Take it out and hang it up to dry and examine its condition carefully. We recommend ladies to make a similar test with French Dressing, and gentlemen with any liquid solution of Paste Blacking, or with liquid blacking that comes in stone jugs.

"You can not make men virtuous by law." We have all heard this flat truism repeated and re-repeated until one becomes tired of the sound. Of course, you can not make men virtuous by law. Shall we, therefore, have no law? You can not make men virtuous by law: but you can make it harder for them to be outwardly and violently wicked. You can not make men virtuous by law; but you can make it somewhat less difficult for them to be vicious. You can not by law compel a man to love his wife, and to treat her with the consideration and tenderness which every creature worthy the woman who has trusted him with her all; but you can, by law, restrain a man from getting drunk and going home and cutting his wife's throat. The other day, in Auburn, N. Y., William Bohan was sentenced to State Prison for twenty-seven years for having, in a fit of drunken fury, gouged out both of his wife's eyes. Law can do something to prevent this sort of thing. You can not by law prevent a man from having a thirst for rum; but you can by law prevent him from finding on every corner a saloon with open door appealing to his insatiable appetite, and over-mastering his feeble effort at resistance.—The Amendment.

Hospital Remedies.

What are they? The growth of intelligence in medical matters has given rise to a demand for a class of genuine, reliable medicines. The opportunity of the ignorant quack, who grew rich during everything out of a single bottle has passed. To supply satisfactorily this demand this list of remedies has been created. They are the re-write prescriptions of the most famous medical practitioners of the day, gathered from the hospitals of London, Paris Berlin and Vienna. Prescriptions which cost the patients of these specialists from $25 to $100, are here offered, prepared and ready for use, at the nominal price of one dollar each. Not one of them is a cure all—each one has only the reasonable power of curing a single disease and each one keeps its contract. Sufferers from catarrh Diseased Lungs, Headache, Asthma, Consumption, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Liver and Kidney complaints, Fever and Ague, Neuralgia, Female Weakness, Leucorrhœa or Nervous Debility, should send stamp for descriptive catalogue to Hospital Remedy Co., No. 58½ West King St., Toronto, Canada. If your druggist does not keep these remedies remit price and we will send direct free of duty.

MANHOOD

How Lost, How Restored!

Just published, a new edition of

on the radical cure of Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Nervousness, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.
