

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

When all the world is young and everything is green, And every goose a swan and every lass a queen;

John Howell, of McClure, Snyder county, spent a few days in town with his cousin, J. Irwin Howell.

This town at present is in a state of anarchy—the head of our government, High Chief Burgess, the Right-Honorable John Milton Steinger

Tariff or no tariff is the question. Everybody has a pet theory and a pocket idea. The more you study it the less you will know of it;

Parents who believe that children are incapable of doing a wrong act, and will not believe it when told of it, very often have their eyes opened

A monument was unveiled in California the other day to the memory of the man Marshal who discovered the gold in Captain Sutor's mill race.

Persons who do huckstering should inform themselves of statute laws. It is unlawful to tie the legs of chickens, yet we see that done almost every day by country people

To WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—Notice is hereby given that all persons doing an unlawful business, such as peddling, hawking, &c., in the county after August 10th, 1888, will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

Miss Jennie Bibighaus of this place has secured the agency for a new poetical work entitled "Crown Jewels" which is a valuable book.

Our readers will pardon us for the many mistakes they found in last week's paper. Our help was away from the regatta and the head of the paper was at times editor, printer, and devil—leaving us hardly time to do anything right—and the result as "lousy" proofs.

Many foolish people make themselves offensive in politics to their best friend, and pleasant social relations are often strained or broken by needless party intolerance.

A grand entertainment and picnic will be given by the "Band of Help" in Markley's Grove, Adamsburg, Saturday, August 4th.

Mr. Harter.—Kindly tender my sincere thanks to the Middleburgh Band for their concert at my place on their return from the Sunbury Regatta.

Proprietor National Hotel, Selinsgrove.

Brother Joe of the Tribune asks us in mercy not to look down on him because we are bigger'n he. We have pulled an old hand-press for fifteen years, and have learned in that time not to despise a thing for size alone.

THE BEST TEST OF SUCCESS IS SUCCESS.—Tested and proved by over twenty-five years' use in all parts of the world, ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS have the indorsement of the highest medical and chemical authorities.

"IT MAKES ME TIRED"—to read all these advertisements of medicines upon medicines—when they enumerate with such particularity and minuteness of detail, all diseases mankind, womankind, and even "babykind," are heir to.

Dr. Pierce's Pallets are Laxative or Cathartic according to size of dose. Children catch cross tones quicker than parrots, and they often become permanent habits in them.

Isaac Treaster (the painter) is making the vehicles of this place shine by giving them a new coat of paint.

Sorry red bandanna of McClure was too young to be a vet. in the late war hope he is of age at present.

C. W. Fisher says he has the best and largest crop this season of any since he has been in Snyder Co.

W. H. Knepp is still doing his share at black-smithing these warm days. Billy you must drink plenty of lemonade with a small fly for a floater.

Paxtonville.—It appears that Paxtonville never had any reporter. It is certainly not for the want of news.

Troxelville.—The Troxelville Band Festival was a grand success. The crowd was fully seven hundred strong, and the "Boys" realized a snug little fortune.

Centreville.—We are still here and doing about as well as can be expected these times. Wheat was good here and potatoes full of bugs.

The Festival held by the Union Sunday School, Saturday evening was reasonably well attended. Though intoxicating beverages were not down on the bill of fare, it appears that a few of the out of town boys carried the "nectar" in their pockets.

Recent visitors in town: Mrs. Dr. Mohr, Laurenton, Mrs. J. M. Miller Winfield, Adam Bubb and wife, Dry Valley X Roads, Prof. D. S. Boyer, Ed. B. Bassler, Freeburg, Capt. J. D. Kise, Phila. G. A. Steine, James Bogart, Thompsonstown, H. P. Stuck and wife, Millburg, Miss Ella Snook, Middleburgh.

Lowell.—The late rains have put the farmers back with storing away their grain, but it has done a vast amount of good to the corn and potatoes.

Wm. Krick lost a fine hog on account of a worthless dog worrying it until it died.

Samuel Leitner contemplates building a new dwelling house on his farm to occupy next spring.

Samuel E. Gross, formerly of our twp, has opened a general store in New Berlin.

Dr. Daws and Norton Glover from Selinsgrove in search for a good cow last week secured one from David Wetzel.

Newton Wetzel and Charles Swartzlander were the happy recipients of a little girl and boy respectively.

Foster Smith was unfortunate enough on Saturday morning to fall from the hay mow and dislocate his left shoulder.

Mrs. Capt. C. H. Hassenplug of Millburg is paying a visit to her acquaintances in this place.

The Lowell scribe wants to know who can beat 66 shocks of wheat to the acre. That's pretty good, but J. J. Shrader had 64 shocks with twelve sheaves to the shock on 1/3 of an acre.

John A. Fetteroff, whose veracity I never doubted, says that, judging from the depths of bear-trails in the Seven Mountains the woods is full of them. He also predicts an abundance of deer.

Some of our farmers have already commenced to plow.

Abel Weider has purchased the old orchard at Jack's mountain of Troxel Bros.

A certain young farmer along the west road recently tried to pay off his female hired help in Chinese's wages. Better make a bargain next time.

The corn crop looks well and the oats is beginning to turn in color.

Some of the young men from the west end who attended the festival had better go home and stay there until they are invited back.

Prof. Jim and Trapper Jim have contracted to furnish the logs for Muckel Pitch in, boys, there's millions in it.

Our farmers are nearly done with haying and harvesting. Hay crop is light; the grain is a little more than ordinary good; corn crop is encouraging; potatoes need rain; oats is very short.

Jersey Spangler says his oats is just as long as other years but the straw was so short.

Last week Enos Maurer fell from a cherry tree about twenty-five feet. He was fortunately not much hurt but was not able to do much work for some time.

Newton Wetzel agent, to sell the Keystone & Diamond fertilizers has already secured quite a number of orders and expects to sell several carloads of that stuff.

There will be a festival and cake walk at White Springs, Union County, on Saturday August 4. The Centreville Band will furnish the music. Refreshments of all kinds will be served on the grounds.

KIND WORDS.—Below we print a few of the many kind things said for the Post and its editor by our contemporaries in their last week's issues. Men only attain true greatness by helping others, and this spirit is so prevalent among our brethren in these comments that we take the liberty to call especial attention to it:

Oh! Brother Harter, of the Middleburgh Post, but we were surprised to see your paper last week. No more apple-butter sheets, but as nice and neat as a sixteen year old maiden. Success.—Junata Tribune.

Good for Tom Harter, the active, wide awake and enterprising editor and publisher of the Middleburgh Post, which paper he has just enlarged from a seven column folio to a six column quarto, printed on new type and tipped off with a neat heading. May success always attend him.—Millburg Telegraph.

The Middleburgh Post came to us last week enlarged to eight pages and wearing a handsome new dress. We rejoice at this evidence of prosperity on the part of Brother Harter, and trust that the people of Snyder county may appreciate more than ever the benefits derived by the publication of such a journal in their midst.—Port Royal Times.

The Middleburgh Post, by Thomas H. Harter, has also been improved, having been changed from a folio to a quarto and is printed with new type and press. Like his given name indicates, Harter is full of fight, and belongs to the class that would sooner have "benzene" down to twenty-five cents a quart than bust up monopolies by a moderate tariff reduction.—Lewistown Democrat and Sentinel.

Last week the Middleburgh Post doffed its old rags, washed its smutty face and donned a regular "Sunday suit." When it appeared on our table it fairly took our breath away for a moment or two. But we have again recovered our equilibrium sufficiently to congratulate friend Harter on the manifest improvement he had made and to wish him increased prosperity as his reward.

We elevate our hat and extend to the Middleburgh Post a most cordial welcome. Last week it came to us as a new paper. Being changed from a seven-column folio to a six-column quarto, with a brand new dress, new Campbell power press and a new head, it just "looks too lovely for anything." It is an improvement that the readers will cherish, and bring it to the first rank in country journalism. We congratulate Bro. Harter on his improvements, and being located in a midst where his labors are appreciated, and we congratulate the people on having such a good-hearted, wide-soul fellow who will tell them which is right and which is wrong and enlighten them on the every-day topics. Again, we say welcome to the Post, and we hope that it and Bro. Harter will continue to grow until both will need a new dress.—Lewistown Free Press.

There will be a festival and cake walk at White Springs, Union County, on Saturday August 4. The Centreville Band will furnish the music. Refreshments of all kinds will be served on the grounds.

Squire A. K. Gift and T. H. Harter have entered into a co-partnership for the establishment of a Real Estate and Exchange Agency in Middleburgh. The firm will be known as Gift & Harter, who will contract for the sale or exchange of property, advertise, survey, and convey titles on a percentage. Persons having property which they desire to place on the market will receive prompt attention by addressing us as above stated.
