Responsibility With the People of His Own Time.

"David, after he had served his generation by the will of God, fell on his knees with his arms stretched out, and said: 'I beseech thee, O Lord, receive my soul.'"

It is a fact which has for a long time been passing through my mind, but not until I have been forced to realize that I have a time to be reared as well as to die, a cradle as well as a grave, that I have a duty to perform as well as a responsibility. I have a duty to perform and a responsibility to discharge for the people of my own time. I have a duty to perform and a responsibility to discharge for the people of my own time. I have a duty to perform and a responsibility to discharge for the people of my own time.
