Daniel Bolender, the nominee for Sheriff is so well known throughout the county that he scarcely requires an introduction or recommendation. Having served the county for already three terms as sheriff, his nomination for a fourth term is a strong acknowledgement by the Republican party of the people's confidence in his integrity and popularity. A man in public life as long ha, certainly has some bitter enemies, but he has, withall, some very warm friends—even in the opposite party, who will lay aside all party prejudices and labor for his election with an earnestness that betokeus the warm est friendship. His record as sheriff of Snyder County is that of a most worthy officer and is resplendent with the memories of his generosity to the poor.
