

THE MIDDLEBURGH POST.

T. H. HARTER, EDITOR AND PROP.

MIDDLEBURGH, PA., Sept. 13, 1888.

SEVEN KILLED.

EXCURSION TRAIN WRECKED.

A Connecting Rod of the Passenger Engine Broke, and a Freight Car Crashed into the Train.

The special train on the New York, Pennsylvanian & Ohio Railroad, which left Youngstown Monday forenoon, with 500 people on board, mostly Grand Army men, bound for the National Encampment, at Columbus, was wrecked near Pittman, Ohio. Four persons were killed outright, three others injured so badly that they have since died, and twenty-two others wounded, several badly.

While the train was running through a cut on a steep down grade, one of the connecting rods of the engine broke, and the train came to a standstill. Freight train No. 37 was following so closely that, although a flagman was sent back it could not be stopped. It crashed into the excursion train, plowing its way through and smashing the coaches into splinters.

Most of the passengers. In the rear coaches had time to jump. Engineer B. H. Dillinger jumped, but rolled under the wheels and was ground to pieces. The fireman escaped by jumping. Brockenway, W. E. Cochran was killed, as were Samuel Brown and John H. Shook, member of the Post, G. A. R., of Youngstown, and three of the injured will die of their wounds.

Surgeons from Seville, Sterling and Pittman, Kent and Akron were at once summoned, and the injured were promptly cared for. The majority were promptly brought to Youngstown. A complete list of the killed and injured follows:

- THE KILLED.
 BARNEY BALDWIN, a Union O., engineer of the freight, who jumped against the banked hill back and the wheels of his own engine, his head being cut off.
 WILLIAM COCHRAN, a Union O., brake man of freight train, killed outright.
 JOHN SHOOK, a Youngstown O., member of Post, G. A. R.
 SAMUEL BROWN, Youngstown O., member of Post, G. A. R.
 MISS JANA HICKER, Austintown, seriously hurt internally; since reported to be dead.
 MISS GIVEN, a Union O., seriously and since reported to be dead.
 MRS. WILSON Shook, Pa., wife of the postmaster, injured in back and hip, and since reported to be dead.
 Louis Brown and his wife were burned to death by the destruction of their home on Point river, Michigan. Six children got out safely.

There has been wide-spread damage from frosts to the corn and tobacco crop in Connecticut; and in Berkshire county, Massachusetts, the entire wheat and tobacco crop was destroyed by the frost.

The Texas State Capitol Board refused to receive the building, claiming it is not built in accordance with the terms of the contract. Messrs. Farwell & Taylor, of Chicago, were to receive 3,000,000 acres of land for the building. They have been given title to all but 500,000 acres. This amount the State holds as a trust until the contract is fully complied with.

Isaac Waller, one of the proprietors of the Corryville Coal Company, at Shelburn, Ind., died suddenly. A few hours afterward his wife suddenly expired, although she had been apparently well. One of the children is now at death's door from the same mysterious disease.

A flood in the New River, W. Va., carried away the big iron bridge of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad at Grand View, involving a loss of $50,000. A great deal of other damage is reported.

Fire work originated in the sash and door factory of D. S. Huber & Crocker, on Main street, San Francisco, destroyed two entire blocks of buildings, and a number of other houses more. The loss is estimated at $1,500,000. The fire started from a spark dropped among tin snippers.

Complete returns from a Vermont gives Dillingham a plurality of 28,904, and a majority overall of 37,670.

At Point Strev, Michigan, Louis Brown and wife were burned to death. Their children escaped.

John R. McElm, of Cincinnati, has bought the New York Star, and will take possession at once.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF

W. B. Merriman was nominated for Governor of Minnesota, by the Republicans, and Charles H. Amelien was nominated for the same office by the Democrats in New Hampshire.

The American Minister at Shanghai was attacked by a mob of natives, who did not like the treaty submitted to them concerning immigration.

Ten ballot boxes were stolen from the County Clerk's office at Little Rock, Ark., causing intense excitement, especially among the negroes, who gathered in great numbers, and for a time a riot seemed imminent. Masked men stole the ballot box from Old River township, killing one man and wounding six others. A militia company is to be formed to preserve the peace.

The large mound, about a mile west of Newcomerstown, O., has just been opened by W. C. Mills, Secretary of the Tuscarawas Valley Archaeological Society. So far 323 rather well-preserved human skeletons have been found, being seven feet under ground, and under them was a bed of charcoal mingled with charred human bones. Knives, scrapers of flint, muscle shell ornaments, stone beads and pieces of burned brick were found.

A Negro Desperado.

At Norfolk, Va., a negro named Coleman nearly cut off the head of James Grant, his employer, while milking, and, after hiding the body, enticed Mr. Grant's housekeeper, Mrs. Head, into the yard, and stabbed her two or three times in the neck. She fainted, but revived and dragged herself two hundred yards to the road, where she was found. Coleman, after the murder, rifled the house and made his escape. An excited crowd are hunting for him, and if found he will be immediately lynched.

CLEVELAND'S LETTER.

AGAIN HE URGES TAX REFORMATION.

He Adheres Fully to the Tariff View Expressed in His Message and Put into Shape in the Mills Bill.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8, 1888.

To Hon. Patrick A. Collins, and others, Committee:

GENTLEMEN—In addressing to you my former message, the condition of the Presidency of the United States, my thoughts persistently dwell upon the impressive relation of such action to the American people, whose confidence is thus invited, and to the political party to which I belong, just entering upon a contest for continued supremacy.

It is of the highest importance that those who administer our Government should justly protect and maintain the rights of American citizens at home and abroad, and should strive to achieve for our country her proper place among the nations of the earth; but there is no people whose home interests are so great, and whose numerous objects of domestic concern deserve so much watchfulness and care.

Among these are the regulation of a sound financial system suited to our needs, thus securing an efficient agency of National wealth and general prosperity; the construction and equipment of means of defence, and the maintenance of our National safety and honor; the protection of our National domain, still stretching beyond the needs of a century's expansion, and its preservation for the nation and the pioneer of our marvelous growth; a sensible and sincere recognition of the value of American labor, leading to the scrupulous care and just application of the interests of our workmen; the limitation and check-restriction of monopolistic tendencies and schemes which interfere with the advantages and benefits which the people may rightly claim; a generous regard and care for our surviving soldiers and sailors, and for the widows and orphans of such as have died; to the end that while the appreciation of their services and sacrifices is quickened, the application of their pension fund to improve cases may be prevented; protection against a servile immigration, which injuriously competes with our laboring men in the field of toil, and adds to our population an element ignorant of our institutions and laws, impossible of assimilating with our people, and dangerous to our peace and welfare; a strict and steadfast adherence to the principles of Civil Service Reform; and a thorough execution of the laws passed for their enforcement, thus permitting to our people the advantages of unimpeded trade and free competition of their Government; the guaranty to all our colored citizens of all their rights of citizenship, and their just recognition and encouragement in all things pertaining to that relation; a firm, patient and humane Indian policy, so that in peaceful relations with the Government, the civilization of the Indian may be promoted with resulting quiet and safety to the settlers on our frontiers, and the curtailment of public expense by the regulation of economical means in every department of the Government.

STANDS ON THE ST. LOUIS PLATFORM.
 The pledges contained in the platform adopted by the late Convention of the National Democracy lead to the advancement of these objects and insure good government—the aspiration of every true American citizen, and the basis for every patriotic action and effort. In the consciousness that much has been done in the direction of good government by the present administration, and submitting its record to the fair inspection of the countrymen, I endorse the platform thus presented, with the determination that, if I am again called to the Chief Magistracy, there shall be a continuance of devoted endeavor to advance the interests of the entire country.

Our scale of Federal taxation and its consequences largely engross at this time the attention of our citizens, and the people are severely considering the necessity of measures of relief.

The cost of the Government must continue to be met by tariff duties collected at our customs houses upon imported goods and by internal revenue taxes, assessed upon spirits, and malt liquors, tobacco and oleomargarine.

DISCUSSING THE TARIFF.
 It appears it is needless to explain that all these duties and assessments are added to the prices of the articles upon which they are levied, and thus become a tax upon all those who buy these articles for use and consumption. I suppose, too, it is well understood that the effect of that tariff taxation is not limited to the consumers of imported articles, but that the duties imposed upon such articles permit a corresponding increase in the price paid upon domestic productions of like quality, which increase is paid by all our people as consumers of home production and entering every American home, constitutes a form of taxation as certain and as inevitable as though the amount was annually paid into the hands of the tax gatherer. These results are inseparable from the plan we have adopted for the collection of our revenue by tariff duties. They are not mentioned to discredit the system, but by way of preparing the statement that every million of dollars collected at our custom houses for duties upon imported articles and paid into the public treasury represents many millions more which, though being received by the National Treasury, is paid by our citizens as the increased cost of domestic productions resulting from our tariff laws.

In these circumstances, and in view of this necessary effect of the operation of our plan for raising revenue, the necessity of curtailing the rate of tariff charges to the necessities of a frugal and economical administration of the Government seems to be perfectly plain. The continuance upon a protest of mounting expenditures, the necessity of curbing tariff taxation on articles from the substance of the people's sum largely in excess of public needs, is surely something which, under a Government based upon justice, and which binds its strength and usefulness in the faith and trust of the people, ought not to be tolerated.

Unnecessary taxation burden taxation. And yet this is our condition. We are annually collecting at our custom houses and by means of our internal revenue taxation many millions in excess of all legitimate public needs. A conspicuous example of this remains in the National Treasury a surplus of more than one hundred and thirty millions of dollars. No better evidence could be furnished that the people are exorbitantly taxed.

DANGERS OF A SURPLUS.
 In reviewing the bad effects of this accumulated surplus and the scale of tariff rates by which it is produced, we must not overlook the tendency towards gross and scandalous public extravagance which a congested treasury induces, of the fact that we are maintaining, without excess, in a time of general peace, substantial increases in the tariff duties imposed in time of war when the necessities of the Government justified the imposition of the weightiest burdens upon the people.

We believe that the same means which are adopted to relieve the Treasury of its present surplus and prevent its recurrence, should be chosen to our people the extent of supplying their daily wants. Both of these objects we seek in part to gain by reducing the present tariff rates upon the necessities of life.

We fully appreciate the importance to the country of our domestic industrial enterprises. In the rectification of existing wrongs, their maintenance and prosperity should be carefully and in a friendly spirit considered. Even such reliance upon tariff revenue arrangements as have been invited or encouraged should be fairly and justly regarded. Abrupt and radical changes which might endanger such enterprises, and injuriously affect the interests of labor dependent upon their success and continuance, are not contemplated or intended.

But we know the cost of our domestic manufactured products is increased, and their price to the consumer enhanced by the duty imposed upon the raw material used in their manufacture. We know that the tariff now prevents the sale of our productions at foreign markets in competition with those countries which have the advantage of free raw material. We know that confined to our home market our manufacturing operations are curtailed, their demand for labor irregular, and the rate of wages paid uncertain. We propose, therefore, to stimulate our domestic industrial enterprises, by freeing from duty the imported raw materials which by the employment of labor are used in our home manufactures, thus extending the market for their sale, and permitting an increased and steady production, with the allowance of abundant profits.

True to the undeviating course of the Democratic party, we will not neglect the interest of the labor and our workmen. In all efforts to remedy existing evils, we will furnish no excuse for the loss of employment or the reduction of the wages of honest toil. On the contrary, we propose, in any adjustment of our revenue laws, to encourage such encouragement and to provide for their employment of our domestic labor as will easily compensate for any difference that may exist between the standard of wages which should be paid to our laboring men and the rate allowed in other countries. We propose to open up the markets for our manufacturers, by cheapening the cost of the necessities of life, we increase the purchasing power of the workmen's wages, and add to the comforts of his home.

THE QUESTION OF TRUSTS.
 Such combinations have always been condemned by the Democratic party. The declaration of its National Convention is sincere and no member of our party will be found excusing the existence or bolting the wrongs of the nation. We believe that these trusts are the natural offspring of a market effectually restricted; that an inordinately high tariff, besides furnishing an undue advantage to the manufacturer, enlarges the limit within which they may operate against the people, and thus increases the extent of their power for wrongdoing. With an unshakable hatred of all such combinations, and with a sincere regard for the interests of our people, we are desirous to relieve the country from the injustice and danger of a combination which threatens evil to all the people of the land.

Of course, in a country as great as ours, with such a wonderful variety of interests, often leading in entirely different directions, it is difficult, if not impossible, to settle upon a perfect tariff plan. But in accomplishing the reform we have entered upon, the necessity of which is as obvious, I believe, we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of internal tax upon whisky. It can be better and more safely done within the lines of granting actual relief to the people in their means of living, and at the same time giving an impetus to our domestic enterprises and furthering our national welfare. If misrepresentations of which it is so obvious, I believe we should not be content with a reduction of revenue involving the prohibition of importations and the removal of