

Our friends throughout the county will be glad to see the news in their respective towns, villages and neighborhoods.

For the benefit of our many Democratic readers we elsewhere publish Chairman Bower's call for the Democratic "Delegate Election."

Rev. Sam Jones is evangelizing in Central Pennsylvania at $200 a night. He exhorts his hearers to lay up treasure in Heaven and helps them to get rid of their treasure in this world.

The social event of Shamokin last week was the marriage on Wednesday evening, the 8th inst., of Chas. W. Heintzelman and Miss Sue B. Hamilton, daughter of Major E. C. Hamilton, formerly of this place.

Our young friend George Stahlnecker recently returned from the West with a brand new bride. He will spend a few weeks with his parents, after which he will return to Kalamazoo, Mich. where he has an interest in a fruit evaporating establishment.

We elsewhere publish a list of the successful candidates in Tuesday's Spring Elections in the various boro- and townships of the county. Should any mistakes occur it must be accredited to the haste required in making out list in time for publication.

As the time for papering houses is approaching, we hereby give notice that we have in stock the largest and finest assortment of Wall papers ever exhibit in this section. Prices are way down, in fact lower than ever S. Weis, Selinsgrove, Pa.

Sleighting is about "ausgaspeldt." The rain on Monday reduced the snow to at least one half its former depth. Supervisors are busy opening the drifted roads to hush the protests of the farmers through whose fields the public is compelled to travel.

WANTED.—A single young man that has had some experience in store business to assist in a store. Must come well recommended for honesty and sobriety, and one that can speak German, for good wages will be paid. Address, JACOB TRANSUR, McClure, Snyder Co, Pa.

M. S. Derstine, of Lewistown, brother of the photographer, was here Tuesday and filled a show-case with new pictures—mostly of people from this section of Snyder county. Every body pronounces them "most excellent," which means another tall feather in our young friend Derstine's cap.

The Progressive Literary Society is nightly growing in interest. Monday night the military merits of Grant and Lee were ably discussed. Miss Carrie Walker read a periodical of rare merit—full of pungent paragraph—sparkling with wit and wisdom. The society meets again next Wednesday evening, when the influence of dancing upon public morals will be considered.

H. H. Leitzel is about to move to Millheim, Centre county with his family—consisting of wife and infant son, where he will follow his vocation, that of jeweler. Harry is a good mechanic and an honest young fellow and we wish him the abundant success which he deserves.

Next week is the regular February Court. It is one of the four harvests for the Post in a year, financially speaking. It is when most everybody in the county comes to town to arrange business matters and say "how-do-do" to his friends. Let the Post not be disappointed in its expectation. If you owe us bring or send as part or all of your indebtedness. We are trying to pay for a home and need every cent due us to accomplish that end, and we will consider it a special favor to all who help us.

J. M. Steininger, foreman of the Post, was yesterday elected Chief Burgess of Middleburgh. We always knew John was a child of destiny. Red-headed and hopeful as Tom Cooper, and born on the same day of the year as Jim Blaine, all he needs yet is the "Presidential wart" on his cheek to make him a black-horse.

Miss Kate Bowersox of Paxtonville will open a select school, commencing April 16, '88. She has secured the primary room. Miss Bowersox has been tending two Normal Sessions in Middleburgh, and is at present going to school at New Berlin. She will certainly make a good primary teacher, and parents will make no mistake by sending their children to her.

The Bible has 3,556,840 letters, 773,746 words, 82,173 verses, 1,188 chapters and 66 books. The word "and" occurs 1,855 times. "Reverend," is used once, in the 9th verse of the 11th Psalm. The 21st verse of the 7th chapter of Ezra contains all the letters of the alphabet except "j." The middle verse is Psalm 118: 8; the longest verse is Esther, 8: 9; the shortest is John, 11: 35.

Stetler's Cornet Band, assisted by the "Corn-cracker Minstrels," will give a grand concert in Seebold's Hall, next Monday evening. They have an extensive program, consisting of four racy farces, interspersed with comic songs, quartets, choruses, etc. The entertainment will be doubly worth the price of admission, which is 20 cents for adults, reserved seats 25, children 10. Reserved seats on sale at Post Office.

ROLL OF HONOR.—The following persons have paid their subscription to the Post to the dates opposite their names. Should any mistakes occur in these credits or on your paper please notify us:

Hon. A. S. Helfrich, June 1, '90; D. S. Specht, March 1, '88; Joel Gross, Feb. 1, '88; J. C. Swineford, Aug. 20, '88; John Gilbert, Dec. 15, '88; Charles Boyer, Dec. 1, '88; H. S. Spigelmyer, Dec. 1, '87; David Ocker, Dec. 1, '87.

They arrived at the express office at Millburg on Tuesday, a corpse from California, addressed to Mrs. Fisher, Millburg, Union county, Pa., with express charges of $150. Search was made for the person to whom it was addressed but she could not be found. The express agent telegraphed to the place from where the body had been forwarded that Mrs. Fisher could not be found at Millburg. The answer came back that the corpse was intended to be sent to Millin, Juniata county, Pa. The body was forwarded to its rightful destination.—York Gazette.

Well, Blaine has refused the Republican nomination for President. So has George Washington Childs; and now follows Phil Sheridan with a similar declination. We are not surprised at Philip, as the Commander in Chiefship puddin' is worth two presidential birds in the bush. This may seem funny to some but its danger to see the nomination going a-begging. Democrats will soon think that we have all lost our sand, and before that time arrives we hereby make the proposition to go to Washington and veto and fish in Cleveland's place for four years if some one will write up the big pumpkins and supply the Post with snake stories. This offer is good only for 30 days.

The Spring election on Tuesday was, as usual, well attended, and an average amount of interest was manifested. The editor of the Post, "though always willin'," was not asked to pose as a martyr for the public good—being an incumbent of the important office of borough auditor at a round salary of one dollar per annum. There seemed to be the usual number of Pythias, however, to take Damon's place. Strange; isn't it? After nominated, most men will spend time and money enough to buy out the receipts of a half a dozen offices just to escape defeat. Man is an animal—and don't you forget it.

WEST BEAVER.—The snow is fast disappearing and our tenesters will soon be obliged to use the wagon again. Ex Sheriff Middleswarth is busy making preparations for his new house and stable which he intends putting up in the spring.

The Local Institute was not so well attended on Saturday as it should have been, but with all that the teachers had a good time. Peter Linsinger lost two horses sometime ago, the value of the horses we have not learned, but would suppose Andy would say. Old horse, old horse, its hard to part. You've often drawn my oyster cart, Homer Kriek is at present lying ill with typhoid fever.

The stove and heading factory is pushed for orders and are running on double time. Our election seems to be a little exciting and before our readers will receive the Post of this week some will have started up salt river to rent a hotel.

We are informed that the School directors are going to build a new school house, the contract is not yet let. Lewis Manbeck will move to McClure in Spring, and David Kline on his (Manbeck's) farm.

Jackson Baker moves to McClure, and William Rigel on his farm. Isaac Dreese moves to McClure, and Will Treaster on his farm. F. Stimeling moves to McClure, and Reubin Stimeling on his farm.

Howard Goss moves to Geo. Wagner's farm, south of McClure. Some of our school teachers were barred out on the 14th.

SPRING TOWNSHIP.—It is quite a while since our section of the County was represented in your worthy paper, so I think a few items will not come amiss.

Sleighting is getting poor but the Squire says "nine more snows." Sam, Werner has again moved his saw mill to its old place, on C. O. Greenhoe's property.

I. E. Ush has returned home from Hazleton. Ira thinks it N. G. to be so far away from the loved ones at home.

Edward Haeckenburg left for the northern part of Ind. last week. It is rumored that several parties will come into this section early in the spring to prospect for coal. This is a favorable step as we verily believe that there are plenty of the black diamonds buried under our hills.

One of our pedagogues wanted to show off on "Fausnocht," by inflicting a very humiliating punishment to his pupils for penning him out. Solly Steininger is busy repairing musical instruments in this and adjoining counties.

Some of Middleburgh's fairer sex attended the entertainment held by Prof. John's school at Adamsburg, and, don't you forget it some of our young men took advantage of the occasion.

At the recent sale of Henry Smith, dec'd, George Bilger bought the house and lot for $951. A. E. Kline is hauling the brick for the house he is going to build for Mrs. Sallie Martin at Middlecreek.

A. H. Ush offers for sale lots at reasonable prices in the village of Middlecreek. John Strauser left for Oberlin, O., to take a course in telegraphy.

Ulysis Manbeck, who for several weeks was at home with his father Lewis, has again returned to Three Rivers, Mich. where he is clerk in a shoemaker.

J. G. Moyer is shipping one carload of R. R. ties after another. Gus, is one of our enterprising business men.

BEAVERTOWN.—Philip Kinney died of old age on Thursday a week and was buried on Saturday following. He was a native of Selinsgrove and was born in 1813. When he was a young man his parents moved to the vicinity of Beavertown, where Philip opened a blacksmith shop. He afterwards moved to town, where he continued his vocation until a number of years ago. He was well known throughout the county and served one term as county commissioner. Rev. Mumma served at the funeral.

William E. Herbster has been seriously sick with pneumonia for over a week. At this writing he is better. Lincoln Freed and Miss Jane Wetzel were joined in holy wedlock on Thursday evening. Rev. Landis tied the knot. We wish them a delightful and prosperous voyage down a tranquil matrimonial stream.

John Wiand lost a valuable 2-year old colt by death recently. It is tho't to have hurt itself on the ice. Fraley Stricker, who has been lumbering at Beech Creek, Clinton county, returned home last week with one of the bones in his forearm fractured. He was kicked by a mule.

Mrs. Henry Weaver has been confined to her bed for sometime, suffering from a heavy cold. Charlie, a son of Edward Freed, has been sick with pneumonia for several weeks. He is about again.

William Youngman, who for the last five years has been clerking for A. H. Bowersox, has purchased J. W. Snook's general store at Millheim Centre county. He will move to Millheim early in April.

Mary, a daughter of William Gilbert, is seriously sick with pneumonia. The friends of Mrs. Jas. O. Herbster honored her with a surprise birthday party one evening recently. On the same evening, Rev. Mumma's congregation gave him a purse of eight dollars as a birthday present. Jacob Fees, Jr. has also been surprised recently by his friends, who brought with them about $12, worth of household necessities.

Mrs. Moses Specht and Mrs. William H. Specht have been sick, but are able to be about again. Howard, a son of Rev. N. Young, is quite sick; so is Jennie, a daughter of Jacob Binngaman.

Sickness and heavy colds have been more general here of late than for some time.
