In the above table official returns are given for most of the States. Reports from Colorado state that the total vote cannot be given until the State Canvassing Board meets. Harrison's plurality in that State, however, is estimated at 12,643. In the above table Cleveland has a plurality of 110,881, not counting Colorado; if the estimated plurality for Harrison in Colorado is added to Cleveland's plurality is reduced to 18,361. Omitting the vote of Colorado, the above table shows that since 1864 the Republican vote has increased by 470,108 in the thirty-seven States, the Democratic by 449,440, and the Prohibition vote by 95,383, while the Union Labor party gave 30,444 less for Streeter than the Greenback party did for Butler in 1884. The total combined Labor vote will be somewhat lower than 30,444 when all the returns of the United Labor party for Crowder are made. Outside of Colorado the total vote of the four leading parties was 10,868,454, against 9,985,105 in 1884, an increase of 882,349.

The State giving the highest plurality for Harrison is Kansas (79,961), followed closely by Pennsylvania (79,458), and Minnesota next (56,465). Texas gives the largest plurality for Cleveland (186,993), with Alabama next (60,113), and Georgia a close third (60,029).

HOGS.
The supply of hogs on Monday was in excess of the demand and the market ruled slow, with several loads left unsold Tuesday, with liberal receipts, prices were fully 5c lower than early sales on Monday. To-day the supply was light and the market 5c higher on Yorkers, while Philadelphia was slow sale at the following quotations: Philadelphia, $5 15 to 5 25; Yorkers, $5 10 to 5 15; good mix, $4 85 to 4 95; common to fair Yorkers, $4 90 to 5 00; rough, stags and sows, $3 50 to 4 75.
SHEEP.
The receipts of sheep were fair and mostly all common to medium, which were very low and a steady demand was noticed. Sales are made only at full prices, and the prospects of the market were never better. Ohio and Pennsylvania fleeces are held at 33 to 34 for No. 1 and 32 and 33 for No. 2. No. 1 good Michigan fleeces can be bought at 25, many holders demanding 30c, but the latter has not yet been paid. Sales of New York and Wisconsin X fleeces are reported at 31 to 32c. Combing wools are strong and in small supply. They are held at 38 to 40c for No. 1 washers and 30c to 32c for one-fourth and three-eighths blood, unwashed. Ohio fine decline is firm at 36 to 37c, and Michigan do at 35 to 40c. Territory, Texas and California wools have been selling on a secured basis of 45 to 50c, as to quality. Felled wools command full prices, and foreign grades are very firm.

Do We Know Ourselves.

The invention of the photograph and graphophones has brought out the singular fact that few persons, if any, know their own voice. When several persons in succession have spoken into one of these machines, each may recognize in its reproductions the voice of a friend or acquaintance, but not identify his own. An analogous phenomenon has been observed in the matter of sight by photographers, who satisfy in a likeness everyone but the original. Thus it seems that we not only do not see ourselves as others see us, but we do not hear ourselves as others hear us.

The New Year.

The hour has come! Twelve solemn tones from out that tower have said, And echo has confirmed each word, and as A guest whose stay with us is over, on his departure, meets a coming friend, upon The threshold of our door—we go to bed. Not return, the other to remain to Gladness as a while—the old year meets The new, they slip away to come no more Forever.

The river seems to flow Unmindful of it all. The dark hills look Upon a scene, which centuries ago, Was old to them. The stars are not to note The change, but to mark it is a moment With an age of solemn meaning. No time Within the year so closely criss the thoughts Of all men into union; Life, Death And immortality the knotted themes.

Little Boy—Mamma, is aunt Mary my auntie or papa's? Mamma—She is yours, my boy. Why? Little boy—O, coz. Ain't she a good woman? Mamma—Certainly. I didn't quite understand.—Told Sunday Journal.

A correspondent says that while deers-talking with the Emperor of Austria in Styria, the Prince of Wales missed five stags, at which his Imperial Majesty, who is a dead shot, nearly wept. After the Prince had gone to Hungary, a keeper was sent to him with a set of antlers belonging to a stag which the Prince was supposed to have shot, but H. H. laughed, and said good humoredly: 'No: it's of no use telling me I shot anything, for I didn't. But I'll keep the antlers as a souvenir of the Emperor's process.' So the story goes.

Mrs. Anderson, of Portland, Ore., is one woman who is able to take care of herself. She went out shopping the other day and noticed that a young man was dogging her steps. Finally he made an attempt to grab her purse. Mrs. Anderson laid down her bundle, rolled up her sleeves, doubled her fists and gave the fellow a mauling that he will remember for some time.

Cure of Pneumonia.

Hess Road, Niagara Co., N. Y., March 21, 1887. About a year ago I was first attacked with a severe pain in both lungs. I was first attacked with a violent chill, then a dreadful pain and then a cough accompanied by considerable fever. It looked very much like a bad attack of pneumonia. A friend of mine procured five ALLIGATOR'S PLASTERS. One he put under each arm, one under each shoulder blade, and one on my chest close around my throat. In a few hours the cough ceased, the pain gradually abated and I broke out in a profuse perspiration. I fell into a profound sleep, and the next day was almost free. I used the Plasters eight days afterwards, and have never had any trouble since. WILLIAM A. SAWYER.

General Quacks.

"Yes, it says," said a big fat physician, with a name which is known throughout the medical world of his practice words $40,000 a year. "Women?" "Yes, you've guessed it first time." They pay $100 every time they come into my office. My one gets one just let you stay the night." And Dr. H.—laughed and loud. This is quackery—light-edged, genteel quackery—to keep offering women, paying tribute year in and year out, and doing them no good. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the peculiar weaknesses and diseases of women. It does not lie to them nor rob them.

It is the overworked boiler that causes many accidents. Shooting Accident. So read the headlines of many a newspaper column, and we peruse with palpitating interest the details of the catastrophe, and are deeply impressed by the number of human lives involved. Yet thousands of men and women are falling victims every year to that terrible disease, consumption, or scrofula of the lungs, and they and their friends are satisfied to believe the malady incurable. Now, there could be no greater mistake. No earthly power, of course, can cure a lung disease, if it is not cured by the Golden Medical Discovery, which rapidly and surely arrests the ravages of consumption, taken in time. Do not, therefore, despair, until you have tried this wonderful remedy.
