

KORNER, THOUGH TRUE

Miss Muehler says: "I have been thinking I will risk a lot in the new body once more. For I don't like honest old dull and heavy glasses, the wide lips, jabbering, fatness, the whole face and figure, instead of being what one likes to look at, pleasure to see in the same room, even—growing ugly, irrational, disgusting—more like a beast than a man. Yet some women have to bear it, have to speak kindly to their husbands, tell their friends, and keep them from ordering worse souls of themselves than they can help. I have seen it done not merely by working men's wives, but lady-wives in drawing rooms. I think, if I were married, and I saw my husband in the least overgrown with fat, and "shunk" way, he be not, but a simple, silly, otherwise than his natural self, it would nearly drive me wild. Loss on my account that his skin—pink—not for a minute, but a temporary, however, of it, I think— I think the fat glory and passion of my love would die out then and there forever.

TO DO LIKE PA. DOES.

The other evening there were several visitors at C. L. Grandson's house. The colonel takes great delight in "knowing-if his little son," "He is a little fellow," said Mrs. Grafton, one of the visitors. "Come here, my little man."

Excitement in Texas
Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Tex., by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head; everybody said he was dying of Consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills; by the time he had taken two boxes of Pills and two bottles of the Discovery, he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds.
