A QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE.

In the Arkansaw Legislature. Morning of the second day. Member from Persimmon county—Mr. Speaker: I arise, sir, to a question of privilege, I reckon. I don't know much about the inside workin's of a Legislature, and if I am makin' a mistake in this step I hope you will excuse me. I left home in a hurry and didn't have time to change my clothes, and in fact I didn't have no clothes to change. It makes a proud man feel sorter bad to be in a town without bein' sorter dressed up, and I move you, sir, that I be allowed the six dollars for yesterday's service that I my sort er rig myself up. Down the street a piece I saw a suit of clothes marked five dollars and a half. If I git my six dollars I can pay for the suit of clothes, and, when I ain't got nothin particular to do, git on a pleasant jamboree with the extra fifty cents. The people of this here town have accused the country members of this body of bein' close, and the reason I want to git on the jamboree is to show them there ain't nothin' close about me. Jest before leavin' home my wife said to me—an' them that know her well 'low that Sue is a monstrous sensible woman of she ain't none too good-lookin'—'Jim, when you git down thar don't be small. Slosh round an' show the folks down there that the people of this here community ain't all slouches. Pay fur your share of everything, even if it costs twenty-five cents. Don't let your colleague, Buckshot Fagleson, fly higher than you do. I shall carry out that advice, sir, and don't you fail to ketch an occasional glimpse of that fact.'

A Fall and Rise

A farmer who had been doing business with some one on the second floor of a building near the market yesterday, made a slip at the top of the stairs and came down in spread eagle fashion and was for the moment rendered unconscious. He was taken into the office of a livery stable for temporary examination and treatment, and as they opened his coat and vest and chafed his hands he opened his eyes and said:

"Boys, I believe I'm done for."

"Oh, no—you'll soon be all right," they replied.

"Boys," he continued as he tried to raise up, one of you go over on the market stand to my old woman."

Who is she?"

"Her name is Potter. There's a white hoss to the team. You'll know the wagon by the barrel of cider in the back end. There's also a crock of butter—"

"We are to find her and tell her you are hurt, and—"

"One of the horses is blind, and the old woman has got a red feather in her hat."

"Yes, we know. We are to tell her that you are hurt, and—"

"And one of the fore wheels in the wagin has got two new spokes in it," continued the man.

"All right, and we are to bring your wife."

"No, sir! you jist tell her that I have broken both legs and forty other bones in my body, but not to sell one durned ounce of that butter less'n 20 cents a pound. Butter has pis, and the old woman eats these shawin' gum and don't know it."—Detroit Free Press.

A Discreet Daughter of the Family

One of Detroit's best known Evangelical ministers has a half interest in a four-year-old daughter. The other day she went over the traces of discipline and her mother sent her into the closet with the injunction to tell God all about what a naughty little girl she had been.

At the expiration of her penance hour she came forth very quietly, as if her discipline had had a wholesome effect.

"Well, little daughter," said the mother, "did you tell God all about it?"

"No, mamma," was the reply, "I des tole him I'd do it, 'cause I fought my papa wouldn't like to let it det out of the family."

Nervousness

Anxious mother—"What is the matter with my daughter, doctor? She is not light-hearted and happy, as she used to be, but has grown melancholy and has a pained, anxious look."

Doctor—"How old is she?"

"Well, she—she don't look it, you know—she is 2."

"Ah! there is nothing the matter except nervousness."

"Why, doctor, she is not of a nervous temperament at all. Quite the contrary. What makes her nervous."

"The future."

Do Not Slander

It is too generally the custom to speak evil of others. If we could believe the expressions of opinion which we hear from some people everyone in the world except themselves, is a villian. We never hear them speaking good of others; always evil. No matter what name is mentioned they have some disgraceful story to unfold in connection with it. Do not give circulation to these stories. Even if they are not true they are believed by some people and aid in blackening character.

IT IS WONDERFUL

how easily rheumatism begins, and how insidiously it grows in the system, until one is startled to find himself its victim in either the acute or chronic form. He then learns the fearful tenacity of its grip and the utter powerlessness of the ordinary remedies to give relief.

Probably in no country have physicians given more study, and none has more success in their efforts to provide a specific, and until Athlophoros was discovered there was no medicine which would surely relieve rheumatism, neuralgia in all its forms, sick headache. Thousands of testimonials from the following prove beyond question that Athlophoros is the only reliable remedy, and that it will do all that is claimed for it.

Catskill, Green Co., N. Y.
August 19, 1886.

I can recommend the Athlophoros to anybody that is in want of it. It has cured my mother who has had neuralgia all her life and also rheumatism. She says she is all free from pain now, and will not be without a bottle for twice the price. I gave a bottle to my brother who had neuralgia in the bowels and it fixed him in a few days. FRANK EDWARDS.

Rouses Pt., Clifton Co., N. Y.
August 18th, 1886.

Two years ago this Summer I was sorely afflicted with rheumatism in my right knee and left shoulder, and was induced by a friend to try Athlophoros. I used five bottles, got well, and have been comparatively free from rheumatism since. I have great faith in it, and have recommended it to my friends. So far as I know all who have tried it speak its praise.

E. HEATON.

Every druggist should keep Athlophoros and Athlophoros Pills, but where they can not be bought of the druggist the Athlophoros Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will send either (carriage paid, on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlophoros and 25c. for Pills.

For liver and kidney disease, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervous debility, diseases of women, constipation, headache, impure blood, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is unequaled.

Good Results in Every Case.

P. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes: that he he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, did so and was entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all Coughs and Colds with best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this Wonderful Discovery. Trial bottles free at G. M. Shindel's Drug Store.

"Papa," said little Johnny Briefless, "what do you wear when you go to the Court House—your law suit?" "Oh, no, my son," replied the good barrister, kindly, "that is the suit a man puts on when he goes naked; only the clients wear them."

Saved His Life.

Mr. D. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., says he was, for many years, badly afflicted with Phthisic, also Diabetes; the pains were almost unendurable and would sometimes almost throw him into convulsions. He tried Electric Bitters and got relief from first bottle and after taking six bottles was entirely cured and had gained in flesh eighteen pounds. Says he positively believes he would have died, had it not been for the relief afforded by Electric Bitters. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by G. M. Shindel.
