

OL. 26.

MIDDLEBURGH, SNYDER CO., PA., JULY 11, 1889.

MS of LOCAL INTEREST

smeralda" in the Hall Saturday

s Laura Walter of Akron, Ohio re visiting friends.

ASTED.-A buyer for a brand harness. Inquire at this office. ods sold at and below cost at the town council now act in the mateberger's for the next 30 days. am Spangler, Jr., of Newark,

Jersey is here visiting his dman & Getz, Beavertown, Pa. plenty and in good condition.

s Lillie Orwig, after spending al weeks with friends in Union ty returned home Saturday.

copy one of his Lewistown ads. this trout season closes on the 15th y. The Post has scored within he has been silent for some time he of 500 of the speckled beauties is by no means dead.

. Seebold left on Wednesday eveland and Pittsburg in the sts of the White Sewing Ma-ere will be a festival at the ant Point chapel, for the benethe chapel, July 27 in the even-n't fail to hear Porter in the facharacter "Old Man Rogers" smeralda" next Saturday evenlivan has one more man to lick July 10, 4t. great Knocker-out, "Jonh Barwho will turn his toes to agle Hotel.

odling's Flying Horse or col- one of the most bountiful harvests more of a gentleman than a fighter, thought of Sam Jones when he said carousal is exhibiting on the for years. The hay crop was excel- and his defeat goes to prove that a that some fellows when they get to

Gen. Sherman says the eleventh commandment is, "mind your own all who have tried it pronounce it of the set of business." Up to date only one all who have tried it pronounce it man in a million has found out that the ne plus ultra in frozen dishes.

this injunction is in his catechism. R. Guncberger offers extraordi-The board-walk to Franklin which nary bargains in Clothing, Gents' was carried away by the June flood | Furnishing Gocds, &c., for the next has nearly all been recovered and 30 days in order to make room for only needs to be put in place. Let fall goods. What's the matter with the grocery men who canvassed the county Game in this section promises to a few weeks ago and offered such be plenty this year. The light win- extraordinary bargains to our farter was favorable to rabbits, quail mers? Strange, that men having you want a good black Worsted and pheasants and "the woods is such extraordinary advantages over guaranteed, for $7. Go to full of 'em." Deer are also reported our home merchants should be scared off by a little back-woods paper like the Post. Men who own sugar er to it.

him but the lot on which the house stood. A subscription is being circulated and we hope the contributions for the relief of the family will

John L. Sullivan and Jake Kilrain

MUSICAL COLLEGE.-The 36th Ses Benjamin Steimling's house, two sion of Six Weeks, opens Monday miles west of Middleburgh, in what evening, July 29, for the Teaching is known as "Doodletown," caught of Young Ladies in Vocal and In- fire on Saturday after-noon during strumental Music. Address. the absence of the family and was F. C. MOYER, Director, burned to the ground with all its Freeburg, Pa. contents. Loss about $500. No

FOR SALE .- The undersigned will insurance. It is most unfortunate sell at private sale her house and lot for Mr. Steimling. Everything was situate near Kramer, Pa., lately oca burned up but the clothing they had cupied by Dr. Seip. For particulars on their bodies and nothing is left call on or address

J. G. Chesnutt has been too busy since the flood to write special advertisements for the Post but we ter of putting it up.

MRS. MARY LAUDENSLAGER, Selinsgrove, Pa. The advertisement of the St. Elmo come in liberally. Hotel, Philadelphia, appears in another column, and we take pleasure her, son of John Moatz in calling attention to the House as the champion bruisers of the world, ay that measured 81 by 61 tions and cheap in price. Our peoof the Pennsylvania State Editorial Association.

On Monday morning June 24, the editor of the Post turned the paper upon the tender mercies of the boys and in company with his wife bade our pleasant little hamlet a week's adieu to join the editors of Pennsylvania in a visit to the Seu. Cape May being the objective point, we proceeded to Harrisburg and from there to Philadelphia over the Pennrefineries, coffee plantations, and sylvania railroad. Arriving at Philrepresent half the merchantile in- adelphia we put up with Col. Feger, terests of the world should not be of the St. Elmo Hotel, where liberal so chicken-hearted. They have gone provisions were made for our comweek to show our people that though South. Ah, there, boys ! Stay there ; fort. The next morning at 7:30 we or we'll give you a local with a crack- proceeded to Race Street Wharf where the palatial steamer "Republic" lay to convey us to Cape May Point. The steamer "hove anchor" a little before 8 o'clock and was soon steaming down the Bay, loaded with probably the most patient, forgiving and long-suffering body of humanity that ever freighted a craft. After a most delightful trip of nearly six hours we landed at the Point and from there were conveyed by rail to Cape May Cityand then

"Behold the sea ! he opaline, the plentiful, the strong et beautiful as is the rose of June. reah as is the trickling rainbow of July. ea full or food, the nourisher of kinds, urger of earth and nourisher of men. its mathematic cob and flow a hint of that which changes not.

But there was no time for comht a hen egg to our office on first class, with liberal accommoda- fought for $20,000 stakes and the templation. Dinner at the Mamchampion belt in Louisiana on Mon- moth Stockton Hotel was waiting, ple stopping in Philadelphia will day, which resulted in the defeat of and the trip down the Bay having I Ulsh, Veteranary Surgeon find in Col. Feger, the proprietor, a Kilrain in 75 rounds, during which had an effervescing effect upon oved from McClure to Swine- typical hoste, one with whom they he was knocked down twenty-eight some, the Association made a bee nd will herafter be found at will always find pleasure in meeting. times. Sullivan is again King. Kil- line for the Hotel which we found a rain was a usurper. Kilrain is called magnificent structure. Everything Our farmers have just gathered in "Gentleman Jake" and is evidently on the magnificent plan, and we Flats this week to the great lent, but some difficulty was expe-gentleman has no business in the Heaven the first they will do when rienced in getting it in prime condi- 24-foot ring. Our sympathies were looking at the Great White Throne tion, owing to the recent rainy with Kilrain, for Sullivan is a brute, will be to ask : "How much did weather. Potatoes look fine and the but as it required a brute to win the that cost ?" Led by this inborn Cape and a banquet with music and ber of our farmers say that wheat fight Sullivan is entitled to the belt curiosity, we hunted up the proprietor, Mr. T. F. Walton, probably The Sterling Comedy Company better known as "Plunger" Walton, to sleep in their luxurious quarters Childrens' Day was observed in which has been re-organized with who informed us that the first cost while the "deep sea rolled down benew people and brass band, will give of the house was eight hundred low. a benefit for Capt. Ryan Post, G. A. thousand dollars, and that he had sides the general attraction of the R. of Middleburgh in Seebold's Hall spent eighty thousand dollars this bustle, paying off bills, checking ver and Hassinger. spring in repairing and refurnishing trunks and getting ready for the remagnificently engraved photo- they will produce the beautiful the same. It will entertain 1000 turn trip home on a special train comedy of life in North Carolina guests at a time. "Eight hundred over the West Shore railway which thousand dollars for a house" we left about noon and made the dis- of Adamsburg after the flood, free of charge with Post donated all its "charity" fund thought. How in thunder will he tance to Philadelphia-81 miles-in each copy of the paper every week to the Johnstown sufferers, and this get his money out ? We were not 105 minutes, including several stops. very liable to follow the for two months. Price five cents will afford our people an opportunity long in pondering over so ponderous We returned home Saturday per paper. For sale in Middleburgh to show their appreciation of the a problem, for when we had washed morning delighted with our trip, Grand Army men's liberality and at and started for dinner our eyes met but at the same time realizing that the same time reimburse their treas. the following card on our room sociation was conveyed to this delightful and growing summer resort passed with little or no observance. by special train over the West Jer- James, a son of John Wiand. The 17th Annual Excursion of glimpse we had of New Jersey as a one day last week shot himself in go to hell, but Texas never," and where it entered. He was himself any man who says that New Jersey able to get it back again. is a delightful country, simply illus- Rev. O. E. Pfleuger has resigned desolate and uninviting as are the Lykens, Pa. He moved last week. inland towns compared to ours just Mr. and Mrs. William Middles You must take one with the other to home since the Centenial appreciate both. Sea Isle City is along the coast, with probably the ed on Saturday, finest beach in the world. The city Mrs. James S. Smith is seriously is clean and healthful and its people sick with dropsy. are generous. The lunch prepared name. The members of the Associa- dren accompany him.

tion, their wives, daughters, or mammoth dining room where stood ning. It was well attended. a table probably one hundred feet | Farmers are very busy with their gentlemen to wait on them. It weather, worked like a fire-alarm; some one clover" but the rest frowned him by our citizens. down. Ob, what a time : And then Two of Millard Kern's horses, the beach. Battlhing with the gigan- hitched to a wagon, started and ran tic waves, knocked down, rolled over home from town at the top of their and then see the old veterans of the speed without injuring anything. Quill come up smiling as a boy on a one day last week. Fortunately up to this time, but now the sun be gan to feel uncomfortable and we The panting City cried to the Sea. I am faint with heat (Oh, breathe on me!

So, the City, hot with that BEAVERTOWN .- The Fourth was sey railroad. It was the first fair while recklessly handling a revolver farming country and looking at it in the leg above the knee. The ball this light we thought of it as Ben did not get far below the surface Butler said of Texas, viz : "I may and lodged about two inches from trates what Talleyrand said, "men the pastorate of the Beavertown speak to conceal their ideas." But charge and has secured a charge at so much more delightful are their warth, of East Lynn, Mo., natives of cities at the Sea. The country is the this township, are visiting friends bitter and the sea is the sweet. here. It is the first time they were

A. H. Bowersox has been appointone of the most delightful places ed postmaster. The office was mov-

Frederick Smith, of near Willat the Continental for the Associa- jamsport, who attained to his mation was one of the most stupend- jority in Beavertawn, is visiting his ous affairs ever called by that parents. His wife and three chil-

The Lutheran Sunday school held sweet-hearts, were directed into the a children's service on Sunday eve-long, loaded to a point with every harvests. Some have finished cutconceivable dainty in the line of eat- ting and are hauling it into the ables, drinkables, and smokables. barns. The crop is an excellent one. The ladies were requested to take Hay has been made under great inseats at the small tables and the convenience on account of the rainy

An abundance of whortle berries remarked something about "pigs in are brought from Shade mountain

Sunday after-noon's bath in the mill- they did not meet any vehicle on pond. The weather had been cool the road CITIZEN.

TROXELVILLE.-The unfavorable recalled Longfellow's beautiful lines : weather was a great drawback to hay making-scores of tons spoiled altogether, and as much more greatly damaged. Some of our farmers t of our Young Americans.

s Jesse Yomans of Columbus, Bradford Evans of Thompwn, Pa., and Edwin Bower of a, Pa., are the guests of as and F. E. Bower and famw weeks ago two little boys by me of Ikey captured an 18 inch at the Branch north of Mifflinnd sold it to a Mifflinburg anfor fifteen cents. Liberal ; cough, coffin is what philosoterm "a logical sequence." but by curing the cold with a Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, the will be stopped and the coffin eded-just at present.

inestimable value of Ayer's bridge builders by the Snyder Counarilla as a blood-purifier ty Commissioners at their letting It corrects irregularities, me and strength to the vital and cleanses the system of Meiser Kahley's purities. The best family LEMENT NOTICE.-Having sold interest in the store and business in Middleburgh. I all parties having claims me to come and get their and those owing me will some and settle before July as after that date all acwill be in the hands of a

D. T. RHOADES, Middleburgh, Pa.

Price, salesman for the Monover other nurseries, among re, first, they come from a asure in recommending Mr. dren and hope that the mother's out things until money is earned to reunion in Heaven.

Drees

corn is promising. Fruit of all kinds was damaged by the wet weather and the crop will be light.

C. F. Mensch, agent for the Harrisburg Sunduy Telegram, desires to announce to his patrons that begraphic view of Johnstown, repre-every Saturday afternoon.

BRIDGE LETTINGS. - The following is a list of contracts awarded to be known to every wife and on Monday and Tuesday, July 1st and 2nd :

Paxtonville, Chas. Boyer. $1172 Henrey Deitrich. A. S. Heifrich, 1144 Ulsh's (Iron). P. E. Lane, Chicago, Ill., Peter Keeffer, Sunbury, Hoover's Hassinger's (Iron), Mt. Vernon (O.) Bridge Co. 1113

Bowersox' (Iron) Variety Iron Works Cleve [land, O., 1655 Burns' (Iron). Champion Bridge Company. (Wellington, O., 210)

In Middleburgh, on June 30, 1889, Harriet, wife of Frederick Walter, aged 66 years, 7 months and 29 days. Mrs. Walter suffered long and patiently for nearly a year when death came to her relief. She was the befor evermore.

704

paper every subscriber will receive a on Saturday evening, July 13, when senting the stricken city before and Hills entitled "Esmeralda." The

ury. The company is better than door: ever, and the play will be doubly worth the price of admission. It is always well for a business man to have good credit, but to do this he should avoid using it any and to some extent restored our apmore than is necessary. Practically petite. Lost in wonder, we had alpay as you go is as good policy for most forgotten our jolly companions, 1062 the buyer as any one can see it is Messrs. Trout of the Lewistown for the seller. Few people realize Free Press and Lesher of the Sekeep, and is what keeps more men French and the balance Scandanadearer place to trade than the city of Bro. Lesher he was hewing his where for casual customers credit is | way through a land slide of victuals, impossible. Much more than the while Trout would look suspiciously loved mother of a family of seven legal rate of interest is added to the at a dish and then look at us appealchildren, all of whom survive her price of the article where credit is ingly and remark : "Say, Taum, sery Co., Monroe, Mich., has but one, Howard, who was killed in given. In reality the honest man what in the all-firation is this?" By avassing this county during the army. The living are Mary, in- who intends to pay his debts cannot the end of the week however we befew weeks with considerable termarried with J.S. Boob of Mifflin- afford to be trusted. He is saddled came familiar with our bills of fare burg, Elmira intermarried with Cal- with a part of the losses of those vin Stetler, Middleburgh, Theodore who are dishonest in addition to in- that time than we ever knew before and William of Akron, Ohio, and terest. It is better to borrow y soil, and third, they have The community deeply sympathize on it and buy only for cash, than to boarding, good beds, obliging ator method of grafting. We with the bereaved husband and chil- buy on credit. Better still to do with- tendants and all for $2.50 a day.

lack of thrifts.

THIS ROOM WITH BOARDING FOR TWO, 1 WEEK, $75.00.

to J. R. Wood, Esq., General Pass- ask the questions. This evened up matters a little enger Agent, and G. W. Boyd, Esq., to Philadelphia and return; to W. F. and handsome as ever. how much their credit costs them. linsgrove Times, until we found our- Russell, Esq., General Manager, It is by far the dearest luxury they self sweating over a bill of fare, half and other officers of the Cape May and Delaware Bay Navigation Com-

"Home, home, sweet, sweet, home

There's no place like home. There's no place like home.

poor than anybody else. It is vian, we heard Lesher calling to the pany, and to Captain Lackey, of the mainly the credit which the country colored waiter "Give me the whole Steamer Republic, for the pleasure news of the day all together I feel store expects to, and is, perhaps, scheme !" That meant "all on the of our ride on that magnificent like helping him along. obliged to give that makes it a bill" we presume, and the next seen steamer down the Delaware Bay to of which the renowned host, Col. sickness. Duffey, is proprietor ; to Mayor Ludlaw, and his council of Sea Isle

President of the West Jersey Railfor probably learned more French in nate : second, they are rais- Sarah and Charles of Middleburgh. money on a lump and pay interest commodations were first-class. Good on Thursday, June 27th ; and made ver. it the Red Letter day of our trip to the Sea Shore, and to T. F. Walton, asure in recommending Mr. dren and hope that the mother's out things until money is earned to our people, as we have in agentleman and his stock in a gentleman and his stock able her to meet them all in a grand thousands of homes the secret of in a grand thousands of homes the secret of a line agentleman and his stock able her to meet them all in a grand thousands of homes the secret of a line agentleman and his stock able her to meet them all in a grand thousands of homes the secret of a line agentleman and his stock able her to meet them all in a grand thousands of homes the secret of a line agentleman and his stock able her to meet them all in a grand thousands of homes the secret of a line agentleman and his stock able her to meet them all in a grand thousands of homes the secret of a line agentleman and his stock able her to meet them all in a grand thousands of homes the secret of a line agentleman and his stock able her to meet them all in a grand thousands of homes the secret of a line agentleman and his stock able her to meet them all in a grand thousands of homes the secret of a line agentleman and his stock able her to meet them all in a grand thousands of homes the secret of a line agentleman and his stock able her to meet them all in a grand thousands of homes the secret of a line agentleman and his stock able her to meet them all in a grand thousands of homes the secret of a line agentleman and his stock able her to meet them all in a grand thousands of homes the secret of a line agentleman and his stock agent agentleman and his stock able her to meet them all in a grand thousands of homes the secret of a line agentleman and his stock agent age at his magnificent Continental Ho-tel, Col. Duffy, proprietor. The As-house contained.

It came from the heaving breast of the deep. are done cutting grain, others are ent as dreams are and sudden sleep almost done, and still others have dancing at the Stockton and the will not yield as well as was expectmembers of the Association retired ed.

the St. Luke's Sunday school last Sunday which was well attended. Friday morning was all hustle and addresses were made by Revs. Sto

> Quite a number of visitors were in town over Sunday, among whom was the most handsome grand-pap

Mrs. Laura Walter, (nee Bolender) of Akron, Ohio, was the guest of her uncle, Dr. J. C. Shuman a few days last week

Isaac C. Swartz's new house is al most ready for the slate. If funny Dave keeps on improving as he has The thanks of the Pennsylvania thus far, he will soon be the boss State Editorial Association are due carpenter, and Philip will have to

Lizzie, the pretty daughter of our Assistant General Passenger Agent | county surveyor, who has been living of the Pennsylvania Railroad, for in Akron. Ohio for the last twenty the courtesy of free transportation one months, returned home last from our respective home stations Friday evening, looking hale, hearty

CALIFORNIA JOE

WEST BEAVER .- Thinking U No. the Lowell scribe could not get the West Beaver can boast of a man Cape May Point ; to Charles K. that dispises to pay twenty-five cts. Landis, founder of Sea Isle City, for a good square meal on special who entertained us so sumptously occasions. Perhaps it would have at lunch at the Continental Hotel, surprised his stomach and caused

The prohibitions are now drink ing their whishey out of tin cans in City ; General W. J. Sewell, Vice our township. Good idea.

It is reported that butter milk ice way, all of whom contributed so cream has been on top at some of greatly to our pleasure and comfort the ice cream gardens in West Bea-

> Boys you should report if huckleberries are plenty so we can all take

> > PSEUDONYMI.