S. B. BLENDEN,
Assembly

Some Lancaster county election officers who conspired to make false returns of a primary election are said and perhaps wiser men now that they have learned that the election laws of the State apply to primary as well as to general election.

The Democratic State Convention of Pennsylvania will meet at Harrisburg on Wednesday, May 23d, 1888, at 10 o'clock, a. m., to nominate a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court, two electors at large and one elector from each Congressional district; to select four delegates at-large and two delegates from each Congressional district to the Democratic National Convention to be held at St. Louis on the 5th day of June, 1888.

An inventory of the late Samuel J. Tilden's cellar reveals the fact that old Sage of Greystone left an assortment of rare wines, choice liquors, etc., the value of which is estimated at between $15,000 and $20,000. Some of these wines date back date back as far as the year 1816, and are valued at $12 per bottle. The contents of Mr. Tilden's cellar in a measure account for the high favor which admission to Greystone was regarded by visiting statesmen. These gentlemen usually know a

To get the Republican nomination for State Senator on this side of the river, Mr. Bolender, of Snyder, should gracefully withdraw and throw his conferees to Capt. Bates, who confidently believes he can land Wolverton on his back at the general election. We believe that either of the three leading candidates—Bates, McClure or John, could curb the bold Senator in his garb for the trophy providing a Republican paper can be found in Northumberland county with enough in its gizzard to get after the god of false promises.—Levinsburg Local News.

The most bitter debate of the season in the U. S. Senate took place on Monday last when Mr. Ingalls made a speech in reply to Senator Voorhees. The Senator from Kansas made one of his usual speeches teeming with bitter sarcasm which caused the Senator from Indiana to loose both his temper and self-respect and use the word, liar, dirty dog, and various other epithets of like nature. Without siding with either one or the other of the disputants, we think it would be much better for them to settle their personal grievances in a more private manner and not defile the halls of our legislative houses with such language that even "Draiser's" Sullivan and Mitchell disdained to use when engaged in combat in the prize ring.

Sixty Thousand Useless Words
'There is no man living,' said a public school teacher the other day, that knows every one of the 75,000 words in Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, nor half, nor a third of them. Nor is there a man that could define them if he were asked. Shakespeare, who had the richest vocabulary used by any Englishman, employed only 16,000 words. Milton could pick out but 8,000, but the average man, a graduate from one of the great universities, rarely has a vocabulary of more than 5,000 or 6,000 words. Right here in Buffalo there are Americans born and bred who contrive to express all their wants and opinions in 300 words, and in the rural districts the knowledge of 150 or 200 words is sufficient to carry a man through the world. So the unabridged dictionary is cluttered up with 50,000 or more technical words that you never hear in ordinary conversation or see in ordinary books and newspapers.—Buffalo Courier.

The highways in Kansas, as well as railways are filled with people looking for homes. It is estimated that the population of the State will be increased by immigration this year many thousands more than for several years, or rather since the early rush was made to Kansas just after the war. The wonderful crop Kansas has produced for several years incites immigration, and there being much unoccupied land in the State, there is no reason why all seeking homes may not find happy and remunerative ones in Kansas, the greatest agricultural State in the west. "Nasby" said that a year ago He is dead now, but he has been all over Kansas and knew perfectly well what he was talking about.—Toledo Blade.

A romantic story comes from Clay-ton county, Ga. Back in '69 one Mann fell in love with a local beauty, and all arrangements for their wedding were made; but subsequently the father-in-law interposed an objection to the young man because of his politics. The bride, too, suddenly became averse to marrying him on that account, and on the day set for the wedding she was united with another snitor. The rejected groom at once disposed of his property in the county and moved to Texas, where he has since lived and is said to have grown rich. About a year ago he visited the scene of his former courtship days to find that his sweetheart had a daughter, aged 18, that bore a most striking resemblance to her mother. He lost no time in proposing to her. She accepted, and last week was set for the wedding—which will make his old-time love his mother-in-law instead of his wife.

Knights of Pythias.
The Supreme Lodge Knights of Pythias of the World will convene in regular biennial session at Cincinnati, O., June 12th, 1888, and remain in session about two weeks.

It is needless to say that the recurrence of this meeting is the most important event, as well as the most interesting occasion, in the history of the brotherhood. Knights from every quarter of the land will be present, and both the public and private ceremonies will be impressive imposing, and interesting.

In order to place the opportunity of attendance within the power of as many of our members as possible, the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. will sell from June 7 to 11th, excursion tickets to Cincinnati, valid for the round trip until July 21, inclusive, at one limited fare for the round trip. Full and particular details as to time of trains, and complete arrangements for the movement of large bodies of Knights, may be procured by addressing the undersigned.

THOMAS E. WATT,
Passenger Agent Western District,
110 Fifth Avenue, Pittsburgh.
The growth of a temperance sentiment in the Republican party during the past three years is one of the most marked features of the times. It has found expression in many states in the enactment of high license and local option laws, in the submission of prohibitory amendments to the Constitution to a vote of the people. Oregon, Michigan and Rhode Island have voted on such amendments, and in the last-mentioned state it was adopted. Since the last presidential election Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan and Pennsylvania have adopted high license laws and put them into operation. The Legislature of New Jersey adopted a high license law a few weeks ago, notwithstanding the veto of a Democratic governor, and the Crosby high license bill is now awaiting the action of another Democratic Governor in New York. The Ohio Legislature at its recent session raised the liquor license fee and the Massachusetts Senate gave its assent recently to a high license measure for that state.

These are all Republican measures as well as the high license laws of Nebraska, Illinois and Connecticut and the prohibitory laws of Kansas, Iowa, Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine. In nearly every instance the Democratic party has solidly opposed the passage of all restrictive measures and when it could not defeat them has thrown every obstruction in their pathway. The Indiana Legislature has been controlled by the Democrats for four years past and it is the only Northern state in which no advance on the temperance question is visible. The identification of the Democratic party with the liquor interests is thus made unmistakable. It has arrayed itself on the side of the saloon and all know where it can be found. The attitude of the Republican party should be just a plain on this question.—Ex.

Notice for Satisfaction of Mortgage.

To Henry Gerhart, Jesse Gerhart, George Gerhart, Daniel Gerhart, Mariah Horst (nee Valentine), Susannah Morrow (nee Valentine), Christina Valentine, John Valentine, Aaron Valentine, Mathias Hughes (nee Valentine), Michael Heubner, guardian of Mattie and Catharine Valentine, their legal representatives. Take notice that at a Court of Common Pleas held in and for the County of Snyder, on the 27th day of April, 1888, the petition of Susannah Gerhart was presented, setting forth that the petitioner and Christina Gerhart, on the 3rd day of March, 1887, executed a mortgage, which is recorded in Mortgage Book No. 1, page 128 and 129, to the other heirs of John Gerhart late of Snyder, now in Snyder County, Pa., to wit: John Gerhart, upon a certain tract of land and mansion house situate in Beaver township, Snyder county, Pa., bounded North by lands of Peter Huggan and by lands of John Kline, East by land of Jacob Drees and West by land of Peter Gerhart, containing sixty (60) acres more or less with the appurtenances, to secure the payment of thirteen hundred and fifty dollars ($1350.00) each to Henry, Jesse, George, Joseph and Daniel Gerhart respectively, each co-defendant, for the payment of $250.00 on or before April 1st 1889, and eight other several bonds in $50.00 each, to Mariah, Susannah, Christina, John, Aaron and Mathias Valentine, the guardian of Mattie Valentine, and to the guardian of Catharine Valentine, each conditioned for the payment of the debt of the said John Gerhart according to the decree of the Orphans' Court of Snyder County, Pa., in the said mortgage, and the relation being thereunto had will more fully appear in the petition, which is on file in the office of the Clerk of the said Court, and at large appear. That payment has been made to the said mortgagee of all moneys due or to become due thereon, and the accompanying bond returned to the petitioner. That none of the said mortgagee except Jacob Gerhart have entered satisfaction upon the record of said mortgage, and the same has remained unsatisfied for over six months, and that a legal proceeding of payment of said mortgage exists from the said mortgagee against the petitioner, who is the sole owner of the mortgaged premises. You are therefore notified to appear before our Justice of the said Court on Monday the 25th day of May, 1888, at 9 o'clock A. M., to answer the petition aforesaid and show cause why the Court should not decree satisfaction of the said mortgage.

JOSEPH FISHEL,
MERCANTILE APPRAISER.
