

Our friends throughout the county will be glad to see the new issue of the Post...

SEVEN COUNTY COURTS.—The Courts of Snyder County are held on the fourth Monday of February, May, and September, and second day of December.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.—Look at the figures on the label of your paper. Those figures tell you the DATE TO WHICH YOUR SUBSCRIPTION IS PAID.

THIS IS THE ONLY WAY TO BE SURE THAT YOU ARE PAID.

This December is as pleasant as May.

The long-looked for and much needed rain came last week, but didn't last long enough.

Joe Cleland shot a pheasant last week that had two No. 32 lead revolver cartridges in its gizzard.

A protracted meeting is in progress in the new Evangelical church, which is conducted by Revs. Auran and Netzer.

Collector Reigle desires to notify tax payers that on and after Tuesday, Dec. 20, an extra five per cent. will be charged on all taxes.

"Come, draw this curtain, and let's look at your picture."—Shakespeare. If you don't have a picture, you can do no better than give Derstine a trial.

Yorder's roller flouring Mills at Globe Mills which had suspended operations for several weeks owing to a lack of water is again in full running order and turning out its usual amount of superior flour.

Sheriff Middleswarth, we understand, will move about the 1st week in January to his former home near McClure. The sheriff leaves a splendid record as an officer. He was a desirable citizen and our people are sorry to part with him and his family.

Ira Schoch of Selingsgrove, and Miss Laura Richter, of Duncan's Island near Harrisburg were joined in holy matrimony on Wednesday of last week. It was quite an elaborate affair, as several hundred guests were in attendance and the presents numerous and costly.

Jerome Crouse and bride returned from their honeymoon trip on Thursday of last week and were serenaded in the evening by the Independent Order of Moon-shiners in the evening. Mrs. Crouse's mother in Selingsgrove, being very seriously ill, she is now at her bedside until a change for the better, it is hoped, will take place.

In our last issue we said that our people had decided to hold a musical festival, commencing Jan. 27. This is a mistake, January 30, 1888 is the time agreed upon; our reporter is responsible for the error, his almanac no doubt was a little mixed. Immediate organization and constant practice will give us a happy week.

The Government of New South Wales offers a reward of $25,000 to the American who shall invent a process to exterminate the rabbits, which have become pests in Australia. Here's your man, Mr. Wales. Send on your reward per New York Draft and we'll be on hand with gun and dog by January 1st.

Sheriff elect Reuben Dreese has finally decided on his selection of a deputy sheriff. His name is Charles Dreese, a resident of Penna township. He is a young man well qualified for the position, and the appointment is very favorably spoken of by the people in general. Though married he will not move his family here but will take up his residence with the sheriff.

Our deer hunters have not fared so well for the last few weeks as they did about a month ago. Parties from Trozelle, Port Ann, Beavertown and Adamsburg, report that the animals have emigrated west of our hunting ground, and are now found in Briss's Kettle and Hevis Valley, where a Centre county party last week killed five in one day. One of them was a seven-prong buck which weighed 310.

The Progressive Literary Society of Middleburgh had a very interesting meeting on Monday evening. Next Monday evening a full program will be presented and the question of foreign immigration will be discussed. The society is in good working order now and will result in doing much good. It affords an evening of profitable amusement, and should be encouraged. Parents, encourage your children by coming with them.

A genteel looking rascal about 50 years of age, traveling through Northern Penna., selling so called magnetic garments alleged to cure all the ills human flesh is heir to, is a dead beat and fraud. The goods also, are a fraud of the worst kind. He stops at hotels and engages board for three or four days, gets one night's lodging, with his supper and breakfast, and then quietly leaves for parts unknown, without paying a cent. We hope soon to give our readers full particulars of this gigantic swindle, with names of persons engaged in it. Men who deliberately swindle the sick, crippled and unfortunate, deserve the widest publicity from the public press. We have the gang down here, and propose showing up their nefarious swindling operations.—Middleburgh Telegraph.

Court adjourned Wednesday noon.

Look out for change in H. Oppenheimer's ad. next week.

Louis Kaha, clerk for H. Oppenheimer, Selingsgrove, desires to inform the public that he will buy in all kinds of furs and will pay the highest cash price for the same.

"Take me as I am, nothing extenuate—nor set down ought in malice" said Shakespeare when he sat to have his picture taken at Derstine's Gallery Lewistown.

You can now buy excursion tickets to Derstine's Photograph Gallery, Lewistown, at 25 cents per mile—good only to return the same day, but affording plenty of time to sit for your picture.

The story circulated to the effect that a horse-thief had drowned in the canal near Northumberland last week is all a fabrication. There are a band of horse-thieves operating in Snyder and Northumberland counties, but unfortunately none have drowned—they await a move deserving fate—that of being hung by a vigilance committee.

A correspondent to the Scientific American asks that paper what material is used in Laundrying cuffs and collars to make them so glossy. The paper answers that the simplest preparation consists of the following: Pour a pint of boiling water upon two ounces of gum arabic, cover it, and let it stand overnight. Use a tablespoon full of this.

The State Normal School at Bloomsburg will begin the winter term on Tuesday, Jan. 3rd 1888. The Senior class is larger than that of last year, and the equipment of the school in all respects was never before as good. Students are received at any time. Many are prepared for college. Send for a catalogue.

I give honor to whom it is due. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy cured me of Bright's disease and Gravel. Four of the best physicians had failed to relieve me. I have recommended it to scores of people with like success, and know it will cure all who try it.—Mrs. E. P. Mear, Burg Hill, O. Send 2c. stamp to Dr. Kennedy, Rondont, N. Y. for book how to cure Kidney Liver and Blood Disorders. Mention this paper. Nov. 24, '87. 4w.

Non. Charles Wolf informed us this week that he had no intention of locating permanently in the West, as yet, but that he had interest in real estate at Bismark, Dakota, and was about to apply for a charter to Governor Beaver to form a syndicate of capitalists composed of men of this state who will purchase lands and erect manufacturing near Bismark. Politically he is still a prodigal from the Grand Old Party, and expresses his intention to remain so until he can conscientiously coincide with its views, and then come in only on an invitation through the front door. He is as pliant and gritty as ever, and don't look a bit as though he had been munching Scriptural husks.

It seems to be very easy to circumvent the wiles of the Bohemian notes rascals if farmers have the sand to fight them. Recently a fellow calling himself Fred Calkins appeared in Huntington county, Indiana, with a number of these notes against prominent farmers which he claimed to hold as an "innocent purchaser." The farmers banded together and had Calkins arrested on a charge of conspiracy. He was held in five hundred dollar bonds, his attorneys became such money in their hands. Then Calkins skipped the county, and his bail has been exonerated. The school fund is just five hundred dollars ahead.

AN OLD MAN BURNED TO DEATH.—Our correspondent from Bannerville reports that Charles Lehr, an old man of about 70, residing about 2 1/2 miles west of Bannerville, was found burned to death on Monday morning and his house in ashes. Upon inquiry we found that the old man had been out on Monday and being nearly blind had made a misstep and fallen into the water. The neighbors prevailed upon him to come into the house and dry himself, but he preferred going to his house (a mere shanty which he occupied alone) to dry himself. The next morning the shanty was found in ashes and among the debris, half buried in ashes they found a human skeleton—undoubtedly of Mr. Lehr's. The conclusion is that in drying his clothes the shanty caught fire and he was consumed with it.

Henry Wetzel, whose barn burned down last week as mentioned in this paper, informs us that his loss was in the neighborhood of $1500. By some oversight the barn, which he had thought was insured for $900, was not mentioned on the policy, though the agent Mr. Helmback of Beavertown avers that he could swear that it had been insured in that amount. The company, of course, refuses to recognize the claim. The live stock was insured, but that was saved. The farming implements were insured, but they were nearly all saved—so that Mr. Wetzel realizes very little on the insurance, and he told us that he was unable to rebuild the barn, and would shift with a shed until he can sell the farm and pay his debts. Mr. Wetzel has been an honest, hardworking man all his life, and he and his good old wife are now almost too old to begin anew. We think the good people of Snyder county could do nothing more becoming than to help the old gentleman build a new barn. He is far from asking this, but we think that he would appreciate assistance, as he certainly needs it, and the Post volunteers a ready hand in the effort to at least partly repair his loss. Will somebody make a move?

CENTREVILLE.—We have been visited by a magnificent rain recently and it seemed to have been greatly needed.

Did you digest the President's message? The Sunday schools are making preparations for Christmas entertainments.

Mr. Jacob Stuck of St. Joseph county, Michigan, who moved from this township nearly 20 years ago is here on a visit to old friends and relatives.

G. C. Spangler was in Middleburgh, Thursday,—on business.

J. M. Miller the courteous and efficient clerk, in C. M. Shower's store kept bachelor's hall last week. His pretty little wife was away visiting.

That is why Jim looked so sad and lonesome.

A goodly number of our citizens attended court in Middleburgh, this week.

Mrs. Reichly, widow of Jacob Reichly, died, in her 90th year, and enjoys excellent health.

Who came into town, Sunday morning with a lighted lantern in his hand? The Centreville Cornet Band serenaded H. F. Long at his residence west of town, Saturday evening, it being his 77th birthday. An excellent supper was prepared, consisting of BEAVERTOWN.—The shadows of death have fallen upon and enshrouded in darkness the home of William Gilbert and his children, and a faithful, devoted wife and a tender, loving mother has been torn from their embrace by the relentless angel of death. Mrs. Gilbert fell a victim to consumption about seven months ago, and, with but little exception, has been rigidly bedfast for that length of time. Her affliction, which she bore with the utmost calmness and patience, has continually elicited the sympathy of the entire community. The firmness and tenacity with which she warded off death and clung to life, I feel like challenging the world and the ages to surpass. Thousands would have yielded and succumbed to the inflexible demands of the last enemy long before the seven months of suffering had been up. She calmly breathed her last a little after 4 o'clock on Friday morning, and the funeral took place on Sunday forenoon. Rev. Landis, the pastor of the deceased, officiated and preached a discourse to a very large audience, who had come to pay a lasting tribute of respect to the memory of the departed. She was aged 43 years, 3 months and 23 days. Her maiden name was Mariah Bowersox.

Henry Etzler has sold about eleven acres of his land at $145 an acre to John P. Kearns.

Nor. A. Fees has sold his land south-west of town to Daniel Snook for $250.

Rev. Mumma held communion services in the Lutheran church on Sunday.

The Union Sunday school will give a public entertainment on the evening previous to Christmas and the Lutheran school on the evening previous to New Year.

William Gilbert and his family wish to express their grateful acknowledgments, and sympathy manifested toward them by the people of this community during the sickness and burial of Mrs. Gilbert are regarded with due appreciation, and that they return heartfelt gratitude to all who have in any way tried to aid them and alleviate their affliction.

Mrs. Geo. Thomas of Lewistown, is visiting at her father's, John S. Smith.

A quarterly meeting will be held in the Evangelical church on Christmas. Preaching services will be held on Friday and Saturday evenings and Sunday morning.

Thomas, a son of Benjamin Zerbe, died on Monday night of cold in the brain. He felt bad on Saturday, took to bed on Sunday and died at midnight on Monday. He was aged about 15 years. The funeral will take place on Thursday.
