MAINE 20,000 REPUBLICAN

Reports of Tuesday's election in Maine give the Republicans a majority of 20,000—double the amount conceded by the democrats, and one-fourth more than was expected by the most sanguine Republicans. It is the largest Republican majority in the state since 1866, and is accepted as a "political revolution." The Prohibitionists cast 154 votes.

For starving Ireland, Levi P. Morton gave $50,000.

For suffering Charleston, Grover Cleveland gave $29.

For MY re-election, Grover Cleveland gave $30,000.

Grover Cleveland enmeshed on the rebel flag business; he crawled on the civil service reform; he crawled in regard to the second term; he enmeshed on the Canadian fishery question; he wants to crawl on the tariff question.

The old "Harrison Almanac" of 1840 contains a great deal of matter that is strictly pertinent and timely for the second Harrison campaign. For instance, those questions and answers:

"Who will vote the Van Buren ticket?"

"All who wish to see the price of wages reduced to a level with that paid in Europe, and who prefer the interests of the office holders to the interests of people."

"Who will vote the Harrison ticket?"

"All who believe that the condition of our workmen has been better than that of the workmen of Europe, and who wish it to remain so!"

Have you heard the news from Vermont? Plurality for Governor Dillingham 30,000.

Republican gain, 12 per cent.

Democratic loss, 6 per cent.

Prohibition loss, over 11 per cent.

No solid issues in the campaign, Protection alone did it. The Democratic party eliminated from the State Senate and partially so from the House.

The refrain, across the Rocky Mountains, from Oregon, is reached back from Vermont! Now let the sisterhood of States join in the grand chorus of November next and with a long pull, a hard pull and a pull altogether, victory is ours. The victory will want work, from honest hard workers and with it the result will not be doubtful. So "up and at em."

Every Republican in the county, and Democrat as well, should attend the political meeting to be held in Middleburgh on Tuesday of court week.

The Surplus Has Disappeared.

Just to think that after all this noise and lurid speeches, after these months of skipping about in the shadows with a dark lantern to evade inquiry, after all Mr. Cleveland's ponderous wisdom about it being "a condition and not a theory that confronts us"—after all this, there isn't going to be any surplus, anyhow! According to the President, millions on millions were being piled up in the Treasury at the rate of a million a week, and we are all being ruined through the Custom House. Now, when the Democratic Congress has got well along in its work of spending the public treasures it appears that the surplus will be only about twelve millions, which if the Mills bill were to be passed and to result in its operation as its advocates say it will, must be turned into a deficit of sixty millions! This is a dreadful situation. It calls up Mr. Mills to ask the house to withdraw his bill. He has been legislating to meet a condition, and it turns out to be only a theory. The capacity of the Democratic party to scatter the public money was not taken into account.

The Prohibition Party.

ED. POST.—I have read with interest your reckless analysis of our Prohibition Party in your last issue, and desire to reply to your question as to what we have done as a party to promote the cause of Prohibition. Your assertion that a "few noble men, have, by lending their names and influence to the party given it whatever standing it has in the confidence of the people," is true, and we insist on all "noble men" doing the same to increase this confidence. But we deny that this confidence "pests souly" on a few, but assert that this class of men in our party can be numbered by the tens of thousands instead. We affirm, also, that this confidence is due mostly to what it intends and promises to do when in power, viz: to kill the public liquor traffic by prohibition enforced instead of prolonging its life by license—the policy of the old parties—and not as you affirm to the "few noble men in our party." We also deny that there is a different class of men in the party from those you call noble, and should like to hear of a single instance where the party's high standard has been debased through the pulling of wires or the bagging of game. At our State Convention in Harrisburg, a call was made for all the preachers, Sunday Schools, superintendents and church members to rise, and when this class took the floor there were very few of the 500 delegates left sitting. Can any other party show such a record? We have no saloon-keepers, brewers, distillers, or Bob-Ingersolites in our ranks. Have you?

Again, You denounce us and say: "They never did any good—no bravery, all brag," etc., and blame us as being disastrous to the cause of Prohibition. You say the Democratic party praises us and we like it," and many other similar assertions to which we briefly reply: We never made any laws nor enforced them directly, and no party ever did until it had the power. We are now building up a party to enforce completely a Constitutional law—something that neither of the old parties ever can or will do, as the saloon men are about equally divided between them. Were the Prohibition martyrs, Watson, Smith, Haddock, and others, six in number, were they bogus or were they brave? Would they have been slain as Democrats or as Republicans? And why not?

Publish one disaster that the Prohibition party caused and we will prove to you that the Republican party is responsible for Michigan's failure, Oregon's failure, Iowa's failure and the failure to enforce the Rhode Island amendment. Our party is the only one that ever contributed thousands of dollars into the fight to carry a Constitutional Amendment.

In Michigan's contest not a single Republican daily dared to work in favor of the amendment, and in one district there were more votes cast against the amendment than the number of voters in the district. Are we to blame for that? The Republican papers defeated us in Oregon. The difference between the vote for Prohibition and for our party is no argument against us but for us as it shows there are enough men in favor of the principle in this county to control this government and destroy the saloon just as soon as we can get them united in a solid Prohibition National Party.
