How Savages Were Soothed

'They tell me a funny story about Geronimo,' said a man from Arizona. 'While the Apaches were raiding the ranches in the foot-hills of New Mexico they captured a white man who had false teeth, a glass eye and a cork leg. The unfortunate man was dragged into the hills where the Indians were encamped and strapped to a tree to die. Just before dusk Geronimo happened to pass the prisoner, who had succeeded in releasing one of his arms from the leather strap which bound him to the tree.

'Ugh!' grunted the big Apache chief, punching the white man with the muzzle of his Winchester. The prisoner thrust his fingers into his mouth, removed his teeth and shook them in the face of the Apache. This done he replaced the plates as quickly as he had removed them, and, plucking out his glass eye, began polishing it on his knee. Geronimo had seen a good many things in his life, but the sight of a man removing his eyes and teeth at will was enough to make the savage's hair stand on end.

'Without waiting to strip the prisoner of his clothes, as was their custom, the Apaches released the nervy fellow, and, putting him astride a horse, fairly begged him to leave the camp. The settler needed no second invitation. Seizing the animal by the mane he rode a few yards out into the opening, when, to the horror of the savages who had been watching his flight, he pulled off his cork leg and waved it above his head. It is said on good authority that this is the only instance on record where the superstition of an Apache got the better of his knife.'

More Money Than He Expected.

A few days since a well-known negro man, who was the fortunate possessor of a fine lot on one of the leading residence streets of our city, sold his property for $10,000 cash. He was given a check for that amount, which was carried in due time to one of the banks.

The paying teller asked the negro how much of the money he wanted in cash.

"I want all that 'ar paper calls fur," replied the negro.

'What! You don't want $10,000 in cash?"

"Jesso, sah."

"All right," answered the man who shuffles the bank bills, and in five minutes he began piling the money on the counter. As he laid the $500 packages on the counter the negro's eyes began to grow larger and larger, and finally when twenty of the packages were placed before him his eyes looked as large as new moons. The negro looked intently at the pile of money for a moment, and then, with a broad grin on his face said:

"I'se jist paralyzed, boss; gimme $1.50 and you kin keep de rest of that till I call agin."

The Habit of Being Sick

In a pamphlet recently published we find the following statements, which no fair-minded person will question: "Many chronic invalids are simply the victims of a chronic mode of thought; they have formed the habit of being sick, and they could if they would, or rather if they knew how, form the habit of being well. So many believe that they cannot help being weak, nervous, ailing, and miserable, that they live year after year bound with the fetters which they have forged for themselves. Many a woman frets herself sick, and many a man has lost his life from an overtaxed mind, which has brought corresponding disease to the body.

"How often does it happen that a physician who has practiced a specialty for a number of years becomes at last a victim to the very disease which he had labored so long to overcome in others. It has been pictured before his mental vision which at last finds outward expression upon his body.

He Missed His Guess.

A traveler in Kansas while crossing a praire the other day came upon a party of men who seemed to be preparing the land for agricultural purposes.

"My friend," said the traveler, "you are laying off your corn rows quite a distance apart."

"Corn rows!" the man gasped.

"Yes, those rows over there."

"My stars, stranger!" exclaimed the Kansas man, "is it possible you ain't hearn of it?"

"Heard of what?"

"Of the boom. Man alive, them ain't corn rows over thar; they air streets, an' this here is a city. You air now on the corner of Commercial and Emporium streets, an' not in the check of a corn row, as you must suppose."

Etiquette

In Sweden if you address the poorest person in street you must lift your hat. A gentleman passing a lady on the stairs of a hotel must do the same. To enter a shop or bank with one's hat on is a terrible breech of good manners. When a train leaves a platform or steamboat pier, all the lookers-on lift their hats to the departing passengers and bow to them, a compliment returned by the travelers.

A female teacher threatened to keep an unruly boy fifteen minutes after school. 'I wish you would make it half an hour said the appreciative boy, for you're the prettiest girl in town.'

Persons found guilty of murder in Utah are given their choice between being shot and hanged.

FROM LIFE TO DEATH

is but a moment if rheumatism or neuralgia strikes the heart. These diseases are the most painful and the most dangerous of any to which human kind is liable. They fly from one part to another without a moment's warning, and liniments and other outward applications are in themselves dangerous because they are liable to drive the disease to some vital organ and cause instant death. Rheumatism and neuralgia are diseases of the blood, and can only be reached by a remedy which will drive from the blood the dangerous acids. Such a remedy is Athlophoros. It has been thoroughly tested and is a safe, sure cure.

Spruce Creek, Pa., Oct. 5, 1885.

In answer to your request to know what your Athlophoros has done for me, I will say it has done wonderful work. I have suffered from rheumatism for eighteen years more or less, and sometimes not able to put my clothes on or eat alone. I took all kinds, doctored with a good many doctors, but nothing did me any good. I was getting worse instead of better. I read your advertisement in the "Democrat" and "Sentinel" papers of Louistown. I have taken in all four bottles. I feel no pain. I was drawn crooked, but now I am straight once more. Thank you for the good it done me. Athlophoros is the medicine. PHILIP HARPSTER.

Your medicine has cured me of neuralgia. I suffered with it for three days, and it gave me instant relief.

WM. F. KISER.

Palmyra, N. Y., August 15th, 1886.

I used one bottle of Athlophoros for neuralgia after being laid up eight weeks. The result was very satisfactory.

R. S. ENDY.

Every druggist should keep Athlophoros and Athlophoros Pills, but where they can't be bought of the druggist the Athlophoros Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will send either (carriage paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlophoros and 50c. for Pills.

For liver and kidney diseases, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervous debility, diseases of women, constipation, headache, impure blood, etc., Athlophoros Pills are unequaled.

What Can Be Done.

By trying again and keeping up courage many things seemingly impossible may be attained. Hundreds of hopeless cases of Kidney and Liver Complaint have been cured by Electric Bitters, after everything else had been tried in vain. So, don't think there is no cure for you, but try Electric Bitters. There is no medicine so safe, so pure, and so perfect a Blood Purifier. Electric Bitters will cure Dyspepsia, Diabetes and all Diseases of the Kidneys. Invaluable in affections of Stomach and Liver, and overcomes all Urinary Difficulties.

Excitement in Texas.

Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Tex, by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head; everybody said he was dying of Consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills; by the time he had taken two boxes of Pills and two bottles of the Discovery, he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds.

Trial Bottles of this Great Discovery for Consumption free at G. M. Shindel's Drug store.
