SNYDER COUNTY COURTS.—The Courts of Snyder County are held on the fourth Mondays of February, May, and September, and Second Mon day of December.

Our friends throughout the county will oblige by sending us the news in their respective towns, villages and neighborhoods. Send us the plain facts, and we will dress them up, if need be. Our columns will always be open to those who wish to speak through them on general or local questions of public interest, but we will not hold ourself responsible for the opinions they may express.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Look at the figures on the label of your paper. These figures tell you THE DATE TO WHICH YOUR SUBSCRIPTION IS PAID. Within 3 weeks after money is sent, see if date is changed. No other receipt is necessary.

"There's a child among us that's been born, so little he'll print "ME."

C. Stetler has purchased the Eisenhower property on North Main St. for $850.

The masons are expected to begin work on the new jail this morning, Thursday.

Isaac Boush of Beavertown had a valuable cow killed by the cars on Tuesday.

In another column we publish a list of the jurors drawn for the special term of court.

Rev. Spangler of Port Royal, spent several days this week among his many Middleburgh friends.

Miss Lizzie Bolender on Friday left for Akron, O., at which place she intends to make her future home.

Sylvester Bowen badly smashed the fingers of his left hand on Monday while rolling a barrel of vinegar into his cellar.

Joseph McMeen on trial last week in the Juniata county court, charged with poisoning his wife, was found guilty of murder in the first degree.

Mrs. Louisa Smith the popular milliner of Selinsgrove, returned from the east to day, Thursday, with an entire new line of Millinery and Fancy goods.

Miss Libbie Smith, daughter of J. G. Smith, royally entertained a large number of young friends yesterdry. Nothing was left undone to make her guests happy. It was the anniversary of her sixth birthday.

GRAND FATHER CLOCK FOR SALE. An eight-day brass works, cherry case Grand-father clock, guaranteed to keep good time for sale cheap. Call at my Jewelry Store in Middleburgh.

The Burdock Plant is one of the best diuretics or kidney regulators in the vegetable world, and the compound known as Burdock Blood Bitters, is unsurpassed in all diseases of the kidneys, liver and blood.

While at Adamsburg, Tuesday, we got a flying taste of Forester's Ice Cream and have no hesitancy in pronouncing it as good as any we have ever tasted. He is manufacturing immense quantities for dealers all over the State.

Stetler's Cornet Band will give an open air concert on Saturday evening May 8th, on the Balcony in front of Seebold's Hall. They have prepared an excellent program, consisting of Instrumental and Vocal music.

J. F. Keller of Beaver Springs, one of Snyder county's best known and most skillful instrutors, is teaching a subscription school in Millheim, Centre Co., Pa., this summer. He is meeting with the usual good success that attends his labors.

On Saturday morning while Lank Hare, of Middlecreek was knocking the tooth out of a harrow the hatchet which he was using flew out of the handle and struck his father-in-law, George Steininger, in the calf of the leg, cutting it clean into the bone. Dr. Barber dressed the wound.

A Lady wrote to the Mack Publishing Co., 528 Washington Street, New York, and said: "Please send me the book with the Wheel of Fortune in it, and the Language of Flowers." She meant the Ladies' Book, which is full of illustrations and interesting articles, including Rules of Society, Dictionary of Dreams, Aids to Beauty. Sent for two cents in stamps.

J. B. Reed, of Sunbury, Pa., whos advertisement has appeared in the POST for the last year, has just received an immense stock of fishing tackle, comprising rods and reels of all sizes and prices, lines, hooks, gut leaders, flies, and all kinds of artificial bait to deceive the finny tribe, and in fact everything known to the most expert anglers. All orders by mail promptly attended to.

J. F. Forester, of Beaver Springs, is not only an expert lightning-jerker but is also running an extensive trade in the manufacture of ice-cream. A new field has opened before him, and the other morning he, like Byron, awoke to find himself famous. This is in the line of a sale crier, and we heard him at one and can testify that he can hold an audience and squeeze money out of them these hard times better than any man we have heard at it yet.

Of course when a Man is Sound and well he don't care a copper for all the medicine on the face of the earth. He has no use for it. But when disease is eating his life out he wants the right prescription and he wants it right away. For that reason all who know what Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is turn to that for help, and it never disappoints them. And it is just as beneficial to new friends as it is to old ones. Pleasant to the palate, and gentle in its action: May.

MAJOR WM. H. DILL.—Wm. H. Dill died at his home in Freeburg on Saturday, May 1, 1886, aged 44 years, 8 months and 5 days.

He was born in Warwick, Orange county, N. Y., August 26, 1841. He was a son of Robert Dill who died about 13 years ago, in Warwick. His mother's maiden name was Elizabeth Robertsonf, who died in the autumn of 1885. The family consisted of five sons and three daughters who have all died except Norman L. Dill and a married sister, Hattie, who are still residents of Warwick.

He attended the Warwick Institute until he had arrived at the age of sixteen years when he entered Rutger's College, of New Jersey, over which Hurr Theodore Frelinghuysen presided. He graduated from this institution with great honor. Immediately after his graduation, our country was agitated with the civil war and a sense of duty impelled him to enter the service of his country. He volunteered as a private, was soon promoted to a captainey and at the end of the war he was promoted to a major for bravery and meritoritorius conduct during the war. He participated in many hard fought battles, and worked at the side of the deep mouthed cannon. The last great battle he took part in was the memorable battle of Gettysburg on the soil of the Keystone state of which he afterwards became a distinguished citizen. He became a citizen of Freeburg, Snyder county, Pa., on February 22, 1876.

His gift as an orator, his skill as an instructor and his sterling qualities as a man soon endeared him not only to the people of Snyder county, but wherever he was known.

In May 1881 he was elected County Superintendent of Common Schools. During his term he proved himself "the right man in the right place." After disease had laid her hands on him he was constantly concerned about his official duties. He went into the office with clean hands and an enlightened understanding, performing his official duties with great fidelity. During his term he conducted two six weeks sessions of free Normal instruction. Each term was attended by 115 to 120 teachers—more than we have schools in the county.

Soon after his coming to Freeburg, he married Miss Maggie Reaves of Warwick, who survives him together with two daughters and one son. He became a member of the Reformed church at Freeburg.

His last official visit was to the two schools in the Independent district, Dec. 28, 1885. His last grandest public effort was in Boyer's hall at the opening of the Musical Convention in January 1885, when many in the vast audience were melted into tears by the fervor of his eloquence and the attachment he expressed for his tried friends and the desire to live and die in Snyder county, and that his body might rest beneath our soil. His wish is gratified. He died in the harness, fully conscious of the great change coming—offering his last prayer in the hearing of his devoted wife a few hours before his departure, expressing the desire that they might meet around the "Great White Throne."

The funeral took place on Tuesday at 10 o'clock, and was more largely attended than any other ever held in Snyder county. Revs. Spangler of Port Royal and Wampole of Freeburg officiated. The funeral procession was headed by Stetler's Cornet Band of Middleburgh, followed by Capt Davis Post, G. A. R. of Selinsgrove, Capt. Ryan Post of Middleburgh, Lieut. Hackenburg Camp Sons of Veterans of Middleburgh, I. O. O. F. Lodge of Selinsgrove, Choir, Casket, Mourners in carriages, Students of deceased and citizens. It was the first interment in the new cemetery east of town and a beautiful site for a monument.

The funeral orations delivered by Revs. Wampole and Spangler were fitting eulogies on the head of the beloved departed friend.

On Tuesday afternoon Memorial services were held in the same building (Lutheran and Reformed church) when addresses were delivered by a number of comrades and friends and measures taken to erect a monument in memory of the deceased.

"Life's course well run,
Life's crown well won."

IN MEMORIAM.—At a meeting of the Capt. Ryan Post, G. A. R. of Middleburgh, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, it has pleased Divine Providence to call from among us Comrade William H. Dill, therefore be it

Resolved by Post No. 364 G. A. R that in the death of Major Dill the Grand Army has lost a worthy comrade—the community a worthy citizen—his family a noble husband and father; and the Common Schools of Snyder county a faithful official and true friend.

Resolved, That Prof. W. H. Dill by his zealous toil for the moral and intellectual elevation of our youth, has raised up for himself a monument more lasting than granite; his life work has left an indelible impress upon the community, "though dead he yet speaketh."

Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family—we feel for them, though we cannot realize the bitterness of their grief. Powerless ourselves to comfort, we can only point them to Him who has said, "Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted."

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be entered upon our minutes; a copy be furnished Mrs. Dill, and a copy be sent to each of the county papers for publication.

G. C. GUTELIUS,
F. E. BOWER,
JOHN H. ARNOLD,
Committee.

Mrs. Louisa Smith the leading Milliner of Selinsgrove is going to the city on next Monday, the 3rd of May, to buy in a large stock of Summer Millinery and Straw goods. Ladies give her a call and buy your Hats and Bonnets at Louisa Smith's store and save from 15 to 20 cents on the dollar.

The Freeburg Broom Brigade will give an entertainment in Seebold's new Hall, Middleburgh, Pa., on Saturday evening, May 15. This entertainment will consist of a Broom Drill, Vocal and Instrumental music, Recitations, &c. It promises to be the most amusing and entertaining exhibitions ever given in Middleburgh. Everybody should attend. Admission 25 and 15 cents. Reserved seats 10 cents extra. See bills.

"Why should not the Time Come when the name of Dr. David Kennedy shall be associated in the public mind with the purification of the blood, as the name of Harvey now is with its circulation. For certainly no other medical man has done as much to that end as he has. And it is also important that people should know that the result of his labors are within reach of all in the form of Dr. Kennedy's 'Favorite Remedy.'"—Rheumatic Journal. May.

THE NEW TOWN HALL.—The Seebold Town Hall will be finished in two weeks. It is a two story structure, located on the North-west corner of Market and Walnut Steets. The first floor is used for the extensive General Store of the firm of Seebold & Runkel. The Hall is on the second floor 88x25 feet—with two dressing rooms in the rear. The ceiling is 13 feet high, and the stage is 13x25 feet. The Hall will be finished and painted in the most approved style. The front and part of the east side along Walnut steet has a handsome Veranda, intended for open air Conserts &c. It will be such a Hall that the town can well be prond of. C. C. Seebold the proprietor is a live business man, and certainly deserves a great deal of credit for his enterprise in thus supplying the people with this long needed and great convenience, as a hall of this kind was needed for may years. It will have a seating capasity for upwards of 600. John F. Stetler the architect also deserves much credit—he has left nothing undone that could possibly add to the elegance and convenience of this hall. No doubt this hall will be well patronized, as Mr. Seebold's prices are very reasonable, and large audiences can always be expected.

NEEDED IMPROVEMENTS.—We are reliably informed that subscription books will soon be circulated for the purpose of raising funds with which to purchase a town clock, to be placed in the steeple of the Court-house, with the consent however of the County Commissioners. This would be a move in the right direction, and as the town will now be adorned with a new jail at the expenses of the county, would it not become the citizens of Middleburgh to acknowledge this favor at the hands of the tax payers and put a monument on the Court house that would be both pretty and useful. This would be received by the tax payers as a tribute of thanks. Citizens let us put our shoulders to the wheel and go on with the grand work of improvement. Our streets, alleys and pavements also need much improvement, and we are very glad that our worthy counsel have already moved in this direction. It is hoped they will continue the good work and make all the improvements necessary, and make the town worthy its name—"A County Seat." Pavement and side walks will certainly have to be constructed in the near future. Why not at once pass the proper ordinances and have this matter attended to.

MIDDLECREEK ITEMS.—As Mr. J. M. Steininger has canvassed this section of the county and raked in a good many new subscribers, I do not think it improper to give my fellow readers a few items of the village of Middlecreek and vicinity.

We are sorry to say that H. H. Herbster, who was employed in A. H. Ulsh's grist mill for over six years, is going to leave with the expectation of bettering himself by going into a roller mill. Henry we are sorry to part with you.

Pealing bark is all the go just now and farmers are getting ready to haul it, provided the wages will be sufficient—if not they will all unite in a grand strike, similar to the late Southern Pacific.

J. Adam Goss has purchased two iron gray horses recently. It is rumored by some of his intimate friends that he intends to leave the "Bachelors' Association" of which Milton is president and Alf. secretary.

C. K. Goss and A. E. Manbeck are attending the Normal Institute at Adamsburg. Row.

BANNERVILLE.—Corn planting is next on the program.

Bark peeling is in full blast along the Jack's.

Wm. H. Krick of this place, while peeling bark cut an ugly gash in his knee.

Since Jan. 1, 1886, E. Shellenberger has shipped 4,000 doz. eggs.

Miss Carey Steininger opened her Summer school on Monday last.

John O. and John H. Goss have purchased a tract of timber land of Joseph Peter.

We hope Jacob Kammerling is enjoying his trip to Ohio. His many faiends imagine seeing him fling out the fish he was speaking of.

Jacob Hester now spends his evenings at home. He says he is glad it's a boy. REP.

Persons wishing to secure Cucumber pumps can do so by calling on N. P. Hare, Middleburgh, who will furnish them for wells 20 feet deep at $4.00. Apr. 1,3m.

The Sixteenth Annual Convention of the Sunday School Association of Snyder county will be held at Adamsburg, commencing Monday evening, May 17 and continuing until Wednesday afternoon. An interesting program has been arranged for discussion and special effort is being made to have a successful and profitable convention. E. Payson Porter, Esq., of Philadelphia, State S. S. Secretary, has announced his intention to be present and will render valuable assistance. Other prominent Sunday School workers are expected. Let every Sunday School in the county take a proper interest in this good work and send delegates to the convention, so that new life and energy may be imparted to the Sunday school cause in Snyder county.

A. M. CAREY,
Cor. Secretary.

The Harry Sisters, aged respectively 6, 9 and and 12 years, will give one of their wonderful Musical and Literary Entertainments at Middleburgh, on Friday evening, May 14th, and at Adamsburg on the 15th. They come here highly recommend as giving a most remarkable and pleasing entertainment. They are pronounced the best educated children in the world, and are expert violinists, vocalists and elocutionists. They appear here under the auspices of Grand Army of the Republic and deserve a good house. Admission 25 and 15 cents.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—Having returned, I will yet remain at Middleburgh, until after May Court. After which time I will take down my gallery preparatory to moving to another town. Don't delay your opportunity while you may—rain or shine. Pictures taken at very moderate prices. Yours Respectfully,

S. F. DEIBERT.

The only reliable catarrh remedy on the market to-day is Ely's Cream Balm, being free from poisonous drugs and offensive odors. It has cured thousands of acute and chronic cases where all other remedies have failed. It quickly cures cold in the head and catarrhal headache. Price fifty cents. May.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
