Benjamin!

ME BOY.

You Got There!

THIS IS A ROOSTER!

OH! ENGLAND!

'TIS THE KNIFE OF VIVISECTION WHICH SEPARATED THE COLONIES FROM THEIR UNNATURAL MOTHER!

Tuesday's Election!

Tuesday's election turned out to be a Republican cyclone. Snyder county elected its Rep. ticket with majorities ranging from 543 to 976.

Every Northern state went Republican except New Jersey, which is still in doubt.

New York, Indiana, and Connecticut, which had been looked upon as the pivotal states, all went Republican with majorities ranging from four to twenty thousand.

The indications are that Congress will be Republican.

Samuel D. Bates, Republican candidate for Senator, will cross the Susquehanna River with thirteen hundred majority from Union and Snyder counties. Northumberland county will give Hoffa, the Democratic candidate, six hundred majority—leaving Bates a plurality of about seven hundred.

Louis E. Atkinson, our Republican candidate for Congress will be elected by about 3,000.

Hon. Aaron S. Helfrich will go to Harrisburg as our representative with a respectable majority, his record vindicated and his course endorsed.

Pennsylvania will go Republican by one hundred thousand, more or less, with all its appurtenances there-to belonging.

It is all over. The next President has been elected, and now that the smoke of battle is cleared away we have only congratulations for both sides—for our own that Republican principles are once more victorious, and for our friends, that, with the courage of their convictions, they favored us with a square fight on a clear issue. The country will quickly recover its usual business activity, and enter upon a new period of prosperity under a Republican administration, which will insure a liberal policy to the country at large. The retiring administration will carry away the full respect of the people for whatever measure of good government it has furnished, and the incoming one will inspire the world with new hope in American ideas as voiced and illustrated by the Republican party.

LOWELL.—Some of the farmers are through husking corn. Others say the weather is too warm to store much away at one time.

I suppose by this time some of the candidates are contented, others disappointed as it is always the rule after they find out who are their friends and who are not.

The pumpkin crop is a failure in our parts on account of wet weather. H. M. Ullsh is home on a visit from New York. He expects to remain a week or so.

W. H. Knepp has a contract of ironing a big four horse wagon for a party who intend going in the prop business.

I hear some talk concerning the S. & W. railroad. Hope it will be put through as soon as possible.

School teaching in Mifflin county, I see has some effect in fattening our Snyder county teacher, as he looks robust and stout. Perhaps the grub is pork and beans with smear-case for desert.

An occupant of McClure city reports the town improving, as they can show Canada thistles and blackberry stalks 14 feet high.

C. W. Fisher reports having raised on about one-fourth of an acre of ground without manure, 25 bushels sweet potatoes, 38 bushels sour potatoes, a lot of tomatoes and 2 rows of sweet corn. Next.

Adam Baumgardner had the misfortune of cutting his foot while cutting props for Leisinger & Co., but at this writing is able to be out again.

Harden, why is it you don't visit Troxelville as you used to do? Jake seems to be a nice clever fellow or is it on account of—Oh, well. U. No.

FREEDBURG.—News scarce this week.

Mrs. Jacob L. Moyer of Russell Colorado is visiting with her mother Mrs. Margaret Boyer.

Do not forget the Teachers' Institute in the Academy on next Friday evening. All lovers of education should go there and take an active interest and help to further the cause of education.

The Literary Society in Heister's Valley, near Freemont is in a booming condition. They had a full house last Saturday evening of old and young people and all took an interest in the various exercises.

The Republican meeting on last Thursday evening was a success. They had marched in procession. After the parade they assembled in the Music Hall and were entertained by several good speeches.

Our town schools are doing well.

Ben. Arnold, our townsman, made a business trip to Union, Northumberland, Clinton and Lycoming counties. He says that times are brisk all along the line.

Quite a number of our candidates were in our town last week looking up for the last time their election interests.

Our Library is doing fine work, a great interest is manifested in the same by the members.

Our townsman, J. W. Haas, who is teaching at Fisher's Ferry, Pa., reports favorably. He has 32 pupils on roll and averages 25 so far, which is good for a country school.

NOTICE TO HEIRS.
