RICHFIELD.—(Deferred from last week.)
S. V. Mills' are now residing in the use vacated by Stites'. Their daughter, Myra, returned from Lanster County on Sunday.

Rev. Yarkers, the minister of the B. church, is holding a protracted meeting here, which has been in progress the last three weeks. Two mitents are at the Altar.

Amos Graybill, who has, for the year been in South Bend, Indiana, was again welcomed to the family circle" on Thursday last.

Our teacher of the advanced school, P. G. Shelly is doing all in his power to advance and modernize id school. We pupils are being practiced on Letter Writing, Business Forms, and the progress we make in Literature really surprises us. The school takes a Philadelphia daily paper. We shall be glad to show our Cabinet "Curiosity Box," we call it, to any one who will call on us.

Mr. Richart's house is being sided, he hammering being so close to the school room, really annoys us more an a little.

Our school will be closed next week, Dec. 10-14, on an account of the County Institute, (Juniata) This ill give the boys a chance to set their traps and gogunning, of course the girls' fun will be more serious, leading to home duties, dish-wash- ing for instance, so delightful, so esthetic.

CHESTNUT'S WINTER!

The above gives you a faint idea of the many different lines of goods and the small prices you must pay me for them. By firmly maintaining my strict cash rule, trust to no one, I can, and now declare do, sell my merchandise for less profit than any old credit store, and am now the only one in four counties who has this advantage. Every article is marked in plain figures and only one price to all. Your children can buy either from y employees or self as cheap as adults. An extra force of salesmen and ladies have been employed for the holiday rush that has begun and none need again leave for want of some one to serve them.

Are you still buying at your old place just because you have got used to it? Stop long enough to look in upon me and price my stock. Buy or not buy, it is a pleasure to show you my stock. If this you do your old friend will have to drop his old time profit or Chestnut's cash store will have to drop his old-time profit or Chestnut's Cash Store will get a new customer.

Carpets traded on rags; goods on eggs, wool, or cash. Trusting you will read, believe and heed, I remain the public servant,
