The number of State elections which will be beld this year is small. Governors will be chosen in Iowa, Maryland, Massachusetts and Ohic. Minor State officers will be chosen in New York and Pennsylvania, the on November 8. The most important of these elections to the people of the country in general will be the ones held in New York and Ohio. In each of these States the Prohibitionists and Labor party have nominees in the field, and the latter intend to make a lively canvass.
