

SNYDER COUNTY COURTS.—The Courts of Snyder County are held on the fourth Monday of February, May, and September, and second day of December.

Our friends throughout the county will be glad to see the news in their respective villages and neighborhoods. Send us the plain facts, and we will dress them up as they should be. Our columns will be open to those who wish to speak through them on general or local questions of public interest; but we will not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions they may express.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Look at the figures on the label of your paper. Those figures tell you the DATE TO WHICH YOUR SUBSCRIPTION IS PAID. Within 3 weeks after money is sent, see if date is changed. No other receipt is necessary.

There's a child among ye taking notes, an' faith he'll print 'em.

Work on the new jail is progressing rapidly. Maul S. trotted a quarter in 303 seconds—a 2.02 gait.

Squirrel shooting will legally begin on September 1st. J. P. Aurand is taking a course in Williamsport Commercial College.

A woman and a new dictionary are ways to have the last word. Lookout for the counterfeit silver dollar bearing the date of 1886.

We noticed Mrs. Horace Alteman of Selingsgrove on our streets on Monday. The G. A. R. Reunion at Adamsburg on Saturday promises to be a big affair, and a large attendance is expected.

Rev. S. P. Orwig has been granted a much needed vacation of four weeks and he and wife left for Watsonstown on Tuesday.

There are now some sixty teachers and students attending the Normal in this place and the school is daily growing in interest.

Mrs. S. S. Schoch has taken the cake thus far in catching fish. Last week she landed a fifteen inch black-sucker and three nice bass.

Notwithstanding all the modern improvements of husbandry, the matrimonial harvest is still gathered with the cradle and thrashed by hand.

An authority says the half of a lemon squeezed into a cup of strong coffee and drunk without milk or sugar, will cure any case of sick headache.

The Haekenburg Camp Sons of Veterans of Middleburgh will hold a festival here on Saturday evening, Aug. 21. Full particulars next week.

The arguments for a new trial in the Doty vs. Banks case were heard at the last term of court and are now in the hands of the court for consideration.

Will Cavany of McAlisterville visited friends here on Monday on his return from New Berlin, where he had gone with the avowed purpose of taking stock in Mr. Beaver's gold mine.

E. E. Buck, a student in the Baltimore College of Physicians and Surgeons is back to Selingsgrove, and will assist his brother in the manufacture of clothing during his vacation.

The Post was favored by a brief call from Congressman Atkinson on Tuesday. The editor is sorry that he was absent at the time and could not invite the distinguished gentleman to the editorial chair.

M. L. Blair, Alderman 5th Ward, Scranton, Pa., stated Nov. 9, '83: He had used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for sprains, burns, cuts, bruises and rheumatism. Cured every time.

FRACKS!—Peaches can be had in a very short time, one mile southeast of New Berlin on my farm, at reasonable prices. Persons in need of fine peaches will please call.

ISAAC KING. Nat. P. Shupe, head salesman of the Baltimore One-price Clothing House, Harrisburg, was here over Sunday visiting his many friends—a guest of his cousin, Mrs. J. C. Buffing ton.

Harry Bolender, a twelve year old son of Treasurer Charles A. Bolender, caught a two pound and ten ounce bass in Middlecreek on Saturday. This is the champion heavy-weight for the season in Middlecreek.

Jacob F. Keller, of Selingsgrove, a member of Co. I, 49th Reg. P. V. I. died at Selingsgrove last week, aged about 38 years. He was buried with military honors on Sunday and Capt. Ryan Post of this place attended in a body.

FOR THE CAMPAIGN.—The Harrisburg Telegraph, the oldest Republican newspaper in Eastern or Central Pennsylvania, will be mailed to any address, until November 10th, 1886, at the following rates: Daily, $1.25; Weekly, 25 cents.

Special inducements to clubs. Samples free. Address, M. W. McCLAREN, Manager, Harrisburg, Pa.

Curtin Bowersox is seen on our streets nearly every day with his traction threshing machine engine, demonstrating to a certainty Mother Shipton's prophecy that "wagons without horses or mules shall go."

People are freezing to death by the thousand in Labrador. If some enterprising citizen would only barrel up some of that cold weather and let it loose around here he could stik his nose up at Vanderbilt, or even an editor.

The candidate who, as he meanders through the country, carries a note book and carefully jots down the name of every man who promises to vote for him, after the election looks sadly at the list and marvels at the large number of liars whose names he has written.

The Williamsport Grit took our snake story last week and published it as a "special dispatch from Middleburgh." If that isn't cold cheek we don't know what to call it. We are bad and no doubt getting worse, but we draw the line at stealing a lie.

The masons are making good headway with the stone work of the new jail and nearly half of the second story of the main building is up, and the cell work is almost as far along. Mr. McCauley hopes to have the stone work finished by the latter part of September.

Here is an item of interest to the ladies: If white clothing, say a dress, put away in a closet or drawer, it will in time become yellow. But if it be placed in a box lined with dark blue paper, or even wrapped in dark blue cloth, it will come out as white as it ever was, no matter how long it lays.

Out of sixty-seven counties of the State eighteen have neither district nor county almshouses. These are Butler, Cameron, Centre, Clarion, Clearfield, Elk, Forest, Fulton, Indiana, Jefferson, Juniata, Monroe, Pike, Potter, Snyder, Sullivan, Union and Wyoming.

Miss Chrissie Steinger of Banner-ville, who has been canvassing our county for Dr. Scott's Electric Corsets and belts has been very successful in making sales here. For the gentlemen she has Dr. Scott's Electric Brushes, and as she is a "winsome lassie" she succeeds in selling quite a number.

Capt. Harding of Fremont, was in town on Tuesday and had with him a bouquet of rare and beautiful flowers. He is, by the way, a bontomist and does not only know the technical botanical names of rare flowers, but makes their cultivation a study. He has now a Hydrangea Grande flora that has more than 300 flowers. We would thank the Captain for a bouquet some time.

We have taken the agency for the Sunbury Book Bindery, John D. Lingle, Proprietor. Any person wanting binding done can call at this office, get prices, leave the work with us and we will forward it at once to the bindery. Persons having old bibles or other books of value which they desire to preserve can get them rebound in the most substantial manner and at lowest prices.

NOBODY'S DARLING. Her face is broad, her head is thick, Her tongue keeps up a clackery click; Minds every one's business but her own Is a nuisance abroad and a pest at home.

Adjourned court was well attended on Tuesday. The Doty vs. Banks case brought a number of legal celebrities from Juniata and Perry counties, while Union was represented by Andy Dill and Charley Wolfe and both had miniature gubernatorial beez buzzing in their hats. We saw Judge Bucher for a moment on the street. We hailed him with "Judge" but he paid no attention. We then called "Bucher" with no better results. Then we yelled "Joe!" and he stopped as suddenly as a blind horse when he runs into a stake and rider fence—exchanged greetings and was off again.

When a fast youth goes astray, friends gather around him in order to restore him to the path of virtue. Gentleness and kindness are lavished upon him to bring him to manly grace. No one would ever suspect that he had sinned. But when a poor, confiding girl has been betrayed, she receives the brand of society and is henceforth driven from the way of virtue. The betrayer is honorably received; but there is no place for her this side of the grave. Society has no loving, helping hand for her, no smile of peace, or voice of forgiveness. There is a deep wrong in this, and fearful are the consequences. And yet, to our shame be it said, in this Christian land we boast of humanity and kindness to whomen.

Some fellows thought that a big yarn we told in last week's Post about Wils. Weller's encounter with the black snakes. Well, it was rather a stunner, but we have some laid away that will knock that story out on the first round. One is about a black snake that we saw engaged in ripping a board off the side of a barn, with which to fan itself. Another one is about a rattle snake that hatched out a brood of chickens, and was scratching around to find grub for them when we last saw it. The last one which we have salted down for the September market is about a snake that swallowed a circular saw which was still running when the reptile was killed. Of course, a patent for these yarns has been applied for and any infringements will be dealt with according to law.

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL.—The State Normal School of the Sixth District, at Bloomsburg, will begin the fall term on Tuesday, August 31st, 1886. The new building containing twenty-six recitation rooms greatly improves the facilities for teaching. The steam heating apparatus has been much improved and connected with the boilers of the Bloomsburg Steam and Electric Light Co. For the seventh consecutive time it is true that "the number of students last year was larger than ever before." Although the Senior class was larger than any before it, all were approved by the State Board of Examiners. Candidates for the Senior class will be examined at the opening of the year in the Junior studies, and that examination in those branches will be final; thus the Senior will be relieved of much anxiety, and undue pressure. Five students of last year have already been admitted to college. Students having a card from the Principal get half fare on the L. V., Reading, and D. L. & W. R. R. Full professional standing as teacher is given by the diploma. For catalogue address

REV. D. J. WALLER, JR., Principal.

BANNERVILLE.—Any person who is a friend of flowers should come and see Mrs. E. A. Harbster's flower yard. Mrs. H. has one hundred and twenty-five different kinds of which two-thirds are in full bloom.

Mrs. Joseph Peter has a French geranium which has one hundred large flowers. There will be no camping held in Baker's grove as was formerly announced.

Reuben J. Smith has a corn stalk that measures 12 feet 4 inches. Who can beat it.

Fire broke out in George Swanger's wash-house and burned part of the house. Mrs. Nettie Sive while engaged in baking in the oven on Friday, had her clothing catch fire and she was very seriously burned.

The Adamsburg Cornet band held a cake-walk at Bannerville on Saturday evening. Hogs are still dying in this vicinity of the unknown disease. E. Shellenberger of this place has handled over 750 quarts of huckleberries this season.

WEST BRAVER.—Oats harvest is now about past. William Erick's latest improvement is a corn-harrow. Jacob Miller of McClure has built a large stable.

O. B. Steely of Lower Marston, Montgomery county, is at present visiting his parents at McClure. J. J. Mattern can beat anything in the vegetable line thus far heard from. He has cucumbers that average 14 inches in length and lettuce that measures 58 inches around the stalk. Who can beat it.

We will have no camping in this section. There will be a grand picnic in Shawver's grove and all are invited, and especially Harter with his shotgun. There are some men in West Beaver who should ring themselves and stop rooting in other people's business.

TROCKVILLE.—The news of our little city are scarce in the extreme, but we shall try and gather a handful of residue, which might be of little importance to the many readers of your paper.

George Smith who had been confined to the house with rheumatism since spring, is again able to be about and enjoy the scenery of the outside world.

A good many of our citizens attended the picnic at Beavertown last Saturday, but it evidently seems that some of the young men were not satisfied with one sociable meeting in a day, and took in the festival at Herman's. This shows that the young folks still appreciate such assemblies.

The farmers are busy ploughing, but it seems that they are a little impeded by the drouth. There is a man within the limits of this township who treats his wife worse than a slave—kicks her occasionally, has her for a bootblack and the like. Such a specimen should be sent to the North Pole on a fishing expedition, as it might probably fledge down his infamy.

Farmers should be aware that the Canada thistle should be entirely annihilated before the seed is ripe, and strewn over a greater territory, by the birds and winds.

The corn crop is reported to be an average yield, all that it needs is a good shower. Our marksman are hard on hawks. We suppose they would sooner have the bounty than the hawks.

James Mattern and Fred Gundrum of Adamsburg were in town on Sunday. ADAMSBURG.—While Dr. Wagner was returning from a visit to his patients his horse broke through a bridge, narrowly escaping severe injury. Our supervisors should see to it that our bridges are kept in good repair, before the township will be called upon to pay damages resulting from neglect of duty.

A cow belonging to James Dreese was choked to death by apple lodging in her throat. Mr. Dreese paid $70 for the animal last fall. The lecture delivered by Dr. A. M. Smith before the Adamsburg Normal was well received by all who heard it. Nettie Specht had her hand badly bruised by a window falling on it. We have a new board-walk to the depot.

John Bolender was on Shade mountain five times and brought down 208 quarts of huckleberries. Who can beat it? The G. A. R. have made arrangements for late trains on Saturday evening, so that all who desire to remain for the entertainments can do so. Trains will leave east and west at or about 10 o'clock. From all appearances this will be the gala day of the season. John Walter fell from a pear tree and broke his arm. Mrs. Joe Shannon has a corn stalk of the sweet variety that measures 19 feet and 8 inches, and Joe thinks its still "agrowing."

The question now is, "Who will teach our winter schools?" George thinks Blue-coat must have followed him when he was on his wedding trip.
