ESSEX COUNTY COURTS.—The Courts of Essex County are held on the fourth Monday of February, May, and September, and second day of December.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Look at the figures on the label of your paper. Those figures tell you...

Now is the time to trim your grape vines.

The next legal holiday will be Good Friday, March 30.

George M. Shindel is "toting" in the lumber for his new barn to be erected this spring.

John Bibighaus is employed in the general store of Bogar & Spygelymer, Millburg.

Mr. Leitze of Rebersburg, Centre county, father of our townsman, H. H. Leitze spent several days in town this week.

Dreifuss Bros. will move their stock of clothing, &c., into Egbert's corner to-day, March 15, where they will hold forth in the future.

Pigeons.—If you have pigeons to sell call on or address the editor of the Post who will pay the highest cash for good birds.

Mrs. Louisa Cronmiller of Millburg is here assisting in taking care of her father Rev. Peter Shindel who is aged 87 years seriously ill.

M. T. Orwig who is employed as telegraph operator for the Penna. Company at Millburg, Pa., was at home with his parents over Sunday.

Friedman & Getz, Beavertown are selling at greatly reduced prices all their goods to make room for the Spring trade. Give them a call.

Middleburgh has a gun club which weekly practices on trap shooting. M. Z. Steiner and John Francis have thus far led the van.

We were in error last week in stating that Henry Stetler held a professional certificate. He holds a "permanent" which is worth a half dozen professionals.

The supreme court has decided that if a candidate for office serves on the election board that fact vitiates the election only so far as he is concerned.

John M. Steese, formerly of this county but now practicing law at Orbisonia was in town a few days this week. John is enjoying a good practice, is a hard student and an honest enterprising young man.

FOR SALE.—A tract of land containing 2 acres and 90 perches, situate in the western part of the Borough of Middleburgh. For particulars address GEORGE SATHLECKER, March 15, '88. Middleburgh.

Young man, paste this in your hat: "No man can be perfectly happy, either in this world or any other, who has by his perfidy broken a loving and confiding heart. No power can step between acts and consequences—no forgiveness, no atonement."

Moses Specht, the veteran express agent of Beavertown, is still following the even "tenor of his ways," selling lots of goods, and keeping hotel for the "accommodation of the public," as he says, while he deals out "schnapps" at five cents a glass.

It appears that H. J. Duck, for Register and Recorder, and A. S. Helfrich, candidate for Assembly, are to have no opposition.—Post. Bro. Tom, this reminds us that the people of Snyder county know when they have a good thing.—Lewistown Free Press.

Here is the opinion of the editor of one of our exchanges, who evidently believes what he says concerning that class of people who make it convenient to speak disrespectfully of their betters: "He is a natural born blackguard who will stand on the streets and pass unkind remarks about people after they have passed by."

The Women's Aid Society of Middleburgh will hold a Neck-tie Festival in the band room, Middleburgh, on Saturday evening, March 24. This will be a new and novel amusement, innocent, and immensely attractive. It will be appreciated by all. Ice-cream, lemonade, cakes and candies will be on hand. Admission free. All are invited.

On Sunday about two inches of snow, mixed with rain fell in this section. Sunday night it turned cold and for two or three days it was almost as cold as at any time this winter. People who had looked for the grass to sprout and buds to shoot were disagreeably disappointed. The ground hog evidently intends to hold good the promise of six weeks of winter.

P. M. Schoch several weeks ago secured employment with Dale Bros., "Fun For All," Comedy Company, as tambourist, and he liked it so well that Albert Smith was induced to accept employment from the same troupe as cornetist and he left on Friday to join them at Conneleville, Pa. Both of them are able musicians and are class young men, and our readers will join us in wishing them well.

G. Alfred Schoch killed his other big porker on Wednesday. It weighed 354 pounds.

We call the attention to the rules governing of license in this county published in this issue.

THE COLBY MURDER.—The Life of Luther Shaffer, in book form, containing the only true confession of the culprit of the Colby murder, published by the Williamsport Breakfast Table, will be for sale as soon as issued by the undersigned. Persons desiring copies can secure them of us at 25 cents apiece, or by mail for 30 cents. CHARLES F. MENSCH, (Care of Post) Middleburgh.

The Republicans of Union county will hold their Primary on Saturday, March 24. The candidates thus far announced are Capt. John V. Miller, for Congress, Samuel D. Bates, for Senator, Alfred Hayes and James Ritter, for Assembly, John Klingler, David Gross and Wm. L. Donahy for Sheriff, John F. Dunnean, for District Attorney, John A. Owen, Representative Delegate, Wm. Reichenbach, Calvin Shaffer and Abraham Mowery for Jury Commissioner.

On last Thursday, Adam Martin, of Liverpool, Pa., plead guilty in the United States District Court, to receiving a greater compensation than the law allows for obtaining a pension for a client. The pension was secured for John Seyoc, an aged blind man, living in the mountainous outskirts of the State. It amounted to $32,092.53 and of this sum Martin had received one-half. He entered his plea in the morning, and when called up for sentence in the afternoon, his counsel announced that full restitution had been made. Judge Butler administered a rebuke and imposed a fine of $50 and costs.—Phila. Times.

TO MY FRIENDS.—At the urgent request of many of my friends, and having been informed that Mr. Wittenmyer would not be a candidate for re-nomination for Prothonotary, I allowed my name to be presented in all the Republican papers of the county. But upon canvassing, I have discovered that there is a strong tendency to observe the two term rule, and in deference to the wishes of many active Republicans, I hereby withdraw from the canvass for the nomination as this time, and kindly thank one and all for their words of encouragement and promise of support. I have the honor to remain, yours truly, J. C. SCHOCH

The editor of the Middleburgh Post entertained his readers last week with an article concerning the merits and demerits of various classes of liars; and, for fear the people might think he considered himself a paragon of truth, he complacently states that "the editor of the Post is something of a liar himself." Tom Harter, the editor referred to, is looked upon by the editorial fraternity of the Juniata Valley as the frankest kind of a frank man; and now his brethren of the press can console themselves with the comforting assurance that they are fully justified in their belief.—Port Royal Times.

On last Tuesday whilst attending court at Middleburgh, by invitation we called at the residence of Thomas H. Harter, Esq., editor and proprietor of the Post, better known by the way as Tom Harter, and partook of a square meal which by the way was gotten up in Mrs. H.'s best style. Among the other guests at the table were Mr. & Mrs. Ner B. Middleswarth. We really were ashamed of the manner in which the Sheriff disposed of the delicacies as well as the substantial, we noticed that it also made Charley the "Devil" turn pale with envy. Never mind Charley, only persevere and you will soon be able to do nearly as well as the Sheriff.—Tribune.

John S. Hassinger met with a serious loss on Friday of last week. He had been to Paxtonville where he sold a horse for $170 cash. The money consisted of $50 in gold, two $5 bills, one $50 note and three $20 notes. He had placed the entire amount in his pantalon pocket, started for home, and after leaving Paxtonville and before he reached the bridge (a few hundred yards north of town) he transferred it to his vest pocket. Upon his arrival at home he found the three $20 bills missing. It at once occurred to him that in changing the money from one pocket to the other was where he had dropped it, and he straightway went to look for it but the closest search revealed nothing. Parties had passed over the road, and one party claims to have seen a stranger pick something up near the place where Mr. Hassinger had made the transfer of the money, but the evidence was not positive enough to lead to any discoveries. We hope the finder will be honorable enough to return it to Mr. Hassinger.

A short time ago an honest (?) farmer living near Millburg took a wagon load of eggs to town and peddled them out at holiday prices, and notwithstanding his gulf edged quotations the people were eager to buy, for eggs are scarce, you know. It was fortunate for the rural duck, however, that he made tracks for home before breakfast time next morning when the good cooks of the town proceed to make omelet, ham and eggs, and other like dishes for their morning meal, for the high priced "produce" was found to be far stronger in smell than in food properties—the eggs were spoiled, evidently having been laid by sick chickens. Investigation revealed the fact that the farmer had salted several hundred dozen of his hay now product down on brine last summer when the price was low, but the brine evidently lost its grip, and the bad odor about Millburg followed as a natural result. It is necessary to state that the rural Ajax has not been in town since.—Lewistown Local News.

BANNERVILLE.—On last Sunday morning Mrs. David Kline slipped and fell on the ice breaking her arm.

Master Ira Mitchell while at school in Millin county recently wrestled with a companion when he either broke or dislocated his right arm at the elbow.

Mrs. Joseph Smith recently lost a valuable cow from some disease unknown to our "veterinary surgeons." Calvin Snook also lost a horse in the same manner.

Wm. Reigle will move on the Jackson Baker farm, near McClure in the Spring. D. B. Hassinger will move into his new house and Calvin Snook will take charge of his farm.

REP.

BRAYTOWN.—The residence of Moses Middleswarth, about one mile south of town, was totally destroyed by fire on Tuesday of last week. The fire originated on the garret, and was not discovered until it had assumed proportions beyond control. Help did not speedily arrive, and much of the furniture was consumed. The house was also occupied by his son David, Mr. Middleswarth is now living with his son Frank and David at George Folk's. The insurance on the house is $300.

Geo. O. Smith has been quite sick, but is able to be about again.

William R. Freed has accepted the clerkship in Bowersox's store made vacant by William Youngman. Mr. Youngman, who, for the last five years, has very ably and acceptably filled the position, will take charge of his store at Millheim on the first of April. He is endowed with good business qualities, and, during his long experience as clerk, has thoroughly acquainted himself with all the intricacies of the business. He will doubtless make the enterprise a success. His brother-in-law Irvin Howell, of McClure is partner with him and the firm will be known as Youngman & Howell. Success!

Rev. N. Young has attended the session of the Central Penna. Conference at Lewisburg and was returned to this charge for the third year by the Stationing Committee of that body.

The body of Noah Fike, who two weeks ago was buried at the St. Peter's church, was last week exhumed to appease the clamor of a number of persons who persisted that the body was not dead when buried. The corpse, of course, was found in the exact position in which it had been placed.

A protracted meeting is in progress in the Evangelical church. William Gilbert is now recovering from a serious attack of sickness.

Rev. J. D. Shortles, of Alpine, York county, formerly of this place, visited friends here last week.
