Atkinson Nominated

The Republican Conferees of this, the 18th Congessional district, who met in one of the Capital Rooms, erving of your hearty support. Harrisburg, Oct. 2, nominated Hon. L. E. Atkinson, the present member, on the 181st ballot. They had a lively time of it. Not having effected a nomination on the evening of the first day, notwithstanding then having cast 154 ballots, the candidates met and agreed to dissolve the conferees from any obligations to vote for any particular man, thus leaving them free to vote as they pleased. This had no effect whatever other than causing some very erratic voting. On the morning of the 3d, when the conferees again met they began balloting at once. There were numerous jumps for this and that candidate, and several times one or the other of the favored ones came within an ace of getting there. At last on the 181st ballot Juniata, Huntingdon and Fulton cast three votes each for Hon. L. E. Atkinson, the present Congressman, and Union followed it up with two votes for the same gentleman, thus effecting his nomination. Franklin (3) went to Gehr, Snyder (3) went to Potter, Mifflin (3) to Culbertson, and one Union man stood out for Miller. The vote was 11 to 10 in Atkinson's favor. The nomination was made unanimous, and the conference adjourned. Mr. Atkinson is a statesman of intelligence and ability, and is recognized throughout the district as one of the best Congressmen that ever represented the counties composing it. The selection is an eminently judicious one, and shows that the district favors retaining a good man in place. Mr. Atkinson was first elected in 1882, when he had a plurality over his Demscratic competitor of 730, and a majority of 303 over all. In 1884 the people were so pleased with him that they ran his majority over all up to 2,403, In 1886 Mr. Atkinson defeated his Democratic opponent by 3,247, and had a majority over all of 2,650, thus provthat his constituents think he is the right man in the right place. A man of broad views, gifted and bright, Administrator.

Administrator. his course in Congress has always

W. W. Wittenmyer has a clean THE ONLY walk-over in the Prothonotaryship this fall. His straight-forward mode of transacting the business of his office during this, his first term of office, was so satisfactory that the opposition dispaired of nominating a man against him. That is the sunny side of politics, and is a case of true merit rewarded.

H. J. Duck, the Republican candidate for Register and Recorder, and the present incumbent, has shown himself an officer worthy of the confidence of the people who elected him. His close application to the business of his office—the prompt discharge of his official duties-his social excellence and treating in his official capacity, democrat and republican alike, has made him hosts of friends in both parties, who will on Nov. 6th, next, give him an overwhelming majority.

H. E. Miller the Republican nominee for District Attorney is known over the county as a young man of superior legal ability, honest and upright in his dealings, kind and agreeable in his manners. He will guard our public interests and prosecute crime to secure fitting punishments for the transgressors. His election will be a credit to the county.

Henry Brown, who will occupy a seat on the "pulpit of justice" in Snyder County for the next term as Associate Judge, is a man of fair legal ability and possessed of that valuable gift of good common sense upon which the dispensation of justice is founded. He is known as an honest, conscientious citizen, a working man who will understand and sympathise, with the people over whom he will assist in holding the "scales of justice." A soldier of exceptionally good military record, and a Republican. The President Judge being a Democrat, it is but justice to ask that the two subordinates be men of the opposite party. Few men in the Republican party are more deserving of political preferment, and as such it is the duty of every Republican to stand by him and not only vote but work earnestly for his election.

Z. Taylor Gemberling the Repub. lican candidate for Jury Commissioner is a man of good judgment, honest, and intelligent. A man who is worthy and well qualified for the duties of the important office, vote for him, work for him; he is most des-

This being a campaign of honor where political shysters and political liars are to be stamped into silence with the iron heel of contempt, it is hardly fitting to stoop to the indignity of recognizing the Democrat who is sailing through the county under the nom de plume of "Republican," charging Hon. A. S. Helfrich with opposing certain of our Republicans in the last campaign and discouraging the candidacy of Hon. L. E. Atkinson for Congress. Those who were in the political swim of the last campaign know very well that Mr. Helfrich did not oppose any Republican candidate. That he informed Mr. Atkinson of Mr. Potter's strength is nothing impolitic, for the party in this county did stand by him to the last and had he received the nomination for congress the county would have given him a tremendous vote. If Mr. Helfrich is a ring candidate, pray tell us who constitutes the ring and where are its bounds? We answer, the people of Snyder county constitutes it and the geographical lines the county's limits bind it. You cannot find fault with his record as a representative. Now don't disgrace this thus far respectable campaign by dragging the candidates into a dirty political whirl-
