You may not believe it, but it is nevertheless true that pheasants are wilder during the light of the moon than during the dark.

Rev. M. B. Spayd, formerly of Lewisburg has been assigned the pastorate of this U. B. charge. Mr. Spayd is no stranger among us and is generally well liked.

Rev. Mumma of Adamsburg and Prof. D. S. Boyer of Freeburg are attending the State Sabbath School Convention at Harrisburg this week as delegates from this County. Next week Mr. Boyer will go to Pittsburg as a Grand Juror in the U.S. Court.

A religious weekly recently spent much time in discussing 'How to bring young men into the church." That is easy enough. Hire a constable to prevent young men from lounging around the church doors during the services. Then they will have to go in or miss the girls.

We have it from reliable authority that a new round house will be built on the site of the one recently destroyed by fire at the Junction. and we understand it will be more substantial and improved. Work will begin in a short time.—Lewistown Gazette.

The industrious housewife is now clad in her oldest calico Mother Hubbard, has a piece of soap in her pocket, ultra business in her eye, a smiley broom in one hand, a brush in the other, and a splash of Rising Sun stove polish on the southern extremity of her nose.

The several hunting parties who tried their hands at deer last week all returned with light catches, and they report deer scarce in the Seven Mountains. They may come in later but the warm weather and the density of the forest owing to the leaves which are nearly all on the trees, makes it very difficult to capture any of the few deer yet in.

Elsewhere we publish Ben. Butler's ideas on "how to get rich," and though it is quite lengthy it is worth every one's careful perusal. Some will find it painfully truthful, as experience has taught them, and those who have never suffered the results of adverse fortune brought on by a non-observvnce of his theories, will be profited by adopting them at once.

Some of the newspaper men around the country, says an exchange, are raising a racket because some of the business men use a rubber stamp to do their advertising with. A man has a right to use a rubber stamp if he wants to, and need not have his advertisement in his home paper, and it's no one's business. When a man is dead he knows it, and it certainly does seem queer that he is not allowed to rest in peace.

The old question as to whether the upper part of a carriage wheel in motion goes along faster than the lower part seems to have been settled by instantaneous photography. In the photograph the outer ends of the upper spokes appear indistinct by reason of the motion, while the outer ends of the spokes in the lower part of the wheel are photographed with distinctness.

Middleburgh has long been in need of a first class roller mill, but the fruitful mind and substantial purse of Thomas Bower, proprietor of the Franklin Mills, has supplied the vacancy by placing the very finest material to be had in his mill for making standard roller flour. We have been afforded an opportunity to try the flour, and are ready to pronounce it, not only as our own opinion, but upon the assertions of all who tried it as superior to anything yet introduced to our bakers. Houtz & Son the leasers, are experiencing a wonderful increase in patronage which will continue to grow until the famous brands of the Franklin Mills are familiar words in every household in the State.

We call attention to the new advertisement in this issue of the Gem Piano & Organ Company and that of Wm C. Snyder, Lunch Room.

It is stated that the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. requires of its employees to pay the debts they contract. It is a pity that this compulsion cannot be brought to bear on people of this country generally. We regret to say that the number of persons who will cheat their creditors in this country, when possible, is a national disgrace. People of this kind ought to be made feel the ignominy of their dishonesty.

The entertainment in Seebold's Hall, on Saturday evening had a fair attendance. The principal performance was a dialogue between Father Time—his daughter Summer, and his six grand daughters. A recitation by Lulie Smith was well rendered as was also the fruit parade and several recitations by Miss Walker. Owing to noisy boys in the back part of the room, it was impossible to catch all of the performances and weigh their merits. Parents who cannot train their children to proper behavior when out of sight, should always accompany them to public places—or keep them at home.

Don't point your gun at yourself. Don't point your gun at any one else. Don't carry your gun so that its range includes all your hunting companions. Don't try to find out whether your gun is loaded or not by shutting one eye and looking down the barrel with the other. Don't use your gun for a walking-stick. Don't climb over a fence and pull your gun thro muzzle foremost. Don't throw your gun into a boat so that the trigger will catch in the seat and the charge be deposited in your stomach. Don't use your gun for a sledge hammer. Don't carry your gun full cocked Don't carry your gun with the hammer down. Don't be a fool. Don't you forget it Sheriff Middleswarth who took George Wenrich to the Eastern Penitentiary last week, called on Israel Erb, the last of the Klutzler Murderes, who is undergoing a life sentence in that institution. He tells us that old Israel is as sleek and round as an old, fat rat in a big cheese. He is not compelled to do any work, but is nevertheless anxious to get out, and inquired of the Sheriff if the people of Snyder County hadn't yet petitioned for his release. The Sheriff informed him that he had not yet heard any one who expressed a desire for his release, and that such a move could only be expected to come from his friends, who were silent in the matter. Well, he said, "I didn't do anything and think I have suffered enough for nothing." The Sheriff didn't bring him along, though.

Well, a sudden end has been put to the organ in the Salem Evangelical church which was the means of a law suit in the recent term of Snyder Co. Court. The end came slowly, but like Justice, it got there with both feet. Must we admit it that there is one man outside the gates of hell who is mean enough to break into a church at night and with a grub-an'-hoe cut an organ to pieces that was paid for by popular subscription? Yes; and the worst of it is, he lives in Snyder county! The pieces of the instrument were scattered along the street in front of the church on Monday morning—a striking picture of moral depravity in this Nineteenth Century of one whose conscience should be stirred up with a pitch-fork.

We copy the following from the Harrisburg Telegraph of the 27th ult., it may deserve the attention of some persons in this county:

The price of school books is simply outrageous. An ordinary book that costs in the manufacture but 25 cents is sold for $1.71 in Harrisburg. This is not the fault of the booksellers. who themselves complain that the prices are too high, but they are compelled to pay for them if they want to keep them in stock, especially when they are adopted as a part of the curriculum of the schools. The book publishers have a monopoly of this thing, and both book dealer and book buyer are powerless. The only way to remedy it is to authorize more frequent changes of text books and that will come next. No contract should be made with any publishing house to buy any book that is not sold at a fair price.

President Cleveland and his wife are making a trip to the West, and as usual in such cases the people and the papers are going crazy over it. Every body wants to see Francis. Some no doubt are disappointed upon seeing her when they discover in her an ordinary woman—one who was unknown to the world at large before her marriage to the President—the consimation of an alliance by no means considered creditable during the campaign. We are an admirer of women in general, and good-looking ones in particular, but that we would risk our neck by crawling on the roof of a moving train to have a look through the window at Francis Cleveland or at any other woman short of Eve herself, may the good Lord deliver us. At Chicago, the President shook hands for several hours at the rate of forty-seven head per minute! Did they shake hands with him because they loved him so, or were they cranky on the subject of handshaking with a President? It matters very little, anyhow, and we bet the patches on our pants that of the Republican, or Democratic, or Labor, or Prohibition Party would nominate old Abe Lacy and elect him President in 1888, that there would at least be ten millions of our sixty millions of people who would consider it a deed, noble, great and brave to have shaken hands with President Abraham Lacy!

BEECH CREEK.—I thought a letter from the Northern Pa. lumber woods would be of some interest to the many readers of the POST. I will endeavor to give the particulars of camp life. Our camp is situated about nine and a half miles north west of Beech Creek, which is the nearest Post Office, and as the news papers do not come in as regular as in a town, we have to use some of our leasure time in other kinds of sport. Some of the Snyder county "dutch" boys give lessons on their language to those who can't speak it. While others are passing their time in singing comic songs. And still others—the older ones, in studying the Scriptures. On the 27th of Sept. the Rev. F. L. Barton visited the camp, and in the evening delivered a good sermon to the crew—23 in number. The words of his text were in Proverbs 23d chapter and 23d vers, and after the sermon the hat was passed through the crowd and a liberal collection was raised for him. H. C. S.

CENTREVILLE.—Ex-Sheriff Bolender of Middleburgh has finished the contract for building the new school house at Ocker's. The School Board has accepted the building and pronounced it a first class job which is an evidence that work entrusted to him will be given prompt attention.

Overcoats have again come into fashion.

Merchant J. H. Hartman is the boss pumpkin raiser here. He raised on a vine in his lot three pumpkins that weigh respectively 67, 54, and 52 pounds or a combined weight of 173 pounds. What a lot pumpkin pies the above would make, almost enough to supply the town.

Home from the west. Peter Hartman and H. K. Sanders. And, if you want positive proof of how they enjoyed themselves just ask Pete about his fishing out in Michigan. He claims to have beat those western fishermen all to pieces in catching fish. However the last day he had to cave in. Frank Gemberling having caught too many stories, and outnumbered him.

Dr. E. D. Jones of Dry Run, visited his fair lady here, recently.

Samuel H. Straub was in the lower end of the county last week.

Geo. W. Long did Milton a visit racently.

BEAVERTOWN.—Albert Engle has raised his new house and is rapidly pushing it on toward completion.

Isaac Fall has given his residence a coat of paint.

Moses Goldstein and Miss Mary Getz were married Thursday a week. The knot was tied by Rabbi A. Lifsitz, of Altoona, at the residence of Mandel Friedman. The couple began housekeeping at Selinsgrove last week.

Rev. Pflueger, accompanied by his wife, has attend the session of conference at Uniontown, Dauphin county.

Reid Stricker has been on the sick list for several weeks. He has been an invalid for some time.

While Mandel Friedman was loading a box of store goods at the depot on Saturday, it slid against him and inflicted a very ugly wound on his leg.

Albert W. Engle has sold the house and lot which he now occupies to Thomas Kohler for $500.

Mr. and Mrs. Rev. D. M. Stetler, of Mahanoy, visited friends in town last week.

Mrs. Jacob Snyder has well nigh recovered from the effects of the surgical operation mentioned in the last communication, and Mr. Snyder has gone to Philadelphia to accompany her home. They will come on Wednesday or Thursday of this week.

The Beavertown Literary Society will be re-organized on Tuesday evening of next week.

Judge Wetzel is repairing his residence.

Rev. Pflueger will hold communion services on Sunday and Rev. Landis a week later.

A. H. Bowersox and Solomon Getz, of the firm of Friedman & Getz, have returned from the city with their new stock of goods.

Mrs. William Gilbert, who has been rigidly bed-fast for the last five months, I am glad to say is getting better. She is able to walk a little.

Moses Specht is having the interior of his store repainted.

The schools in this township opened on Monday.

IN BRIEF, AND TO THE POINT.—Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food. bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.
