Republican County Ticket

- FOR ASSASSINATE JUDGE. SAMUEL A. WEIGEL, Beaverstown.

Thursday, Sept. 1, 1887.

A new party, the American, is to be formally organized in Philadelphia on the 16th and 17th of September.

Boston has 1,400 lawyers, but so far as income is concerned General Butler heads the list.

The Prohibition State convention in session at Harrisburg last week nominated the following ticket:

Charles S. Wolfe, was chosen as Chairman of the State Committee.

There can be no doubt as to the practicability of cultivating vineyards in this country.

Rev. Joseph Parker, the great London preacher, who arrived in this country a few days ago for rest and travel, denies that he has been invited to accept the pastorate of Plymouth church.

The following are the enormous salaries received by poverty-stricken potentates: The emperor of Russia received $8,250,000 per annum.

No large city, remarks the Inter-Ocean, has given high license a more thorough test than Chicago.

By virtue of an order issued out of the Circuit Court of Snyder county, Pa., the undersigned, Administrator of the estate of Jacob Beckhart, deceased, by virtue of a writ of habeas corpus, containing the late residence of said decedent, has returned to the Centre township, Snyder county, Pa., on Barely Peak, the condemned murderer, was on Friday called on in his cell at Mt. Holly, New Jersey, by his brother, who is just out of State prison.

The Blanc plank in the Republican platform in this State probably expresses the feelings of a majority of the members of the party in Pennsylvania.

The following extract we take from a Philadelphia Times editorial: "The leading public journals of both the Virginias, North Carolina, Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama and Louisiana, are now more pronounced for protection than are the leading Republican journals of New England, and no party can hold supremacy in the South that does not distinctly maintain the protection of labor.

Between wages at home and abroad the proper standard, is essential to the success of any political party in this country where labor is honored and the sovereign power of the land.

Governor Beaver issued a proclamation on Monday evening, commending to the people of the State the observance of the days set apart next month for the commemoration of the centennial anniversary of the National Constitution.
