Dress the Hair

With Ayer's Hair Vigor. Its cleanliness, beneficial effects on the scalp, and lasting perfume commend it for universal toilet use. It keeps the hair soft and silken, preserves its color, prevents it from falling, and, if the hair has become weak or thin, promotes a new growth.

"To restore the original color of my hair, which had turned prematurely gray, I used Ayer's Hair Vigor with entire success. I cheerfully testify to the Efficacy of this preparation."—Mrs. P. H. Davidson, Alexandria, La. "I was afflicted some three years with scalp disease. My hair was falling out and what remained turned gray. I was induced to try Ayer's Hair Vigor, and in a few weeks the disease in my scalp disappeared and my hair resumed its original color."—(Rev.) S. S. Sims, Pastor U. B. Church, St. Bernice, Ind.

"A few years ago I suffered the entire loss of my hair from the effects of letter. I hoped that after a time nature would repair the loss, but I waited in vain. Many remedies were suggested, none, however, with such proof of merit as Ayer's Hair Vigor, and I began to use it. The result was all I could have desired. A growth of hair soon came out all over my head, and grew to be as soft and heavy as I ever had, and of a natural color, and finally set."—J. H. Pratt, Spofford, Texas.

He Proclaims Himself Christ.

Down on the banks of the Savanna river the negroes are in a fearful state of mind. For four weeks or so a white man, who calls himself Jesus Christ, has been going through the county preaching. The negroes have come to believe in him, and have accepted his words as inspired teachings.

"Give up everything and follow me," he commanded. "Let your crops go; turn your cattle into the patches; the Lord will provide for you."

And, obeying him, hundreds of negroes have quit work. Their little crops have grown up with weeds; the planters have been deserted by their laborers, who absolutely refuse to work, the turpentine manufacturers and the saw-mill men have difficulty in getting help enough to continue operations. The colored population has been demoralized for three weeks. To such an extent has the craze spread that the intelligent colored people and the whites joined in discussing some plan to put a stop to it. It was decided to arrest the crank or send him out of the country. Some were ready to lynch him, but better counsel prevailed.

A warrant has been issued for his arrest and is in the hands of the sheriff. He has prophesied that he would be arrested and his followers—"disciples" as they call themselves—declared that he should not be taken away and that no violence should be done him. The women were more emphatic than the men, and had armed themselves with guns, but the new prophet told his people not to offer any resistance. They feared that he would be crucified, but he told them that he would not be put to death again.

When the officers went to arrest him no resistance was offered, but a large crowd soon joined the favored disciples, who are almost constantly about him. They were ready to tear the men to pieces, but at their prophet's request they suffered him to be taken quietly away. After his arrest he gave the name of Campbell, and said he came from the west. He shows scars in his hands which he says were made by nails when he was crucified on Calvary. His hair and beard are long and shaggy, although he evidently endeavors to trim his beard as the Saviour's is represented in some old pictures.

The negroes fall down and worship him. He dresses shabbily sometimes, and at all times poorly. He refuses money publicly, but is said to have money, and it was feared the charge of vagrancy could not be sustained. At his bidding women have left their husbands and men their families to follow him. His familiarity with the Scriptures is exceptional. He has told the people he will go back to heaven in a chariot of fire at an early date.

The Pennsylvania Seashore Excursions. A Delightful Trip to the Seashore. For several summers past the select seashore excursions of the Pennsylvania Railroad have been accounted the most delightful trips ever arranged for the people of this section. They have presented opportunities for visiting the most popular resorts on the Atlantic coast at a rate of fare which comes within the power of all, and the limit of the visit has covered just the period of time that busy people could devote to leisure.

The announcement that the excursions will be resumed this season in good news. Thursday, July 11th, is the date fixed and Atlantic City, Cape May, Sea Isle City, or Ocean City are the resorts from which a choice may be made. A special train, running on the schedule given below, will carry the party, and the round-trip tickets, good for ten days, will be sold at the rates quoted:—
