Thursday, May 21, 1886.

Second Controller Mansard rendered an important decision under the additional bounty act of July 28, 1880. The decision is to the effect that every soldier who enlisted after April 14, 1861, for a period of not less than two years, and was honorably discharged after serving two years for the purpose of enabling him to accept a commission, is entitled to the additional bounty of $50 authorized by the thirtieth section of that act.

Seaboard, Pennsylvania & Western.

Last week a rumor prevailed on the streets to the effect that one of the directors of the Seaboard, Pennsylvania & Western railroad company had been here looking after the interests of the road; that he had presented the office formerly used by the surveyors at Yagertown, and had stated that the reason work had not commenced was because of a difficulty with the Reading company, which had been removed, and that operations would now begin about the first of June.
