. W. Seip, of Kreamer, greets the public with his professional card in this issue.

Theos. Swinford, wife and "little Bill" returned from their western trip on Wednesday.

H. H. Grimm's Law office is now in Wittenmyer's building, first door east of the Washington House.

Al. Cleelan has the contract for digging a well at the new jail at $1.50 per foot, walling and all.

The Republican Standing Committee will meet at Middleburgh, on Saturday, May 1, at 1 o'clock p. m.

John Hummel of Washington last week lost two fine yearling Norman Percheron colts from distemper.

The bones of an average man only weigh about twenty-four pounds, and yet some people put on airs and step around as though they weighed a ton.

Mrs. Ellen C. Anand has just received a fine lot of Millinery goods. Now is the time to buy your Spring bonnets. She returned from the city this week.

Tabby's comet will reach its greatest brilliancy May 2. At that time it will probably be a very conspicuous object in the western sky for some hours after sunset.

The National Hotel, Selinsgrove, is being repaired and repainted and generally renovated. A new parlor has been added. Mr. Holtzworth solicits local farmers' trade. All welcome.

We are pleased to learn that John Swigert, who was confined in our county jail several weeks upon the charge of insanity, is at home in his blacksmith shop and apparently all right again.

A barn on the farm of Dr. Backus, in Chapman township, with a Mr. Stahl as tenant, was burned to the ground on Monday night with all its contents, including 5 horses, 22 sheep and a lot of cattle. It is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

Ex-Sheriff Bolender and H. H. Grimm were on Bower's dam fishing on Monday night. They had caught five eels when they lost control of the boat and went down over the chute—where they caught something else that wouldn't look well in print.

Last week the Supreme Court of this State declared the fee bill, which was passed in 1878 cutting down the fees of county officers, to be unconstitutional. By this decision the old law of 1868 will be reinstated, the fees being increased.

Mrs. Louisa Smith the leading Milliner of Selinsgrove is going to the city on next Monday, the 3rd of May, to buy in a large stock of Summer Millinery and Straw goods. Ladies give her a call and buy your Hats and Bonnets at Louisa Smith's store and save from 15 to 20 cents on the dollar.

The Sixteenth Annual Convention of the Sunday School Association of Snyder county will be held at Adamsburg, commencing Monday evening, May 17 and continuing until Wednesday afternoon. An interesting program has been arranged for discussion and special effort is being made to have a successful and profitable convention. E. Payson Porter, Esq., of Philadelphia, State S. S. Secretary, has announced his intention to be present and will render valuable assistance. Other prominent Sunday School workers are expected. Let every Sunday School in the county take a proper interest in this good work and send delegates to the convention, so that new life and energy may be imparted to the Sunday school cause in Snyder county.

See new adv. of Sobel Bros., Selinsgrove, in this issue.

That cold wave predicted by the Western weather prophet did not reach us.

The organs of the body most given to shirking their regular work are the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys. A medicine that stimulates these organs into healthy action is invaluable. VINKGAR BITTERS CORDIAL does this, and does its work permanently. THE CORDIAL has a delicious taste, and is most grateful healing remedy for piles.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—Having returned, I will yet remain at Middleburgh, until after May Court. After which time I will take down my gallery preparatory to moving to another town. Don't delay your opportunity while you may—rain or shine. Pictures taken at very moderate prices. Yours Respectfully, S. F. DELBERT, Middleburgh, Pa., April 28, '86.

C. W. Derstine's Photograph Gallery is still growing in popularity as his fame spreads as an artist. It is said by artists to be a difficult task to paint a fly, but the best looking of our girls can detect improvements in their looks from Derstine's pictures. We would therefore advise all who want to see an improvement on the common mirror to go to Lewistown and have their pictures taken at his gallery.

Tom Murty, Sunbury's enterprising clothier makes his politest bow to the people of Snyder county in the supplement accompanying this issue of the Post. He holds forth opposite the Central Hotel, and through his honesty and fair dealing is rapidly raking in the trade of Northumberland and adjoining counties. When you go to Sunbury to buy call on him and you will be sure to get just what you bargained for at prices lower than at any other house in the town.

The Harry Sisters, aged respectively 6, 9 and 13 years, will give one of their wonderful Musical and Literary Entertainments at Middleburgh, on Friday evening, May 14th, and at Adamsburg on the 15th. They come here highly recommended as giving a most remarkable and pleasing entertainment. They are pronounced the best educated children in the world, and are expert violinists, vocalists and pianists. They appear here under the auspices of Grand Army of the Republic and deserve a good house. Admission 25 and 15 cents.

THE KIND WE LIKE.—The following from B. F. Edmonds of Golden Corners, Ohio, explains itself: Ed. Post: As my subscription has expired I herewith remit you a check for $2 for which please continue my subscription to the Post. The Post is always a welcome friend with us—as it is from our old home. It gives us a great deal of interesting news for which we are eager to obtain it as soon as its arrival is announced. We are living in a pleasant as well as a nice part of Ohio, and are within the reach of three different railroads. I remain yours truly, B. H. EDMONDS.

C. W. Derstine has placed an entire new line of photographs in his show case in Dr. Hassinger's office. They show great artistic skill and are universally pronounced superior in every respect to any photograph work produced by any artist this side of Philadelphia—where Mr. D. learned the art, and where $12 per doz. is charged, while his prices are less than half that amount. Should you want good work nearer at home than you will ever get again, call on him near Odd Fellow's Corner, Lewistown, Pa.

C. Howard, the jolly Irish peddler shook the boys by the hand this week and had a jolly good time all by himself. He is among the few pack-peddlers that deals in straight goods, while he himself is a yard wide and all wool but the buttons. He says Snyder county is the best place he ever was in, and he hopes that the first man he runs against in heaven will be the editor of the Post. He had his pictures taken by Mr. Delbert on Monday and the "girrells are nearly gone" would over them, and sure it's no wonder, when its himself that's almost distracted with 'em." Long live Charley, the Irish peddler.

D. T. Rhoades, last week while hunting through a basketful of old rubbish belonging to our old friend Albright Swinford, found the following ticket: No. 298. This ticket will entitle the bearer to such price as may be drawn against its number in the distribution of property at Middleburgh. HENRY BRACHEL, Jan. 24, 1824.

Another card reads: ALBRIGHT SWINFORD, Sir.—You are hereby summoned to attend at the Court House, in the town of New Berlin, at 10 o'clock a.m. on Monday, the 19th day of February, next, as a petit juror. P. SHERBOLD, Sheriff's office, New Berlin, Pa. Jan. 13, 1827.

A band of Gypsies camped on Bower's Island on Monday. They had six wagons, a number of trading horses, &c., &c. We could not ascertain the number of the band, as two wagon-loads of children had not yet been unpacked when we were over. Some time on Monday night they "Packed their tents like the Arabs, and silently stole away," and are now located in the grove a few hundred yards north of Middleburgh, where they will hold themselves in readiness to unravel the tangled threads of the mysterious future at ten cents a skin. If their story be true half of the people of Middleburgh will inherit big fortunes from distant lands, get bundles of letters across big waters that will break the camel's back that carries the United States mails. All the girls will get married to good husbands and their children be as numerous as red dogs, and all will be happy, prosperous.

On Tuesday we visited Yoder's new Roller Flouring Mill at Globe Mills. We were pleasantly surprised to find it one of the finest mills in the State, equipped with all the latest milling improvements. The mill is built of brick, is 50x90 feet, and has four floors. Its capacity is 100 barrels per day, with a storage of 10,000 bushels. The machinery which was built by Mor-dyke, Marmon & Co., of Indianapolis, Ind., is propelled by two of Leffelt's Improved special water wheels, one of 52 and the other of 44 inches. It has 13 sets of chilled iron rollers. Wm. Roush, one of the most expert millers in the State has the management of the concern and is very popular with his customers. His flour is pronounced first-class in every respect. Mr. Yoder deserves great credit for the enterprise he has manifested in this venture—expending a great deal of money on a new thing which, fortunately, is proving a wonderful success.

CENTREVILLE.—Dr. D. R. Rothrock and wife of Three Springs, Pa., visited here recently. He claims having a good paying practice. The farmers have finished the oat seeding and will now turn their attention to the planting of corn. Prof. D. S. Boyer took a peep at Centreville on the 23d. Dr. Mohu of Laurelton, paid us a friendly visit on Friday. Easter was on hand bright and early on Sunday morning, but the Easter egg and the small boy had been on hand for a week or so. Straw hats have made their appearance. Whitewash artists have been very busy the past week.

W. H. Hartman and wife of Middleburgh, Miss E. May Shinkel a teacher of Beaver Springs, and H. H. Baker and wife were in town over Sunday. Communion services were held at this place on Sunday, by Rev. Dietz of the Reformd church. The sermon for the occasion was preached by the Rev. F. Anand of New Berlin. The corner stone of the Lutheran and Reformed church will be laid on Sunday, May 9th. Services to commence at 10 o'clock. Eminent ministers from a distance will be present and the public is cordially invited to attend.

TROXELVILLE.—The weather has been beautiful during the past ten days and I hope it may continue so. We had a fine refreshing shower on Saturday evening, accompanied by vivid lightning and heavy thunder. The much needed and anxiously wished for rain continued nearly all night. Nature has doffed her sombre garments and donned her most beautiful, pleasant and comfortable robes. Most of our farmers have finished sowing oats. Most of the corn ground was plowed in the fall and forepart of the winter and the farmers are now busily engaged in preparing it for planting. The growing wheat looks as promising as I have ever seen it at this season of the year, and a plentiful harvest may be expected.

Old, young and middle-aged men go out in the mountain every day, except Sunday, trout fishing. Some meet with good, some with middling and others with poor success; and again others with general "Fishermen's luck" &c. A party started out this morning with a two horse team loaded with provender, provisions, camp equipments and fishing tackle, bound for Trester's Valley, intending to remain out a week. The party is composed of the following gentlemen: Archibald, John F. and Rob. Middleburgh, Rob. Beaver, Ephraim Howell and others.

Owen Goss has been to the city laying in a heavy stock of splendid, cheap and substantial goods. On his return he took a stroll over the "Gettysburg battlefield." John Zechman has raised his house three feet or more and put a new wall under it. He is also building a kitchen to the rear of his house. After it is finished John will have a nice home and a pleasant place for the entertainment of the traveling public. They are "house cleaning" all over town.

Everybody had plenty of "Easter" eggs in our village. James Mattern, one of Troxelville's fine and intelligent young men, left our little village and went to Adamsburg to clerk for A. S. Helfrich. James is an honest and trustworthy young man. Oh, I almost forgot to mention that in referring to the closing exercises of the McClure school, I stirred up a hornets nest. A feller under cover of the nom de plume "Ego," takes me to task. He should have added another syllable, then the name would truly represent his character. He thinks it quite clever to call another correspondent a fool. I need not soil my paper to call him by that name, for his own words betray him. He puts me in mind of the Ass in the "Fable" who put on a Lion's skin, roamed about frightening all the silly animals he met, and, seeing a fox, he tried to alarm him also. But beyond, having heard his voice, said, "Well, to be sure! and I should have been frightened too, if I had not heard you bray." I will just say in passing by, that I think it beneath the dignity of a gentleman to waste ammunition on a braulose Ass. To "Minnie" and Mr. Howell I, perhaps, owe an apology. I should have remembered the adage, "If you cannot consistently commend a thing do not censure." But my dear Minnie, I assure you I meant no unkindness toward you. My motive was to do you a kindness. Please do not impugn my motive. Remember: "It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than to hear the song of a fool." But, if you think as your correspondent, that I am a "fool," then remember the other adage, "It is better to be a fool, than to be a wise man."

unintentionally, have aggrieved you and your teacher, and I hereby publicly ask your pardon. Let us be friends. An-reeor. REP.

LOOKOUT FOR BARGAINS.—A New Store will be opened by Fridman & Getz, on Aaron Middleburgh's corner, Beavertown, Pa., on May 1st. Where they will keep a full line of Notions and Dry goods, Clothing, &c. Give them a call.

Persons wishing to secure Cucumber pumps can do so by calling on N. P. Hare, Middleburgh, who will furnish them for wells 20 feet deep at $6.00 Apr. 13th.

The only reliable catarrh remedy on the market to-day is Ely's Cream Balm, being free from poisonous drugs and offensive odors. It has cured thousands of acute and chronic cases where all other remedies have failed. It quickly cures cold in the head and catarrhal headache. Price fifty cents. May.

SINGLE'S SHINGLES.—Fifty Thousand No. 2, 18-inch Shingles at $2.50 per thousand. Inquire at this office.

Many persons have catarrh in its first stages who suppose themselves to be troubled with nothing more serious than a severe and stubborn cold in the head. Ely's Cream Balm gives instant relief from colds in the head, and a thorough treatment will cure catarrh. For sale by every druggist in the land. April.

"Dozen of letters a Day pour in upon Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., from people who have been benefited by using his popular preparation called Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy.' And they often illustrate what this remarkable medicine accomplishes in some new and hitherto untried field of operation. Not infrequently patients come long distance to grasp the Doctor by the hand and express their gratitude for deliverance from pain."—Troy (N. Y.) Daily Times. April

THE LIFE LESSON

Learned by a Prominent Hudson Quid Fellow. [From the Hudson (N. Y.) Register.] Mr. John King, a faithful old fellow (Past Grand of Hudson, No. 42) and a member of the Baptist Church, says: "I have been, as a sufferer from dyspepsia for ten years, ailing with indigestion, sour stomach, and distressing flatulency, and my mind was a burden too heavy to carry, and my mind was wracked down by a gloomy despondency. After a long and weary search, I finally learned of my stomach; my abdomen would blot and I was almost constantly with a sick headache. A lady, however, of my condition, advised me to use DR. DAVID KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY, telling me what an infinite deal of good it had done her and others, whom she knew. I began taking it in the latter part of August, and used altogether only three bottles, when I achieved in me the most wonderful improvement. I have now gained flesh, and feel stronger, better and happier than I have in ten years. FAVORITE REMEDY cured my friend R. F. Hermann, of Ghent, of the lingering remains of malarial fever, which had been in his system for three years, and he began taking Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and in a few days he felt that he had wonderfully good effects upon him. Several of my acquaintances say that, having once tried it, they would never again be without it. I have given it to my children and found it the best medicine I have ever known for regulating their bowels, and purifying their blood. The knowledge of this medicine I deem the greatest blessing of my life. A Health and its Victory.—"I carried the burden of dyspepsia about all my life," said Mrs. Pierce, a lady eighty years old, residing at Rochester, N. Y., "until about three years ago, I began taking Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and in a few days I felt that I was given me more ambition and strength than I have had since I was young."
