To My Friends.—I take this opportunity of returning my thanks to the citizens of the County, who so generously supported me at the recent Primary Election.

The neck-tie Festival of the Women's Aid Society in the band room on Saturday evening was a success and far exceeded the expectations of even the ladies themselves.

The silk cushion chanced off at Miss M. V. Erdley's Millinery Store on Saturday last was drawn by Miss Annie Meiser of Globe Mills.

Those of our subscribers who have removed this spring, or intend removing, should give us timely notice thereof, in order that they may receive the Post in due time.

Irvin Graybill of Richfield will move to Paxtonville next week where he will open a meat market.

A monster German Carp weighing over 13 pounds was taken out of the waters of the Susquehanna at Selingsgrove one day last week.

The Women's Aid Society now has enough money to buy a first class pulpit outfit. They are fixed like the fellow who had found a watch key and said all he needed now was a watch to fit it.

Sunday is Easter and the boys who hid their hen-fruit in the hay-mow to surprise the old folks on Easter morning will find a delicate canary stripe along each egg from point to point, indicating a fall of the masonry during the last week.

Our little brother of our people have tried for own living to "Chick-er-ra-Ke" chicken there wasn't an inkling in the Post, and are surprised with the satisfactory results on their poultry.

Governor Beaver has issued a proclamation bearing date of March 21, appointing Friday the 27th day of April as Arbor day.

The Middleburgh schools will close with an entertainment in Seebold's hall, Friday evening, April 6th.

The Forester street Lutheran church, Harrisburg, on Wednesday evening decided to call Dr. T. T. Everett to the pastorate made vacant by the resignation of Rev. H. S. Cook.

The following Congressional Conference were elected at last Saturday's Republican Primary: James M. Vanzandt, A. A. Romig, H. Harvey Schoch.

At the meeting of the return judges on Monday the following resolution was adopted which does away with their services: Resolved, that, in accordance with the time-honored rules of the Republican party of Snyder county, we believe it to be right and proper that the candidates for Congress and Senate be allowed to appoint their own committees.

EDEN DEATHS.—On last Saturday night, Mrs. Henry Swineford, of place, after going to bed, was taken ill, of apoplexy, it is believed, and, before the doctor, who had been summoned, had arrived, she had departed. Her age was 64 years, 1 month and 6 days.

At the funeral, which occurred yesterday at 10 A. M., was largely attended by relatives and friends of the family. Saturday last Mr. John Hoeh, of this place, and father of Mr. Albright S. Hoeh of Kelly Twp., was stricken with apoplexy. He was unconscious until death, which occurred on Tuesday morning. His age was about 77 years. He has been a resident of town about two years, and was greatly esteemed. Funeral on Friday at 9 A. M.; services at the house; burial in Middleburgh.

An interesting case was tried over in Union county recently before Judge Bueher. W. N. Baker was tried under the Sunday law of 1794, for selling cigars on Sunday. He claimed that as he was an innkeeper he had a right to sell cigars on Sunday. The Justice of the Peace before whom the case was tried decided that Baker had a right to sell to the guests of his house but not to other persons. Judge Bueher did not take this view of the case but decided that under the law of 1794 no one had a right to sell cigars on Sunday no matter whether he was an innkeeper or not, and no matter whether the person buying them was a guest of the house or not.

Every young man who earns wages ought to buy a lot and make a start for a home. The way to get a start is to save a little money each month and make a payment on your purchase, and so, little by little, pay for your lot and build your house. Don't spend all your money on livery turns-outs and dances and ice cream to please your best girl. After a while you will need a home for that best girl and the youngsters that some way or other generally come around and want to "put up" with you. Put a little of your spare cash into the ground as you go along, and after many days it will bring you a royalty.

William Youngman of Beavertown, and J. Irvin Howell, of McClure, who purchased J. W. Snook's stock of merchandise at Millheim, Pa., will take charge of the stand next week. Mr. Youngman has had seven years experience in the mercantile business, and Mr. Howell is a school teacher, and is acknowledged one of the most thorough and successful instructors in the county. Both are still young men, of quiet habits, honest, sober, industrious, and as substantial as the hills among which they were raised. Our Centre county friends will find them perfect gentlemen and reliable business men—and we ask for them a hearty welcome in their midst.

To all of our readers who would like to invest in a good magazine we would say, get THE COSMOPOLITAN, a large monthly, published by the Cosmopolitan Magazine Co., New York City, at $2 per year. It far exceeds the high-priced magazines and we could not afford to do without it. The March number is one of exceptional merit, profusely illustrated with colored plates and reveals wonderful improvement under its new management. Its contents for March are: "German Opera in New York," "Bull Fighting in Mexico," "My Uninvited Guest," "Dr. Griffith Gramery," "The Dream," "First Steps Towards a Millennium," "Flaming Fire Cannot be Extinguished," "Superstition of the Negro," "Miss Lou," a new serial story by E. P. Roe, and other articles of interest. Send 50 cents and get the March number and you will become a regular subscriber.
