Thursday, July 11, 1889.

GLOBE MILLS.—Hon. S. H. Yoder shipped two carloads of flour to Washington, D. C.

Amon Zeiber is the most benevolent fellow in our community. He treated his harvesting hands to a gallon of mountain dew.

At A. C. Moyer's, a beautiful hand engraved pitcher, celery stand or other glassware is given with each pound of Silver Star baking powder at a very reasonable price.

In the last issue of the Post we were rather imposed upon by the Kreamer reporter as to the post office. We knew well enough that J. A. Smith was not post-master, but he was the chief cook and bottle washer all the same.

James Leocy says he must tie his grain cradle to his leg with a string to keep it from mowing too fast.

The population is fast increasing in our township. Many of our friends find themselves the happy father's of bouncing little boys and girls.

The farmers are still busy harvesting.

Some of our boys were to the flying circus on Saturday evening and arrived home at an early hour the next morning. They say "it flies like blazes."

Three gypsy families are camping near Ulrich's tannery. Horse trading a specialty.

CENTREVILLE.—Jacob Schwarm, one of the Johnstown survivors, was in town among his friends.

Constable Renninger of Middleburgh was in town recently on official business.

In the last issue of the Post the devil got hold of the wrong figure. The 205 trout were caught till 1 o'clock P. M. and not 4 P. M.

Jas. K. Reish & W. H. Smith of Cowan, were in town last week.

Dr. Sampsel has added an attractive Soda Fountain to his drug store. The finest flavors of soda water always on hand.

W. P. Thomas of Lewisburg, was here on business on the 4th.

S. F. Sheary was registered a day or two in Williamsport last week.

J. E. Bolig and J. F. Spangler who are working on railroad bridge at Lewistown, were here with their dears, over Sunday.

Rev. T. A. Shortiss of York county, occupied the pulpit in the Evangelical church on Sunday morning.

Dr. D. N. Sampsel and lady of Winfield mingled among friends here on Sunday.

Levi Walter of Iowa visited relatives in this vicinity.

The weather is not very cold. Dog days have opened up in earnest.

ADAMSBURG.—The Fourth passed off very quietly at this place.

Farmers are making full use of the fair weather.

Prof. Houser will open the Normal class on Monday, July 15th and to continue in session for six weeks. Those who intend to teach the coming winter should avail themselves of this opportunity.

County Supt. Herman will give weekly lectures to the students of the Normal.

Samuel Werner while at work at his saw-mill had a piece of steel fly into his eye which may cost the eye.

Wm. F. Neff of Philadelphia is putting on the slate roof for Dr. H. J. Smith. The Dr. is getting one of the finest homes in our town.

The Iron ore mines have again commenced work.

The brick layers have commenced work at Jacob Greenhoe's new house.

Dan. Dreese is erecting a new bark shed.

O. I. C.

"Mulligus Joe" must send his name with his poetical effusions, so that if any one comes to kill the editor for printing such poetry we can refer him to the author.

ST. ELMO HOTEL, Nos. 317 & 319 ARCH STREET, PHILA.—Rates reduced to $2.00 per day. The traveling public will still find at this Hotel the same liberal provision for their comfort. It is located in the immediate centres of business and places of amusement and the different Railroad depots, as well. All parts of the city, are daily accessible by Street Cars constantly passing the door. It offers special inducements to those visiting the city for business or pleasure. Your patronage respectfully solicited. Jos. M. Feger, Proprietor.

LOWELL.—Amos Snook's dam was washed away by the rain we had on last Friday evening.

W. G. Smith had a valuable cow die last week. Billy says that will not detain him from attending to all that may give him a call to have their wheat cut with his new self-binder.

There was very little hay stored away last week around here on account of wet weather.

The farmers are busy cutting wheat for the past few days. At this writing some are through cutting and hauling in.

The Fourth past off as usual. The boys had a big time at the Hall.

Miss Lucy Goss paid her old friends a visit in our town before leaving for the West, which will be in the near future.

Mrs. Robert Goss was much surprised a few evenings ago by a circle of friends calling on her—the number being about 70. Her birthday was the cause. Robert says, "now eat, drink, and be merry, for to-morrow you may die." U. No.

HUMMEL'S WIFE.—MR. HARRY A. Schuck, son of S. B. Schuck is reading law with Hon. S. P. Wolverton, Sunbury, Pa. Harry is a young man of good moral character, well qualified for the profession, and we know he will succeed.

Miss Mary J. Hummel, a sister of Mrs. S. B. Schuck died at Williamsport, Pa., July 2nd. Miss Hummel was a very intelligent young lady, she was a faithful member of the Presbyterian church, and was never absent from her church or Sunday School unless prevented by sickness, leaves many friends to mourn her loss.

As a token of respect many choice flowers were placed upon her casket, and while the casket was lowered to the grave showers of flowers followed it. She was a Christian, and died very happy, she closed her eyes in death with the assurance of a happy home in Heaven, leaving a beautiful smile upon her face.

HOSPITAL REMEDIES.

What are they? The growth of intelligence in medical matters has given rise to a demand for a class of generic, reliable medicines. The opportunity of the ignorant quack, who grew rich during everything out of a single bottle has passed. To supply this demand the best list of remedies has been created. They are the favorite prescriptions of the most famous medical practitioners of the day gathered from the hospitals of London, Paris, Berlin and Vienna. Prescriptions which cost the patients of these specialists from $25 to $100, are here offered, prepared and ready for use, at the nominal price of one dollar each. Not one of them is a cure all; each one has only the reasonable power of curing a single disease and each one keeps its count. Sufferers from Catarrh, Diseased Lungs, Bronchitis, Asthma, Consumption, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Liver and Kidney complaints, Fever and Ague, Neuralgia, Female Weakness, Leucorrhoea, or Nervous Debility, should send stamp for descriptive catalogue to Hospital Remedy Co., No. 263 1/2 West King St., Toronto, Canada. If your druggist does not keep these remedies remit price and we will send direct free of duty.
