Common Sense

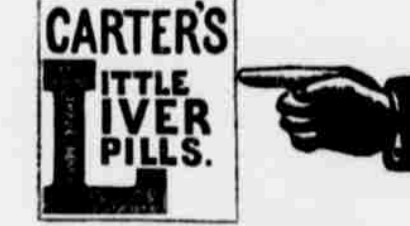

In the treatment of slight ailments would save a vast amount of sickness and misery. One of Ayer's Pills, taken after dinner, will assist Digestion; taken at night, will relieve Constipation; taken at any time, will correct irregularities of the Stomach and Bowels, stimulate the Liver, and cure Sick Headache. Ayer's Pills, as all know who use them, are a mild cathartic, pleasant to take, and always prompt and satisfactory in their results.

Cathartic

for myself and family. — J. T. Hess, Lehighville, Pa.
"Ayer's Pills have been in use in my family upwards of twenty years, and have completely verified all that is claimed for them." — Thomas F. Adams, San Diego, Texas.
"I have used Ayer's Pills in my family for seven or eight years. Whenever I have an attack of headache, to which I am very subject, I take a dose of Ayer's Pills and am always promptly relieved. I find them equally beneficial in colds; and, in my family, they are used for bilious complaints and other disturbances with such good effect that we rarely, if ever, have to call a physician." — H. Voullien, Hotel Voullien, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

Open Letter.

The following letter was by accident mislaid, handed in to us, and we take the liberty of presenting it to the public.

DEAR KITTY — Every time I think of you sensations of unutterable joy caper over me like young goats over a stable roof, and thrill through it like Spanish needles through a pair of tow linen trousers. As a goshin swimmer in a mud puddle, so swim I in a sea of glory. Visions of ecstatic rapture, thicker than the hairs of a bleaching brush and brighter than the hues of a humming bird's pinions visit me in my slumber, and born on their invisible wings your image stands before me and I reach out to grasp it like a pointer snapping at a blue bottle fly.

When I first beheld your angelic perfection I was bewildered, and my brains whirled around, my eyes stood open like cellar doors in a country town and I lifted up my ears to catch the silvery accents of thy voice. My tongue refused to wag, and in silent adoration I drank in the sweet infection of love as a thirsty man swalloweth a tumbler of hot whisky punch.

Your forehead is smoother than the elbow of an old coat, your eyes are glorious to contemplate; in their liquid depths I behold legions of Cupids bathing like a cohort of ants in an old army cracker. When thy head lies pressed upon my manly breast the fire of your eyes penetrate my whole anatomy as a load of bird-shot goes through a rotten apple. Your nose is as perfect as though carved from a chunk of Persian marble, and your mouth is puckering with sweetness. Nectar hangs on your lips like honey on a bear's paw, and myriads of unfeigned kisses are there ready to fly out and light somewhere like blue birds out of their parent's nest.

Your laugh rings in my ears like the music of harp strings, or the bleat of a stray lamb on a bleak hill-side. The dimples on your cheeks are like bowers in a bed of roses or the hollows in cakes of home-made sugar. I am dying to fly to thy presence and pour out the burning eloquence of my love as thrifty housewives pour out hot coffee. Away from you I am as lonely as a sick rat.

Sometimes I can hear the June bugs of despondency buzzing in my ears and I feel the cold lizards of despair crawling down my back. Uncouth fears like a thousand ninnows nibble at my spirits, and my soul is pierced with doubt like an old cheese bored with skippers. My love for you is stronger than patent butter or the kick of a young cow, and more selfish than a kitten's first caterwaul. As a song bird hankers for the light of day, the cautious mouse for a piece of bacon in a trap, as a weaned pup longs for new milk, so I long for thee. You are fairer than a speckled pullet, than a Yankee doughnut fried in sorghum molasses, brighter than the top-knot plumage on the head of a duck. You are candy, kisses, raisins, pound cake, and sweetened tody altogether and if these few line will enable you to see the inside of my soul, and assist me in winning your affections, I shall be happy as a wood pecker in a cherry tree or a stage horse in a green pasture. If you cannot appreciate my soul-mastering passions I shall pine away like a poisoned bed bug and fall away from the flourishing vine of life like an untimely branch. And in the gloaming when the shadows grow from the hill and the frog sings his cheerful evening hymns, you, happy in another's love, can come and shed a tear and catch a cold on the grave of yours truly.

THE SPRING MEDICINE YOU WANT

Paine's Celery Compound

Purifies the Blood,
Strengthens the Nerves,
Stimulates the Liver,
Regulates the Kidneys and Bowels,
Gives Life and Vigor to every organ.

There's nothing like it. Use It Now!

"Last spring, being very much run down and debilitated, I procured some of Paine's Celery Compound. The use of two bottles made me feel like a new man. As a general tonic and spring medicine, I do not know its equal."
W. L. GREENLEAF,
Brigadier General, U. S. G., Burlington, Vt.
$1.00. Six for $5.00. At Druggists.

"Having used your Paine's Celery Compound this spring, I can safely recommend it as the most powerful and at the same time most gentle regulator. It is a splendid nerve tonic, and since taking it I have felt like a new man."

MANHOOD

How Lost, How Restored!
Just published, a new edition of
Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure of Syphilis, or the incurable disease induced by excess of early indelicacy. The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' experience, that the alarming consequences of this disease may be radically cured, and that the cure is of one simple, certain, and effectual nature, and of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself, privately and radically.

This treatise should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent under seal, in a plain envelope to any address, post-paid, on receipt of four cents or two postage stamps. Address,
