

Our friends throughout the county will be glad to hear that the county will be held in their respective towns, villages and neighborhoods. Send us the plain facts, and we will dress them up, if need be. Our columns will always be open to those who wish to speak through them on general or local questions of public interest; but we will not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions they may express.

SEVEN COUNTY COURTS.—The Courts of seven counties are held on the fourth Mondays of February, May, and September, and second day of December.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.
Look at the figures on the label of your paper. Those figures tell you THE DATE TO WHICH YOUR SUBSCRIPTION IS PAID. Within 3 weeks after money is sent, if date is changed. No other receipt is necessary.

There's a child among 'em takin' notes, as 'till'n 'em."

To-day (Thursday) is the longest day. The foundation of Schoch's new store room in Franklin is done.

Mrs. James G. Crouse is reported seriously ill. Aaron Crossgrove is painting D. A. Kern's new house. It makes a grand appearance.

WANTED.—A girl to do housework. For particulars apply at the Post printing office.

FOUND.—A bunch of keys in Middleburgh. Owner can have same at Post printing office.

George Deitrich was last week kicked on the mouth by a horse and had fourteen teeth knocked out.

The merchant who has meritorious goods for sale will find the home newspaper a good medium for apprising the public of the fact.

Root and Tinker, of New York, by order of Messrs. J. H. Bonnell & Co., printing ink manufacturers, of that city, are transmitting to the press, excellent portraits of the "Men of Mark," among them Geo. W. Childs, of the Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Rupture cure guaranteed by Dr. J. B. Mayer, 381 Arch St., Phila. Pa. Ease at once, no operation or business delay. Thousands cured. S. F. circular, ft.

Rev. Orwig and family and Dr. J. W. Orwig and family left for Watsonville and Look Haven on Wednesday to spend a short vacation among friends.

It may not be known that you have no right to kill your neighbor's chickens. You may shut them up as strays or sue your neighbor for damages if they trespass on your premises.

By a decision of the Supreme Court, township supervisors are held liable for damages to life or property when objects likely to injure persons or property are allowed to remain in or near the road.

NOTICE.—All order holders against the Borough of Middleburgh are requested to present them for payment to D. A. Kern Treasurer.

By order of Council, A. K. GIFT, Sec.

On Thursday while Roy, a five year old son of J. F. Stetler was playing in the alley he ran up to W. W. Wittenmeyer's horse which kicked at him and knocked him down. The hoof which barely touched him was not sufficient to do any injury.

A son of John K. Hughes, Esq., of Kantz, aged eight years, met with a sad accident of Thursday. While driving a wagon loaded with gravel he unexpectedly came in contact with one of the wheels, which, throwing him to the ground, passed over his leg tearing the flesh from the bone.—Frederick Courier.

The Annual Commencement of the Keystone Academy, at Factoryville, Pa. will take place this week. In the program we see the name of Miss Susie Mensch of this place announced for a Piano solo. Hon. G. Alfred Schoch left yesterday to attend the exercises and accompany Miss Susie home.

Peddlers are thicker than hops; everything is being peddled about town, from a paper of pins to a wholesale supply of groceries. Our advice is to give them all the go by and trade with home merchants who advertise their goods and spend their money to build up the town.

On Monday we received from Judge Bucher, express pre-paid, a beautiful blooded Beagle hound. The Judge knows our weakness for the canine breed, and could not possibly have pleased us better with any present. Should we be successful in capturing any "wounded" deer with the animal this fall the Judge will find out how opinion tastes.

The Thirty-fourth annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State Teachers' Association will meet at Scranton, Pa. July 3, 4, and 5. An interesting and instructive program will be carried out. Scranton is a large and prosperous city and affords rare advantages for pleasure and comfort. Snyder county should be well represented. What is desiring to attend can receive letters for excursion rates from J. W. Sichel, Germantown, Pa.

It is noticeable that where there are good roads the farmers are more prosperous and the farms are more valuable than where the roads are neglected. Good road horses and load-carriages are found where the roads are good, and the people appear to be more contented. It is also noticeable that more money is invested in roads where they are well maintained.

Applicants for the schools of the borough of Selingsgrove will be examined in the High School Building, June 30. Examination will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

CHAS. W. HERMAN,
Co. Supt.
Editors, as a rule, are always kind hearted and liberal. An exchange tells of a subscriber to a certain paper who died and left fourteen years unpaid. The editor appeared at the grave as the lid was being screwed down the last time and put in a linen duster, a thermometer, a palm leaf fan and a receipt for making ice.

The prospects now are for an abundance of apples and grapes, while peaches, plums, pears and other fruits will be very scarce. The wheat fields have greatly improved within the last month, and we will have an abundant harvest. Plenty of hay, corn and potatoes. Oats stands well but is backward and will be short.

On Tuesday the new Campbell Cylinder printing press on which the Post is to be printed arrived at the depot and is now resting there until we have built a foundation in our office on which to place it. It is a monster and weighs over two and three-quarter tons. The Post will appear in a brand new dress on the second week in July and enlarged from its present size to forty-eight columns. There will be no advance in the price of subscription.

The unusual large sales experienced by G. C. Gutelius this spring compels him to send almost daily for new lines in clothing, hats, caps, and gents furnishing goods. In this way he is always enabled to keep up with the latest Metropolitan styles. The ready sales enable him to discount his bills, which is a great saving—the benefit of which goes to his customers. Should you want anything in the clothing line you will save ten per cent. by calling on him.

Alexander Page, son of Alexander Page of Freeburg, who was confined in the Juniata County Jail for forgery broke jail in company with another prisoner on Monday by cutting a pattern of the prison key in a broom stick and molding it out of pewter spoons that came in their possession. The Sheriff of Juniata county re-captured Page Tuesday morning at his parent's home, in Freeburg, where he found him under a bed. The other prisoner is still at large but Page has given him away and the officers will soon have him in hands.

On Monday while the carpenters were raising the roof of the Central Hotel, and while two forty foot lengths of roof were on stils, one side gave way and shot down on the pavement breaking into splinters. The other side also fell, but it rested on the building covering a number of the men and seriously injuring James Entler in the back. Franklin Babb received an ugly scalp wound and Adam Showers sustained slight bruises. Scarcely any of the twenty men escaped without any hurt and it was a miracle that none were killed.

A COMMON-SENSE REMEDY.—In the matter of curatives what you want is something that will do its work while you continue to do yours—a remedy that will give you no inconvenience nor interfere with your business. Such a remedy is Alcock's Porous Plasters. These plasters are purely vegetable and absolutely harmless. They require no change of diet, and are not affected by wet or cold. Their action does not interfere with labor or business; you can toil and yet be cured while hard at work. They are so pure that the youngest, the oldest, the most delicate person of either sex can use them with great benefit.

Beware of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for Alcock's, and let no explanation or solicitation induce you to accept a substitute.

R. F. Brown, W. W. Wolfe and Edward Shanhnessy, of Lewisburg, were out surveying, on the south side of New Berlin mountain, June 7. Returning home, they passed the residence of Spyker Smith, some two or three miles south of Lewisburg. After they had fairly driven past the house a woman in great distress emerged hurriedly through the door, calling frantically to the men "For God's sake! For God's sake, men, come into the house!" They stopped at once, and repaired to the house.

Frank, a son of the owner, aged probably 30 years, confronted them, with his clothing disarranged, and blood oozing from his throat and right side. He attempted suicide by cutting his throat and stabbing himself in the side. Mr. Wolfe, who was an acquaintance, interrogated him as to the cause. He gave his reasons in a rambling, excited manner, that he was about to receive a blessing, and was interrupted by "Cassie," his aunt, the lady who called the men. It was at once seen that he was temporarily insane. Mr. Wolfe, as a friend, tried to reason with him, and dissuade him from his suicidal intent, but he begged for a knife where with to finish the job. When this request was politely refused, he went to a wood pile, picked up an ax, and gave himself a terrible blow on the forehead with the broad side of the implement. The blow felled him as though he had been shot. While he remained thus unconscious, a clothes line was procured, and he was securely bound. He was then persuaded to get into the wagon and take a ride. By much persuasion and trial of patience, he was brought to town and placed in our jail, when it proved necessary to hand him for his own safety and that of those thrown in with him.

On Monday when the roof accident at the Central Hotel occurred, 'Squire Hummel was caught by a nail in the rear below the belt which removed about a yard of doe-skin pantaloons. It was a comical aspect, and though the 'Squire was not in the least hurt physically, his modesty was so terribly shocked that he did not recover until he had backed home.

A novel case was tried in the court at Harrisburg on Monday last. Albert Miller was charged with assault and battery in kissing a young girl against her will. He was found guilty and sent to jail for sixty days. Now, if a law could be manufactured to give a fellow two months for not kissing the girls when they wanted him to, it would suit our damsels first-rate.

WOMEN IN BUSINESS.—In this age of extreme activity and wonderful development, it is a noteworthy fact that many their own way in mercantile life, and successfully compete with men in many lines of business. Women, whether their labor in the household or in the store, are all liable to suffer from functional derangements and the cares of maternity. For all troubles known under the category of "female weaknesses," Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a tonic and tried specific. It relieves the greatest sufferer and restores the patient to vigorous health and strength. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturer, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper and faithfully carried out for many years.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation, biliousness, sick headache, bilious headache, and all derangement of the stomach, liver and bowels.
