York county may beat Centre in raising radishes, but it will not succeed in giving a black cast to the Beaver fortunes.

For rheumatism, lumbago, neuralgia, cramp, and colic there is no remedy superior to the genuine Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil.

The prohibitionists are painting the country red that noses may not be so painted in the future. 'Twill be a labor of fanaticism lost.

The cares and expenses of matrimonial life hang so heavily on the president that he could only afford to give $20 to the Charleston sufferers.

John F. Stetler has Theos. Swineford's new house on the French Flats ready for the plasterers and Mr. Musser's at the same place under roof.

Henry Reigle of this place raised a red-beet weighing 11 pounds and 14 ounces. For a big beet this best beats all the beets we ever heard of.

Chas. Walter is engaged this week in repairing and repainting the blackboards in the Franklin School district. Cleary will make good jobs of them.

It is reported that there is a young lady in Middleburgh whose heart is so warm that she can wear the lightest clothing on the coldest winter day without being uncomfortable.

Mrs. L. Smith, of Selinsgrove, appears elsewhere in this issue in an advertisement, inviting the ladies in this county to an inspection of her stock of Millinery and Fancy goods.

The Republican Standing Committee will meet at Middleburgh, Saturday, Oct. 23d, at 1 p. m. Every member is requested to be present.

E. W. TOOL, Chair'n. J. W. Swartz, Sec.

We notice in the papers that Judge Bucher took the premium at the Union county fair this year on "bees, chicks and bantams." What we would like to know now is whose hen roost he visited.

I have just received from New York city a fine assortment of Ladies Hats and Milliner goods. Hats as low as 80c. Also veivets and other trimmings for dresses, wraps, &c.

E. C. AUBAND. We presume that scarcely in the recollection of the "oldest inhabitant" the streams of water in this county have been so low as at the present time.

There has been no rain to swell the streams since early in June.

The Clymer Family exhibition in Seebold's Hall on Thursday evening of last week was not well attended.

owing to the inclement weather. The entertainment, however, was very good and the audience went home regretting only that the weather prevented their friends from attending and enjoying a rich treat.

Should the family ever come this way again they will have some idea of what a good time they had.
