done by this plan, you are just as monument for all time to thememearnestly requested to adopt it in your various districts. We do not ask teachers to give a slavish obedience to it; indeed there is enough room for individuality. We want pupils to complete the course. It must be an incentive to every boy a mastery of a course will be rewarded. The matter of granting Certificates or Diplomas to those who complete the course will be presented

Teachers and directors, let us put forth every effort that tends to a better gradation of our schools and we will increase the efficiency of them many fold.
