Rev. Henry Ward Beecher is supposed to have left about $110,000 mostly in personal property. He received a salary of $15,000 a year, about $14,000 from royalties on his books, besides $875 a week for his syndicate newspaper letter.

"Fifty per cent. of all who take out life insurance policies," said an old insurance man the other day, "allow their policies to lapse, and that's where most of the profit comes in. The statistics show about that average of lapse. Not one in ten men who draw money on a policy before death or through their estates has paid in as much as he draws out."

The people who maintain that this is the least wicked country in the world will be astonished to learn that of the entire population of the United States, one in every 837 is in prison. It is also shown that in England and Wales only one in 18,000 is in prison, while the additional fact is developing itself that ratio here is increasing with frightful rapidity and is actually decreasing in England. Yet it is probably true that Sam Jones can make dollars here where he could only make cents in England.

It is expected that a call for $10,000,000 three per cent. bonds will be made in a few days to mature May 1. The amount of these bonds now subject to call is $59,889,850. There are $2,269,900 of past-due threes outstanding. There are also outstanding $9,029,250 in bonds of the 147th call which will mature April 1, We are told that if the k[illegible] open calls to date amount to $83,141,900. According to present indications the entire three per cent. loan will be extinguished during the present fiscal year ending June 30th next.

Twenty seven years ago Henry Ward Beecher brought a slave girl to the pulpit platform of the Plymouth Church and appealed to the congregation to buy her freedom. It was at once done. She was a beautiful girl of 22, and as white as any lady in the church. She now lives near Peekskill and makes her living by raising fowls, making butter, etc., on a little place the ladies of Plymouth Church bought her. Of all the mourners at the funeral of the celebrated divine none were more affected than the once poor girl snatched from slavery by the big-hearted Beecher. Men's deeds live after them.

They are beginning to wonder in England if the Queen is not mad. Her grandfather was the same way. For years he was mad before the people dared whisper the word. The Loyalists called it "peculiarities." But one day His Majesty, making a speech from the throne, said: "My Lords and gentlemen, and woodcocks cocking up your tails"—then indeed the official world, which could not see the woodcocks and could not for a moment admit that woodcocks were a third estate in the realm, said that His Majesty was mad. If Victoria inherits the malady of her grandfather it is not strange. It would be strange if she did not. For royalty a great range of queer conduct is put down to caprice, which in plain people would from the start be called insanity.

In a recent decision in the case of an application for license, Judge Rockafeller, of Northumberland county, interprets the discretion of the court in granting licenses to mean the enforcement of the judgment of a majority of the people in the community. He says if a majority of the people in any locality object to the granting of licenses none can be granted, and if a majority are in favor of licenses the court must grant them to all who apply. This, however, is an interpretation of the law which if Judge Rockafeller accepts, he does not regard as practicable, since he neither enforces local option within the jurisdiction of his court nor grants licenses to all who apply for them, but strikes a medium between the two extremes, limits the number of licenses granted and punishes all violations of the law brought to his notice.

RESOLUTIONS.

We the representatives of the Republican party of Snyder county, this 28th day of March, A. D. 1887, in convention assembled do resolve:

That we heartily endorse the administration of Governor Beaver, and the official conduct of our member of the Legislature, Hon. A. S. Helfrich.

That the election of Hon M S Quay to the United State Senate has our full approval.

That we this day announce as the popular will, after a fair, free and untrammeled election, the nomination of Hon. S. A. Wetzel, for Associate Judge; Daniel Bolender, for Sheriff; C. C. Steebold, for Treasurer; Samuel B. Walter and Daniel Beaver, for County Commissioners; John P. Kearns and J. Kohler Peck, for County Auditors, and George B. Weiser, M D. for Coroner, as the result of the late Primary election, thus presenting an unusually strong ticket—that we respectfully ask your hearty support of all the candidates this day presented for your suffrages.

Committee

The High License Bill

If the high license bill now before the Legislature becomes a law in the form in which it has been reported from committee, the entrance of any hotel, tavern or saloon keeper into his barroom with a light, or keeping a light burning there for any purpose whatever, between midnight and 5 o'clock in the morning, or the mere opening or failure to close the door of his barroom between those hours, will be a misdemeanor punishable with a fine as high as $500, and a maximum imprisonment of one year. The sale or delivery of liquor between these hours need not be proved, the fact of the light being seen or the door being found unlocked being prima facie evidence of violation of law.

No screen, blind, shutter, partition, painted, ground or stained glass window, or any other obstruction which may interfere with a view of the interior of any room where liquor is sold [illegible] such rooms is permitted under the provisions of the bill, such obstructions and exposure making the license void.

No liquor can be sold in any room other than on the first floor of any building. Every applicant for license must confess judgment to the State in the penal sum of $2 000, with two approved sureties on the bond, for the faithful observance of the laws relating to his business, and to pay all damages which may be recovered in any action against him under any indictment for violation of the law, the bond to be filed in the office of the clerk of the court for public inspection.

No ward, borough or township shall have more than one license to each 200 assessed voters. Selling liquor to a minor or an intoxicated person is made a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of from $50 to $500, and imprisonment for not less than 20 days nor more than 90. The admission of a minor into a barroom or other place where liquor is sold, unless accompanied by parent or guardian, is made a misdemeanor, punishable by fine not exceeding $500 and imprisonment not to exceed one year.

No license can be granted for the sale of liquor in any place located within 400 feet of a public school house or place of religious meeting. Any person convicted for selling liquor without a license will be subject to a fine of not less than twice the amount of the license fee, but not more than $5,000, and to imprisonment for not more than two years. Constables and police officers are required to keep special watch over liquor sellers, and if violations of the laws are not promptly reported by them to the courts the penalty will be removal from office and heavy fine and imprisonment. Constables and police officers are to receive $10 for each conviction for violations of the law reported by them.

FREE PASSES.

President Roberts, of the Pennsylvania railroad, has made public the following official action taken by the board of directors of the company, at a meeting held on the 9th instant, relative to the use of passes:

This company having been advised by the general solicitor that the act of congress known as the inter state commerce law is intended to prohibit the use of inter state passes, except by officers and employees of the railway companies, the President is, therefore, directed to issue to the proper officers of the lines embraced in the Pennsylvania railroad system the necessary instruction to carry this prohibition into effect on the 1st of April next. He will also instruct the proper officers of railway, bridge and ferry companies embraced in the Pennsylvania railroad system that on and after April 1, 1887, they shall not issue any passes for the free transportation of persons or special cars from one state into another, or into the District of Columbia, except for officers or employees of railway companies.

While it is true that many who at one time indulged in ardent spirits have abstained later in life, it is not believed that there is any real cure for the thirst created by alcoholism. But a person who claims to have cured himself gives a remedy there would be no harm in trying. We reproduce it in the rescued person's own words: I was one of these unfortunates given to strong drink. When I left it off I felt a horrid want of something I must have or go distracted. I could neither eat work nor sleep. Explaining my affliction to a man of much education and experience, he advised me to make a decoction of ground quassia, a half ounce steeped in a pint of vinegar, and to put a small teaspoonful of it in a little water, and to drink it down every time the liquor thirst came on me violently. I found it satisfied the craving and it also gave a feeling of stimulus and strength. I continued this cure and persevered till the thirst was conquered. For two years I have not tasted liquor and I have no desire for it. Lately to try my strength I have handled and smelt whiskey, but I have no temptation to take it. I give this for consideration of the unfortunate, several of whom I know have recovered by means which I no longer require."

"SAMANTHA AT SARATOGA."

Miss Marietta Holly, the distinguished humorous author known as "Josiah Allen's Wife," has just finished her new book "Samantha at Saratoga," in the inimitable mirth-provoking style of "Samantha at the Centennial," "Betsey Bobbitt," etc., and has sold the MSS for a good round sum to Messrs. Hubbard Bros., of Philadelphia, who are employing the best humorous artist in the country to illustrate it, and propose bringing it out this Spring at a popular price by subscription. Miss Holly spent all last season amid the whirl of fashion at Saratoga, and takes off its follies, flirtations, pug dogs, low neck dressing, etc., in a style that is overflowing with richest humor, and must create a great sensation.
