Chestnutt's Cash Store!

Eighteen months ago I began the contest for public patronage with a light pocket-book but hopeful heart, regardless of an army of rival merchants—strong in experience and capital. Their weak spot: their credit system; my only strength: my cash rule—trust to no one, peasent or king. In this merchants' warfare, "Cash against Credit," 96 victories out of a hundred are won by Cash! The Cash man on top, the Credit man under. Now I declare and mean to make my prices prove my decleration, that a strictly Cash Store can and does charge from 5 to 15 per cent. less profit than any store that gives credit, and as there is but one strictly cash store in many counties there is the place to buy for people who have cash to spend, and that place is Chestnutt's One Price Cash Store.

A 25 mile return trip ticket costs you $1.15, a 12-mile ticket 50 cents, a 6-mile 25 cents. If you buy but a $6 bill you save $1.15, a $3 bill saves 50 cents, a $1.50 saves the 25 cent fare and for every dollar you buy above your fare you make from 5 to 20 cents. Don't it pay to join the crowd and buy your bills of Dress Goods, Carpet, Blankets, Haps, Flannels, Ladies' and Children's Coats, Linens, Notions, &c. at a Cash Store?

Just compare these prices with your home Stores:

Best blue and black Calico for 6c, 9c Muslin for 8c, 8c for 7½ 7c for 6½; best Ginghams 6 to 8c; Century Cloth 8½c; 25 cent Red Flannel at 23 cents; 50 cent all wool Dress Cloth at 32c; the same 36 inches at 25 cents; 50 cent Black Cashmere at 45 cents—200 yards Jean Pants Stuff worth 22 cents at 16 cents; Blankets 80 to 90c; Haps 75, 85, and 95 cents; 20 cent Carpet at 12½; Home-made Rag 25 cents, Brussels 52 cents, 75 cent Kid Gloves for 50 cents; Ladies' Coats $1 74, Childrens' $1.50.

Will tell you more next time. Watch for us and come at once to see for yourself; and if we misrepresent one thing never come again.

Don't think because the prices are so much lower than at other house that the goods is inferior. Wear will tell and we are willing at all times t stake one reputation on what we recommend.

Old and Reliable Clothing House!

CHEAP CLOTHING is a term that has been more misapplied than any other term used in Clothing advertisements. Some Clothiers think all that is necessary to do a rushing business is to put a lot of inferior goods on their tables, mark a price on them and business will boom. The thought never enters their heads that this is the very cause of their business getting the "dry rot." The old adage. "A burnt child dreads the fire," is the cause of their failure. They never sell a second suit to the same party; they never get the influence of a purchaser. The best advertisement a business man can put out is: "I bought my suit of Dreifuses' it's a good one, and the price is right." That advertisement doesn't cost us one cent. We have Thousands of these standing advertisements on the backs of citizens of this Co. and every day New Ones are being added, and every new one spreads the news that ours is the only CHEAP CLOTHING HOUSE in the County.
