Advice to Young Men.

And then, remember, my son, you have to work. Whether you handle a pick or a pen, a wheelbarrow or a set of books, digging ditches or editing a paper, ringing an auction bell or writing funny things, you must work. If you look around you, son, you will see that the men who are the most able to live the rest of their days without work are the men who work the hardest. Don't be afraid of killing yourself with work, son. It is beyond your power to do that. Men cannot work so hard as that on the sunny side of 30. They die sometimes, but it is because they quit work at 6 p. m. and don't go home until 2 a m. Its the intervals that kills. Work gives an appetite for meals; it lends solidity to your slumber; it gives the appreciation of a holiday.

There are young men who do not work, my son, but the world is not proud of them. It does not even know their names: it simply speaks of them as old So-and-So's boys. Nobody likes them; the great, busy world doesn't know that they are there. So find out what you want to do, son, and take off your coat and dust in the world. The busier you are the less deviltry you will be apt to get into, the sweeter you sleep, the brighter and happier your holidays, and the better satisfied the world will be with you.—Hawkeye.

Problems and Paradoxes.

It is astonishing what a very simple query will sometimes catch a wise man napping. Even the following have been known to succeed:

How many days would it take to cut up a piece of cloth 50 yards long, one yard being cut off every day.

Or again:

A wise man having a window one yard high and one yard wide, and requiring more light enlarged his window to twice its former size: yet the window was still only one yard high and one yard wide.

Suppose three snakes, each of which is swallowing another by the tail, so that the three form a circle—then as the swallowing process continues, the circle evidently grows smaller. Now, if they thus continue to swallow each other, what will eventually become of the snakes?

Of a different sort are the following:

A man walks around a pole, on the top of which is a monkey. As the man moves, the monkey turns round on the top of the pole so as to keep face to face with the monkey. Query: When the man has gone round the pole, has he or has he not gone round the monkey?

A train starts daily from San Francisco to New York to San Francisco, the journey lasting seven days How many trains will a traveler meet in journeying from San Francisco to New York?

A man who owes a shilling proceeds to pay it at the rate of sixpence the first day, three-pence the next day, and so on—paying each day half the amount he paid the day before. How long would it take him to pay the shilling?

Talmage on Newspapers.

"One of the great trials of the newspaper profession is that its members are compelled to see more of the shams of the world than any other profession. Through every newspaper office, day after day, go all the weaknesses of the world—all the vanities that want to be puffed, all the revenges that want to be reaped, all the dull speakers that want to be thought eloquent, all the meanness that wants so get its wares noticed "gratis" in the editorial columns in order to save the tax of the advertising columns, all the men who want to be set right who never were right, all the crack-brained philosophers with stories as long as their hair and as gloomy as their finger-nails in mourning because bereft of soap—all the bores who come in to stay five minutes, but talk five hours. Through the editorial and reportorial rooms all the follies and shams of the world are seen, day after day, and the temptation is not to believe in God, man and woman. It is no surprise to me, that in this profession there are some skeptical men; I only wonder that newspaper men believe anything.'

If You Would Be Happy.

Beware of the man of two faces.

Persevere against discouragement.

Take a cheerful view of everything.

In all promised pleasures put self last.

Trust in God and mind your own business.

Pray for a short memory as to all unkindness.

Do not talk of your private, personal or family matters.

Give your tongue more holiday than your hands or your eyes.

Put not your trust in money, but put your money in trust.

Cultivate forbearance until your heart yields a fine crop of it.

Examine into your own shortcomings rather than those of others

Act as if you expected to live 100 years but might die to-morrow.

Be content to do things you can and fret not because you cannot do everything.

Never reply in a kind of sharp or angry word—it is the second word that makes the quarrel.

Make the best of what you have and do not make yourself miserable by wishing for what you have not.

He Promptly Proposed.

During the summer of 1863, while the hospitals at Canton, Miss. were crowded with sick and wounded soldiers, the ladies visited them daily, carrying with them delicacies of every kind and did all they could to cheer and comfort the suffering. On one occasion a pretty miss of sixteen was distributing flowers and speaking gentle words of encouragement to those around her, when she overheard a soldier exclaim: 'Oh, my Lord!'

Stepping to his bedside to rebuke him for his profanity, she remarked: 'Didn't I hear you call upon the name of the Lord? I am one of His daughters. Is there anything I can ask Him for you?'

Looking up into her bright, sweet face, he replied:

'I don't know but what there is.'

'Well,' said she, 'what is it?'

Raising his eyes to hers and extending his hand, he said:

'Please ask Him to make me His son-in-law.'

It is Well to Remember.

That slander, like mud, dries and falls off.

That he who gathers roses must not fear thorns.

That to wait and be patient soothes many a pang.

That all are not princes that ride with the emperor.

That correction is good when administered in season.

That it takes a great deal of grace to be able to bear praise.

That we will never have a friend if if you must have one with out failings.

That to have what we want is riches, but to be able to do without is power.

That there is no limit to the age at which a man may make a fool of himself.

That the roses of pleasure seldom last long enough to adorn the brow of those who pluck them.

That a man who cannot mind his own business is not to be trusted with the business of others.

One's Enough.

'You love my daughter?' said the old man. 'Love her!' he exclaimed, passionately; 'why, sir, I would die for her. For one soft glance from those sweet eyes I would hurl myself from yonder cliff and perish, a bleeding, bruised mass, upon the rocks two hundred feet below.' The old man shook his head. 'I'm something of a liar myself,' he said, 'and one is enough for a small family like mine.'

Almost any soil can be brought to proper condition by spading to the depth of fifteen inches and incorporating with the natural earth well-rotted stable manure and sand, if too heavy, and well-rotted manure and clay and wood ashes, if too light and sandy.

How Providence does temper the wind to the shorn lamb! Twenty years ago it cost ten dollars to telegraph to California. Now, during the California land boom, the words, "Send me cash enough to get home on, am busted," cost only one dollar.

If You Would Have Peace of Mind

Use your brains rather than those of others.

Think nothing in conduct unimportant or indifferent.

Spend less nervous energy every day than you make.

Try to see yourself through the eyes of those around you.

Learn to say no; not snappishly, but firmly and respectfully.

Avoid passion and excitement; a moment's anger may be fatal.

Trust no secrets to a friend which if reported, would make an enemy.

Work to-day, for you know not how much you may be hindered to-morrow.

In private watch your thoughts; in the family watch your temper; in company watch your tongue.

Carry sunshine in thine own heart, and, like the perfume in flowers, it will breathe a fragrance everywhere.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Good Results in Every Case.

D. A. Bradford, wholesale paper dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes: that he he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit. Being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, did so and was entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all Coughs and Colds with best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this Wonderful Discovery. Trial bottles free at G. M. Shindel's Drug Store.

UTTERLY DISCOURAGED

expresses the feeling of many victims of rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica and nervous or sick headache. Having tried numberless so-called remedies, and physicians of all schools, without relief, there seems to be no hope. Many such have as a last resort tried Athlophoros, and to their surprise and joy have found that it was a safe, sure and quick cure. Athlophoros is not an experiment; thousands have been cured by its use and they testify as to its value.

Shokomoko, Dutchess Co. N. Y. Aug. 20, '86

I took Athlophoros according to directions; it caused a ringing in my ear that was not pleasant, it operated on my heart causing a slower and fainter throb, and constipated my bowels. When the last one was taken I did not think much of the medicine; the next day my lameness was better, and continued getting less until it left me. My lameness was in my back shoulders and neck, and had been for eight months. I was advised to try Athlophoros by my neighbor, Wm. Jackson, who had taken a bottle of it for a severe attack of lameness in his shoulder and arm. It said "it drove the lameness right out of me; my head felt strong, and my heart almost stopped beating; I thought I would die, but I came out all right, and have not had any lameness since." ANON BRIGGS.

Phelps, N. Y., August 15, 1886.

I am a practicing physician; I prescribed Athlophoros in a case of inveterate rheumatism of the right shoulder and arm. This case had been of weeks standing—yet months—and resisted medicine carefully selected, also the use of electric treatment. One bottle removed all the trouble. The case remains well, now over a year since using the medicine.

G. C. PRICHARD, M. D.

Every druggist should keep Athlophoros and Athlophoros Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist the Athlophoros Co., 114 Wall St., New York, will send either (carriage paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlophoros and 50c. for Pills.

For liver and kidney disease, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervous debility, diseases of women, constipation, headache, impure blood, &c., Athlophoros Pills are unequaled.

Saved His Life.

Mr. D. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., says he was, for many years, badly afflicted with Phthisic, also Diabetes; the pains were almost unendurable and would sometimes almost throw him into convulsions He tried Electric Bitters and got relief from first bottle and after taking six bottles was entirely cured and had gained in flesh eighteen pounds Says he positively believes he would have died, had it not been for the relief afforded by Electric Bitters Sold at fifty cents a bottle by G M. Shindel.

Chick-Chick-er-re-Kee

MAKES HENS LAY!

PREVENTS GAPES,
PREVENTS ROUP,
PREVENTS CHOLERA,
PREVENTS LAYING SOFT EGGS,
PREVENTS EGG-EATING,
If fed every day.

Chick-chick-er-re-kee (poultry food and preventive of disease for poultry), the great egg food, produces eggs prodigiously and is found for the health of the fowling. It is the first article of its kind ever Patented in the United States, Canada and England. Try it. It costs only six cents per pound. It is no powder. Chickens will eat it. That ought to convince you that it is good. If your Grocer, Druggist, Hardware or Country Storekeeper will not get it for you, send me one dollar, and I will ship you a twenty-pound box by freight, or one hundred pounds for five dollars. A large box will cost you no more freight than a small box. Attend to your poultry, if you want to make a profit out of them, just the same as you attend to your land. Unless you manure your land it will not pay you. Just so with your poultry; you must give them something besides feed. They must have material to answer for grinders, and material for the egg. If you feed Chick-chick-er-re-kee (egg food) every day you will never have any sick chickens, and your hens will lay eggs when otherwise they would not. You will never do without it after a fair trial. Do not pay twenty-five or fifty cents a pound for medicine to feed your poultry when you can get a better article from your storekeeper at six cents a pound. Don't be a clam; try it. Manufactured in the United States only by
