

SEVEN COUNTY COURTS.—The Courts of Snyder County are held on the fourth Monday of January, May and September, and second day of December.

Our friends throughout the county will be glad to see the news in their respective villages and to know how the county is getting on. Our columns will always be open to those who wish to speak through them on general or local questions of public interest, but we will not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions they may express.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.—Look at the figures on the label of your paper. Those figures tell you THE DAYS TO WHICH YOUR SUBSCRIPTION IS PAID. Within 3 weeks after money is sent, see if date is changed. No other receipt is necessary.

Republican Standing Committee

- Adams—J. A. Fetterolf, N. M. Middleburgh. Hoover—Ben. Smith, J. M. Fenn. Lester—W. W. B. Bratton, A. A. Konitz. ...

There's a little among you taking notes, but 'twould be proud 'em.

The last month was the hottest July there has been for eighty years.

Well the cold wave has come and welcome it is to all.

Next Saturday is Snyder county's Harvest Home and everybody is going.

The time for holding the Union Co. Fair has been fixed on Sept. 21, 22, 23 and 24.

Jacob Gilbert, Esq., has serious trouble with his liver which confines him to his room.

The Campmeeting at Swengel, which commences this week will continue over Sunday.

Jacob B. Herman last week shot a white Crane that stood four feet and four inches high and spread four feet ten inches.

George Arnold, day operator at Selingsgrove is spending a short vacation with his parents in Middleburgh.

The man who stops his newspaper and then borrows it from his neighbor has enough check for two rows of teeth.

Rev. J. M. Remensnyder has resigned the pastorate of the Lutheran Church at Lewistown and accepted a call from Milton.

There will be a festival at Adamsburg on Saturday evening, Aug. 29th, for the benefit of the Lutheran choir. Come and spend a pleasant evening.

The kleptomaniac who stole a good lock for Henry Herman from the lime kilns east of town is requested to call that he may also take the key.

Joseph Walter and Curtin Bowersox with their two threshers are making things hum in the neighboring country.

C. L. Smith of the Central Hotel this week "set up" a 25 cent cigar to the Post man, and to say that we accepted and enjoyed it would be drawing it slow and mild.

Cornelius Photograph Gallery, located on the lot adjoining the Band Room on the 17th of August. Fine Cabinet at $3.00 per dozen. Call and see samples.

William Snyder, late of Oecola Mills, Pa., has purchased Bowen's Candy store and has supplied it with an entire new stock of goods. He has moved with his family into the house vacated by Mr. Bowen.

As this is the season for Sunday School pic-nics and festivals, let us suggest for the benefit of suffering humanity that there be fewer and shorter speeches, less faultfinding, more freedom and more fun.

We wish it were convenient for the ministers of this county to send in their marriages for publication before the couple have celebrated their golden wedding, and their deaths before the grave of the deceased is overgrown with grass.

SHAVED SHINGLES.—I have for sale 6000 shaved, lap shingles, 24 inches long. For particulars call at my residence at Crossgrove Hall, or address me at Lowell, Pa.

W. G. WAGNER, August 11, 1887. 4w.

D. A. Kern is digging the cellar for his new house and will finish it this fall. We have not seen the draft but have the assurance that it will be a beauty. Aaron has not only the 'tin' but the good taste to put up a first class residence.

Do not forget that Cornelius' Photograph Gallery will be in Middleburgh on the 17th of August. A fine opportunity for good work. Cabinets at $3 per dozen. Gallery located on lot adjoining Band Room.

J. Wes. Cornelius of Lewisburg will place a branch of his Photograph Gallery in Middleburgh on the 17th of August for 10 days or two weeks. A fine opportunity for photographs. Gallery located on lot adjoining Band Room. See small bills.

M. Reese Dill, brother of U. S. Marshall Dill, died in Philadelphia on the 3rd inst., while under the influence of ether, during a surgical operation under Drs. Agnew and Hayes, for the removal of hemorrhoids. He was brought to Lewisburg and buried on Saturday last.

Squirrels will not be ripe till September 1st. They are reported scarce.

FOR SALE FOR $70.—A new piano-box, Electic spring, top buggy. First class make with all latest improvements. Call on or address T. H. HARTER, Middleburgh, Pa.

On Tuesday the committee cleaned and prepared Bower's Grove for the Harvest Home Pic Nic, and everything is in readiness now to accommodate the crowd. No lucksters but those licensed by the Committee to meet expenses will be allowed on the ground.

H. H. Custer and James Enterline have purchased the refrigerator and good will of Bowen's meat market and have built a slaughter house near the creek in Franklin and will at once embark in the butcher business. Their wagon made the first trip last week loaded with and excellent quality of beef.

Sylvester Bowen and wife left on Tuesday evening for the West in quest of their fortune. They purpose first stopping at Kalamazoo, Mich., where they have friends living and from there will probably go to Kansas to locate. We are sorry to lose them as citizens. Wes. has been an obliging and accommodating fellow—one who makes friends wherever he goes. We wish them success.

Prof. Charles W. Dawson, Free Lecturer Principal of Middleburgh Academy, will deliver a lecture in the Court House to-day (Thursday) evening, before the members of the Middleburgh Educational Association and the Students of the Academy. Addresses will also be made by County Superintendent Herman and others. The Public are respectfully invited to attend.

Doors open at 7 o'clock. Lecture to begin at 8 o'clock.

An Iowa editor recently got himself trouble by mixing up the report of a cattle sale and concert in the following manner: "The concert given last night by sixteen of Storm Lake's most beautiful young ladies was highly appreciated. They were elegantly dressed and sang in the most charming manner, winning the plaudits of the entire audience who pronounced them the finest short horns in this country. A few of them are a rich brown and white. Several of the heifers were fine bodied, tight-limbed animals and promise to make good property."

NOTICE.—The undersigned has opened his gallery at McClure, Pa., where he intends to remain for some time, and give all who wish a chance of getting good pictures rain or shine at reasonable rates, from 16 small gems for 25 cents up to $1.40 for an 8x10 picture ready framed for the parlor. Best pictures taken in cloudy days. 2 pictures, (album size) for 25 cents. Cabinets for 40 cents. Please do not wait for Saturday, but come earlier in the week, and avoid the rush. Gallery near Transue Store. S. F. DRINKER, Artist. McClure, July 29th 1887, tr.

A report has reached this office that parties are dynamiting the fish in Middle and Penns Creek. We have heard of only one thing that is meaner and that is the reported poisoning of trout in Swift run. Why people should be so heartless as to indulge in a wholesale destruction of fish and their spawn for a few pound of meat is a matter which we cannot understand. There certainly is no sport in it and if the parties are found out and reported to the State Fish Commissioners, as they should be, they will have an opportunity to view the green fields and laughing waters of Middlecreek Valley through the iron bars of the Snyder County Jail.

On Monday last, Hiram P. App affected a loan of $7,600 from John R. Kaffman of Northumberland county, and liquidated his indebtedness contracted by bailing Albert Arbogast. Only $1,500 of the above sum was the personal debt of Mr. App. How and why as good a business man as Mr. App should involve himself by bailing and endorsing Arbogast, who was a reckless agent without real or personal estate—and at one time had almost wrecked his father—is, to us, an enigma. Arbogast has skipped for parts unknown, and it remains for Mr. App to pay, grin and bear with his hard luck. It is a severe lesson and our people in a measure sympathize with him. However, no one is too old to learn. Mr. App is abundantly able to meet such a loss—but in that there isn't much consolation, either.

From the Lewistown Dem. & Sent.: Middleburgh is a handsome little country town when in repose, and so we found it on Monday on a visit to that place. But for all its quietness we found a number of clever and agreeable citizens, and we secured an excellent dinner (good waffles included, of course) at Charley Smith's Central Hotel. The only really industrious man we saw was T. J. Smith, Esq., who was serving a writ of ejectment on the weeds in his potato patch. Tom Harter of the Post, was nursing his one pedal extremity, having contracted poison while out on the hunt for big shake and fish stories. With his characteristic courtesy he granted us the use of his best arm chair to rest in and his vacant shoe for a spittoon. We neglected to pay a visit to the pride of the place, the new jail, but its massive and handsome exterior indicated that it is a model structure of its kind. We were cheered, however, by meeting a genuine Democratic post-master, Dr. Barber, who is one of the most genial and live men of the place. They had a narrow escape from a flood down there on Saturday night. Charley Smith went swimming and the creek nearly overflowed his banks.

OLD PAPERS.—Another copy of the Union Telegraph mentioned in last week's Post is before us. It is dated November 5, 1828, and contains the result of the Presidential election, and to show how Andrew Jackson stood in this neck o' woods, we publish the reports of the townships then forming what is now Snyder County:

Table with columns: Twps., Gen. Jackson, John Adams, Beaver, Centre, Penns, Chapman, Perry, Washington, Centre Ville. Totals: 714, 71.

Old Hickory's majority, 643. It also reports Hon. Nor. Middleburgh elected Assemblyman.

In the markets we find the Reading and Pottsville prices of wheat to be $1.15 per bushel, butter 12, eggs not quoted, and whiskey 20 cents per gallon. Among the Miscellaneous items we find the following of note:

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Four men named Hall, Welden, Smith and Richardson, were recently sentenced in New York to the state prison at Sing, during life, for robbing Albert Remington of his pocket-book. Melcheta Stout, of Alabama, was lately delivered of FIVE fine boys at birth, they ought to be named, Remarkable, Admirable, Wonderful, Amazing and Strange! An Arkansas lady brought forth a child that weighed 21 lbs.

An old woman was recently tried for bewitching the market people at Baltimore, by sprinkling salt on the pavement. The magistrate let her go saying he knew of no law to prevent such practices. Some of the witnesses complained bitterly at the result.

Moses Little, of West Newbury, exhibited the product of one potato, planted in May last, measuring four bushels.

Judging from the last item, liars were then in existence. The balance of the paper is filled with advertisements, poetry and Anti-Mason bosh.

MIDDLECREEK.—Farmers through here are beginning to thresh; they report grain not well filled.

Rev. Stover moved to McClure, last week into Robert Krebs' new house.

H. H. Herster moved into the house vacated by Rev. Stover. Welcome Henry.

C. B. Steely of Philadelphia is visiting his parents and friends in this vicinity.

Miss Anna M. Knepp was at home visiting her parents last week.

I. E. Ulich has left for Hazelton, where he has secured a clerkship at $45 a month.

Last week D. R. Stradford was in our vicinity putting up several tombstones and a monument.

I. N. Jones was the guest of Jesse Knepp on Saturday and Sunday.

Wm. H. Hartley and wife were the guests of Edward Mitchell on Sunday. Quite a number of our people attended the funeral of Mrs. Jacob Bigaman at Troxville on Sunday.

CENTREVILLE.—Farmers have begun to plow for seeding. The ground is in splendid order, but the hot weather is hard on horses.

Jonathan Musser of Musers Valley, threshed a two horse load of oats last week which netted 64 bushels.

Mrs. Dr. Sampsel rusticated in Troxville several days last week.

Most of our young men are tied to the apron strings of a girl, are making some calculation to attend campmeeting at Swengel next Sunday. Centreville will in all probability be somewhat deserted on that day.

Jesse Haekensberry paid Sunbury a business visit on Saturday.

E. B. Hartman and A. C. Spangler, were in Reading last week.

Prof. C. E. Spangler accompanied the Middleburgh Band to Port Trevorton on Saturday.

H. R. Grubb and his better half visited in New Berlin, Saturday. Since harvest is over the reaper agents have turned their attention to selling phosphate for fall crops.

Recently in town: John Riehl, Weidler Roland, Lewisburg; John Stetler, Franklin Bobb, Middleburgh; S. W. Hartman, Selingsgrove; Mr. Kulp, Shanokin; Shem Knouse and wife, Swengel; Dr. Rothrock and wife, New Berlin; Miss Gertie Dreese, Troxville; Geo. Fehrer, Selingsgrove.

IN BRIEF, AND TO THE POINT.—Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember.—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist or a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

WANTED.—10,000 pounds of wool at Dreffuss Bros., Selingsgrove, Pa.

Unlaundried shirts at Dreffuss Bros. for 35 cents. Good working pants at 75 cents.

Positively the only reliable, one-price Clothing House in Snyder county will be found at Dreffuss Bros.

We can furnish you with a better fitting suit for less money than any tailor can afford to make.

Ode on the Centreville Band.

BY ITS LEADER. Hurrah for the Centreville Band! Long may those musicians stand; A happy and festive crowd, And blow their brass horns loud. First, Spangler with his Solo "E" The leader is, 'tis plain to see; While Tommy on the 1st Bb cornet, Helps Spangler out sometimes you bet Limbo on the Bb blows, As well as sometimes blows his nose; And when dressed up in suit of blue, He blows his horn both loud and true.

Young Krebs on the Bb blows, With lips pressed out like double O', Brings forth the most enchanting strains, That almost crack the window panes.

Prof. Butler on the other B, Blows strains of sweetest melody; And Buster with his Alto horn, Blows after-beats from eve till morn.

Young Lyons next to Buster sits, And gives the alto trombone fits. While Patrick M., from Weiricktown, Is holding the 1st alto down.

Henry Mow on a Bb trombone, Tries hard to make his presence known; While Jub from India's Coral Strand, With baritone is right on hand.

On deep-toned tuba Hendricks blows And by his execution shows That though he is but a beginner, And blows like an old Turkish sinner.

Next Dutchy on the tenor drum, With rapid movements makes it hum, While Cap, with his bass drum stick, Rains blows on calf-skin fast and thick.

Neither last nor least comes basso Ehek, And the property man we must not slide, With many a flourish of notes so slick, Sends forth the impression the town is sick.

There are others to many to enumerate, From this and every other state, And C. E. S., all know him well—He often gives the band boys h—l.

We hope they'll not from duty swerve They don't get half what they deserve; And when to a neighboring town they go, 'Twould knock you silly to hear them blow.

We are authorized to announce that the G. A. R. Pic Nic advertised in last week's issue will take place on Saturday, September 3rd.

Positively the largest and best selected stock of clothing in Snyder county will be found at Dreffuss Bros. Selingsgrove, Pa.

Sol. Oppenheimer is a specialty of Crush hats, in every color of brown, drab and slate with one color at 65 cents.

To any person buying $5.00 worth of goods of us we will pay half his railroad fare to Selingsgrove from any part of the county, and if you buy a bill of $10 from us we will pay your entire fare from any part of the county to Selingsgrove and return. Dreffuss Bros.
