In the year 1829 butter sold at from eight to ten cents per pound; eggs, eight cents per doz; wheat flour, from two to three cents per pound; corn-meal, one and a half cents per pound; buckwheat flour two cents per pound; turnips, twenty cents per bushel; potatoes, from twenty-five to thirty-seven and a half cents per bushel; oats, twenty five cents per bushel; veal, hind quarter, four cents per pound; beef, butchered, one and a half to four cents per pound; dried apples, fifty cents per bushel; cider, $1.50 per barrel; flax seed; fifty cents per bushel; apple butter, thirty-seven and a half cents per gallon; two pigs, fifty cents weaving, from six and a quarter to eight cents per yard, etc., and wages of all kinds were in proportion, say, one half or less than what they are now; and yet lots of people will continue to whine about the good days that have gone by, never to be recalled. If people would only improve their present opportunities and make the best of them, this world would be much brighter and far more lively, and mankind a deal of a sight happier. 'Shoot' the good old times!

Messrs. E. Wilvert, of Sunbury and B. M. Babb, of Georgetown, are engaged in driving a draft into a hill near the latter place, this county, to take out Kaolin clay. In driving the draft they have gone through a feldspar rock of ten feet and struck a vein of decomposed clay of forty feet and a vein of yellow ochre of eight feet. The ochre is interspersed with small seams of iron and has a fine body. The clay is very plastic and stoneware manufactured from it proves next to hardness of iron and is of a beautiful glaze, and makes a stronger stoneware than has been seen in this section of country. Fine brick have been burned, which are equal to the best. The feldspar is of the Marchisonite variety, a yellowish gray with peculiar waxy lustre. The vein of this composition is on the top of a mountain three hundred feet above the level of river, and is in width some twenty feet, and extends in length about a mile and a half, and about two miles from the railroad.

Little Bobby as a Reasoner.

"Manma," said little Bobby, "can't I have another piece of pie?"

"No, my dear, you have had sufficient"

"But why can't I have more?"

"It might make you sick, and if you become sick you might die."

"Die just like Johnny Brown?"

"Yes, my dear!"

"Everobody said he went to heaven, manma."

"Yes, dear. He was a good little boy, and always minded what his mother told him."

"And people said, manma, that he'd be ever so much happier in heaven than here."

"That's right, Bobby. So he would"

"Do all good little boys go to heaven, manma?"

"Yes, dear."

"Am I a good little boy, manma?"

"Yes, Bobby is a good little boy."

"Then why don't you let me have another piece of pie? Don't you want your little Bobby to be happy?"

'There is evidently a great deal to be learned about women,' says a Philadelphia editor. There is, indeed, and the best way to learn it is to ask some other women about it.

A SWINDLER

does not refer possible purchasers to his victims. The Athlophoros Co. gladly refers sufferers from rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, nervous or sick headache, kidney and liver complaints to those who have been cured of these diseases by Athlophoros, and will furnish names and addresses of many such persons to those desiring them. Athlophoros is the only remedy for these diseases that can stand such a test.

A. L. Thomas, Cuba, N. Y., says: "My son, J. M. Thomas, had been suffering from rheumatism for several months. Athlophoros relieved him of the pain, and reduced the swelling of the joints, and the lameness entirely disappeared. I have seen three having neuralgia cured by taking one dose."

A. Beard, Mt. Kisco, N. Y., says: "I have been troubled for some time with sciatica and rheumatism, brought on by working in a damp place. I could find no remedy in medicine I was using, until I tried a bottle of Athlophoros, which gave me immediate relief."

Mrs. Alfred Thurston, 42 North Main Street, Wilkesbarre, Pa., says: "I am not troubled with rheumatism now, since using Athlophoros. I believe, should it in any case fail to relieve and permanently cure, the cause would be that the directions were not faithfully followed."

J. J. Savitz, Roseveil, Pa., says: "I gave two bottles of Athlophoros to my sister, and she has entirely recovered. She was afflicted with inflammatory rheumatism and St. Vitus' dance, and although we had two of the best doctors, she gradually grew worse. She would scream from pain night and day. I heartily recommend it.

Every druggist should keep Athlophoros and Athlophoros Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist the Athlophoros Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will send either (carriage paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlophoros and 50c. for Pills.

For liver and kidney diseases, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervous debility, diseases of women, constipation, headache, impure blood, use Athlophoros Pills are unequaled.
