Old and Reliable Clothing House!

CHEAP CLOTHING is a term that has been more misapplied than any other term used in Clothing advertisements. Some Clothiers think all that is necessary to do a rushing bus iness is to put a lot of inferior goods on their tables, mark a price on them and business will boom. The thought never enters their heads that this is the very cause of their business get-ting the "dry rot." The old adage. 'A burnt child dreads the fire," is the cause of their failure. They never sell a second suit to the same party they never get the influence of a pur chaser. The best advertisement business man can put out is "I bought my suit of Dreifuses' it's a good one, and the price is right." That advertisement doesn't cost us one cent. We have Thousands of these standing advertisements on the backs of citizens of this Co. and every day New Ones are being added, and every new one spreads the news that ours is the only CHEAP CLOTHING HOUSE in the County.
